Written notice of the transfer hearing shall be given to the child and the child's parents, guardian, or custodian at least 48 hours prior to the hearing.
- (3) Deciding factors for transfer. The following factors shall be considered when determining whether to transfer jurisdiction of the child to the Community court: The nature and seriousness of the offense with which the child is charged; the nature and condition of the child, as evidenced by the child's age, mental and physical condition; past record of offenses, and past court efforts at rehabilitation and the likelihood of rehabilitation.

- (4) Standard of proof. The court may transfer jurisdiction of the child to Community court if the court finds clear and convincing evidence that there are no reasonable prospects for rehabilitating the child through resources available to the court, and the offense allegedly committed by the child evidences a pattern of conduct which constitutes a substantial danger to the public.

- (5) Written court order. When a petition to transfer a juvenile to the Community court is filed, the juvenile court shall issue a written order granting the petition or denying the petition to transfer which order shall contain the reasons for its order. The parents or legal guardian of a child 16 years of age or older may petition the juvenile court on behalf of the child for emancipation or, in such situations where there is no parent or legal guardian available or willing to petition for emancipation, the child may petition for emancipation. The court shall not grant such status unless the parties prove to the court by clear and convincing evidence that the child is capable of functioning as an independent and responsible member of the Community. Where the petitioner is the child, the child must further show that the petition was not filed primarily in response to restrictions and limitations imposed by his or her parent, guardian or custodian.

All parties shall be entitled to advance copies of court documents, including petitions and reports, unless deemed inappropriate by the court.

(b) Appointment of counsel.

- (1) Dependency proceedings. A parent, guardian, or custodian shall be entitled to be represented by counsel, who may be either an attorney or an advocate admitted to practice in the Community court, in any dependency proceeding, beginning at the first hearing and throughout all stages of the proceedings. A parent, guardian, or custodian may request the appointment of counsel at any stage of a dependency proceeding. Counsel shall be appointed immediately upon the filing of a petition alleging child abuse and neglect. A parent, guardian or custodian may knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily waive appointed counsel at any stage of the proceedings and inform the court of the intention to proceed without representation or to retain counsel at their own expense.
- (2) Delinquency proceedings. A juvenile shall be entitled to be represented by counsel, who may be either an attorney or an advocate admitted to practice in the Community court, in any delinquency proceeding, beginning at the first hearing and throughout all stages of the proceedings. A juvenile or his or her parent or guardian may request the appointment of counsel to the juvenile at any stage of a delinquency proceeding. Counsel shall be appointed immediately upon the filing of a juvenile delinquency petition or complaint, petition to revoke probation, or citation in any delinquency matter. A juvenile may knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily waive appointed counsel at any stage of the proceedings and inform the court of the intention to proceed without representation or to retain counsel at their own expense.

- (3) The right to be represented by counsel shall include the right to consult with counsel as soon as practicable. This right shall also include the right to obtain and inspect, through counsel and/or counsel's staff, any juvenile court records related to the case.
- (4) Failure of a parent, guardian, or custodian to appear at any dependency hearing, or failure of a juvenile to appear at a delinquency hearing, does not waive the person's right to counsel or the right of counsel to appear on their behalf.

Secs. 11-101—11-128. Reserved.

ARTICLE VI. JUVENILE JUSTICE

Sec. 11-129. Procedure for arrest and detention of juveniles.

(a) By warrant or court order. A juvenile shall be arrested by a police officer or a probation officer pursuant to:

- (1) An order of the juvenile court;
- (2) A warrant.

(b) Without warrant or court order. A juvenile may be arrested or taken into custodial detention by a police officer or a probation officer without a warrant or order of the court when:

- (1) The juvenile has committed an offense in the presence of the officer;
- (2) There are reasonable grounds to believe that the juvenile has committed an offense under this Community Code of Ordinances or applicable federal law, or has violated the terms of any probation grant from the tribal court;

- (3) There are reasonable grounds to believe the juvenile has run away from his or her parents, guardian or custodian.

(c) Warning of rights prior to questioning. When an officer takes a juvenile into custodial detention the officer shall warn the juvenile prior to any questioning that the juvenile has a right to remain silent, that anything the juvenile says can be used against the juvenile in court, that the juvenile has the right, at his or her own expense, to have the assistance of legal counsel, and to have his or her parent, guardian or custodian, and/or counsel present during questioning. A juvenile may request a voluntariness hearing in any criminal matter to determine if any statements made by the juvenile were voluntary and admissible.

(d) Release from custody. A juvenile shall not be detained any longer than is reasonably necessary under the circumstances to obtain his or her name, age, residence and other information, and to contact and obtain the appearance of his or her parent, guardian or custodian. Where the parent, guardian, or custodian of a juvenile taken into custody without a warrant or court order can be located and is able to take the juvenile under his or her care, the juvenile shall be released to his or her care pending any proceeding in the juvenile court, unless detention is necessary or required, as provided in subsection (g) of this section.

(e) Review by juvenile intake officer. When a police officer or probation officer arrests a juvenile, the officer shall immediately notify the juvenile intake officer. The juvenile intake officer shall, after a preliminary evaluation of the circumstances, prepare a written recommendation for the court as to the continued detention of the juvenile. Copies of that recommendation shall be provided to the parties.

(f) Notification of family. If a juvenile is arrested and not released, the officer taking the juvenile into custody shall immediately attempt to notify the juvenile's parent, guardian or custodian. All reasonable efforts shall be made to advise the parent, guardian or custodian of the reason for taking the juvenile into custody and the place of continued custody. If the parent, guardian or custodian cannot be contacted, the duty of notification shall transfer to the juvenile intake officer. Should contact with the parent, guardian or custodian not be achieved through reasonable efforts, the department of corrections shall notify child protective services within 24 hours.

(g) Criteria for placing juvenile in detention. Unless ordered by the court pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, an arrested juvenile shall not be placed in detention prior to court disposition unless detention is required:

- (1) To protect the person or property of others;
- (2) If it appears to the arresting officer that the welfare of the juvenile or of the public requires that the child be placed in detention; or
- (3) If there is reasonable cause to believe that the child will not otherwise be present at any hearing.

(h) Place of detention. A juvenile alleged to have committed a juvenile offense or an incorrigible act may be detained pending court hearing in the following places:

- (1) The Community department of corrections;
- (2) A facility operated by a juvenile welfare agency approved by the court;
- (3) Any other suitable place designated by the court.

(i) Citation or written report and complaint. The officer or other person who takes a juvenile into custody shall immediately prepare and submit to the juvenile intake officer and to the prosecutor, a copy of any citation, or written report, which may include a petition to revoke probation, stating the facts that bring the juvenile within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court and giving the reasons why the juvenile was not released if the juvenile continues to be held in detention.

(j) Recommendation for informal adjustment.

Upon receipt of the written report for any new offense, the juvenile intake officer shall review the circumstances to determine whether an informal adjustment of any complaint or requested complaint is appropriate, consistent with section 11-130. If so, the juvenile intake officer will timely provide such recommendation to the prosecutor. The recommendation shall include the recommended conditions of any informal adjustment. A lack of recommendation from the juvenile intake officer shall have no prejudicial effect on prosecution of any complaint filed.

(k) Time limitation; detention hearing. No juvenile shall be held in detention for more than 24 hours, unless a complaint, petition to revoke probation or citation alleging juvenile offender conduct has been filed. In the event that such a complaint, petition to revoke probation or citation has been filed, the juvenile shall be held no longer than 24 hours after the filing of such complaint, petition to revoke probation or citation, unless so ordered by the court after a hearing. If a complaint, petition to revoke probation or citation is not filed within the allotted time, the juvenile shall be released to the parent, guardian, or custodian. Provided the parent, guardian or custodian has notification, the juvenile court shall hold a hearing within one working day following the filing of a complaint, petition to revoke probation or citation to determine whether continued detention is required.

(l) Review of detention status. Any detained juvenile may move for review of detention status whenever the motion alleges the existence of material facts not previously presented to the court, and when those facts were not known at the time of the original detention hearing. A hearing on a motion for review of detention status shall be held within five days of the filing of the motion.

(m) Procedure for release from custody. When a juvenile is ordered released from the department of corrections, the parents, guardians or custodians shall immediately take custody of the juvenile. Where a juvenile is ordered released from the department of corrections, but no parent, guardian or custodian takes custody of the juvenile, the department of corrections shall make a report to child protective services within 24 hours. It shall be unlawful for a parent, guardian, or custodian to fail to take custody of a juvenile when the court has ordered the juvenile released. (Code 1981, § 11-16; Code 2012, § 11-16; Ord. No. SRO-342-09, 11-12-2008; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 11-16, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 11-130. Informal adjustment of complaint or citation.

(a) Authority. The Community prosecutor, juvenile intake officer, and other relevant parties may hold an informal conference with the juvenile and the juvenile's parent(s), guardian or custodian to discuss alternatives to prosecution of any juvenile offense. The parties may agree to informal adjustment of a complaint or citation, at any time prior to adjudication under the following conditions:

- (1) The facts are admitted and bring the case within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court;
- (2) A disposition by informal adjustment of the matter would be in the best interests of the juvenile and the Community; and
- (3) The juvenile and a parent, guardian or custodian voluntarily consent to disposition of the matter by informal adjustment.

(b) Voluntary participation. This section does not authorize the juvenile intake officer or the Community prosecutor to compel any person to appear at any such conference, to produce any papers, or to visit any place.

(c) Post-filing adjustment. When the parties agree to an informal adjustment of any complaint or citation, the parties shall file a stipulation that agrees to toll the case. The court shall vacate any settings and release any juvenile who may be detained for the case.

(d) Written agreement. The Community prosecutor shall set forth in writing the conclusions reached at the informal conference and the disposition agreed to by the parties for remedying the situation. Copies of the agreement will be provided to the parties, and shall not be provided to the court.

(e) Monitoring. The juvenile intake officer shall review the juvenile's progress at least once every 30 days. If the juvenile fails to comply with the conditions agreed upon by the parties, or if, at any time before the end of the agreed-upon adjustment period, the juvenile intake officer determines that satisfactory progress is not being achieved, the juvenile intake officer shall request that a complaint or citation be filed pursuant to section 11-131. The commission of any new juvenile offense, including truancy, shall be grounds for automatic termination of any informal adjustment agreement. If the complaint or citation is refiled after an unsatisfactory completion of an informal adjustment that was entered after the complaint or citation was filed with the court, the court shall set the adjudication within 30 days of the refile. There shall be no right of the juvenile to challenge the termination of any informal adjustment agreement.

(f) Tolling. If a complaint or citation is being adjusted, the time limit for filing a complaint or citation shall be tolled during the period required to comply with the terms of adjustment. If the juvenile does not comply, a complaint or citation shall be filed not later than 30 days after the matter is referred to the Community prosecutor by the juvenile intake officer to file the petition.

(g) Case closure. Upon satisfactory completion of the disposition agreed to by the parties, the Community prosecutor shall not file a complaint or citation and the case shall be closed. If the matter was informally adjusted after a complaint or citation was filed, the court shall dismiss the matter with prejudice upon motion by the prosecutor that the juvenile satisfactorily completed the terms of any adjustment agreement.

(h) Interagency cooperation and coordination. It shall be the responsibility of all involved agencies to coordinate and cooperate to ensure that informal adjustment is used only in cases where such agreements are viewed as effective tools for the resolution and rehabilitation of juveniles. (Code 1981, § 11-17; Code 2012, § 11-17; Ord. No. SRO-342-09, 11-12-2008; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 11-17, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 11-131. Commencement of formal proceedings.

(a) Complaint, petition to revoke probation or citation required. Formal proceedings in juvenile cases shall be commenced by a complaint, petition to revoke probation or citation filed by the Community prosecutor on behalf of the Community, and may be based upon probable cause from any peace officer or reasonable grounds from a probation officer, that the juvenile appears to come within the jurisdiction of the court.

(b) Issuance of citation. In the case of traffic violations, a complaint shall not be required, and the issuance of a citation shall be sufficient to invoke the jurisdiction of the court.

(c) Time limitations. If the juvenile is in custody, the complaint, petition to revoke probation or citation shall be filed with the court within 24 hours from the time the juvenile was placed in detention. If a complaint, petition to revoke probation or citation is not filed within the allotted time, the juvenile shall be released to the parent, guardian, custodian, extended family member, or other responsible adult. If the juvenile has been previously released to a parent, guardian, custodian, extended family member, or other responsible adult, the complaint, petition to revoke probation or citation shall be filed within 90 days of the juvenile's release, except that if the complaint is returned by the Community prosecutor to the law enforcement department for further investigation, the time limit is extended for an additional 60 days. In matters in which the juvenile was not arrested, any complaint or citation shall be filed within 120 days from the time when probable cause existed for the offense.

(d) Contents of complaint, petition to revoke probation or citation. The complaint, petition to revoke probation or citation shall clearly specify the following information:

- (1) The name, age, place of residence, and address of the juvenile;
- (2) A citation of the jurisdictional statute;
- (3) A citation to the provision(s) of the Community law which the child is alleged to have violated;

- (4) A plain and concise statement of the facts upon which the allegations are based, including the approximate time and location at which the alleged facts occurred;
- (5) The names, place of residence, and addresses of the juvenile's parent, guardian or custodian, or nearest relative if the parent, guardian, or custodian is unknown; and
- (6) If the juvenile is in custody, the location of his or her detention, the facts necessitating the detention, and the date and time of the detention.

If any of the facts herein required to be stated are not known, the complaint, petition to revoke probation or citation shall so state.

(e) Court-ordered custody and detention. If it appears to the court that the welfare of the juvenile or the public requires that the juvenile be taken into temporary custody, the court may, at any time after a complaint, petition to revoke probation or citation is filed, make an order providing for custody and detention.

(f) Subsequent immunity of the juvenile. When a complaint or citation has been filed under this section, a juvenile shall not thereafter be subject to criminal prosecution as an adult based on the facts giving rise to the complaint or citation, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. (Code 1981, § 11-18; Code 2012, § 11-18; Ord. No. SRO-342-09, 11-12-2008; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 11-18, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 11-132. Notice of initial appearance.

(a) Issuance of summons. When a juvenile is not in custody, and a complaint, citation or petition to revoke probation has been filed, the court shall issue a summons to the juvenile, and to a parent, guardian or custodian, and to such other persons as the court deems necessary and proper to the proceedings, unless good cause exists for the issuance of a warrant for the juvenile, in which case a warrant shall issue. The summons shall require them to appear personally before the court at the time set for initial appearance. No summons is required as to any person who appears voluntarily or who files a written waiver of service with the clerk of the court at or prior to the hearing.

(b) In custody notice. When a juvenile is in custody, notice for the initial appearance will be provided at the detention hearing.

(c) Attachments to summons. A copy of the complaint, citation or petition to revoke probation and notice of basic rights, as provided under section 11-100, shall be attached to the summons.

(d) Service of summons. Service of summons shall be made under the direction of the court by a Community process server or other suitable person appointed by the court, or upon request of the court, by a Community law enforcement officer or any other police officer.

(e) Personal service. If the parties to be served with summons can be found within the exterior boundaries of the Community, service shall be made by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint, citation or petition to revoke probation to them personally, or by leaving copies thereof at their dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion residing at such place, no less than two days before the hearing.

(f) Mail service. If the parties cannot be personally served, and if their address is known, the summons, complaint, citation or petition to revoke probation and notice of rights may be served within or outside the Community's exterior boundaries by certified mail, return receipt requested, at least five calendar days before the hearing.

(g) Publication. Where it appears that the parent, guardian or custodian is a nonresident of the Community, or that their name, place of residence or whereabouts is unknown, or in cases of unsuccessful personal service or service by certified mail, the court shall direct the clerk to publish a legal notice in the next available issue of the Community's newspaper. Such notice shall be directed to the parent, guardian or custodian if their names are known, or if unknown, "a person to whom it may concern," may be used. The name of the court, the title and purpose of the proceeding, the date the complaint, citation or petition to revoke probation was filed, and the hearing date shall be set forth in general terms.

(h) Contempt warning. The summons issued by the court shall display the following words:

"Notice, Violation of this Order is Subject to Proceedings for Contempt of Court Pursuant to Salt River Community Code Section 6-42. The Court May Find the Parent, Guardian or Custodian in Contempt For Failure to Appear at a Court Hearing or For Failure to Follow Court Orders."

(i) Warrant for arrest. If the summons cannot be served after due diligence, or if it appears to the court that the person served will not obey the summons, that serving the summons will be ineffectual, or that the welfare of the juvenile requires that he or she be brought immediately within the court's protection, a warrant may be issued for the arrest of the parent, guardian, custodian, or the juvenile, and such warrant may be served anywhere within the jurisdiction of the court.

(Code 1981, § 11-19; Code 2012, § 11-19; Ord. No. SRO-342-09, 11-12-2008; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 11-19, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 11-133. Initial appearance.

(a) Time and purpose. The court shall set an initial appearance date for the juvenile and a parent, guardian or custodian within 30 days following the filing of the complaint or citation. When a juvenile is in custody, the initial appearance shall be set within two business days of the detention hearing; however, the initial appearance may be held in conjunction with the detention hearing if the parties consent. At the initial appearance of the juvenile, the court shall inform the juvenile and the parent, guardian or custodian of the contents of the complaint, citation or petition to revoke probation and allow the juvenile the opportunity to admit or deny the allegations of the complaint, citation or petition to revoke probation.

(b) Advising of rights. The court shall advise the party(s) of their basic rights as provided for in section 11-100.

Sec. 11-134. Adjudication hearing.

(a) Formal trial on issues for new offenses. The formal trial on the issues shall be set for no later than 60 days following the initial appearance of the juvenile on the complaint or citation unless a rehearing has been ordered.

(b) Hearing for probation violations. The hearing on the issues alleged in a petition to revoke probation shall be set no later than 20 days following the initial appearance on the petition to revoke probation.

(c) Notice of hearing. Notice of the adjudication hearing shall be given to the juvenile, the parent, guardian or custodian, and/or legal counsel no less than 48 hours before the hearing.

(d) Witnesses and evidence necessary. Unless the juvenile admits to committing the acts or offense(s) charged, witnesses must be called and evidence presented to substantiate the allegations of the complaint, citation or petition to revoke probation.

(e) Admissibility. Statements made during the informal conference shall not be admitted into evidence at the adjudication hearing or at the time of sentencing. This shall not be construed to prevent the admissibility of any evidence which would otherwise be admissible under the court's rules of evidence.

(f) Burden of proof. The burden of proof lies with the Community prosecutor. The prosecutor must prove beyond a reasonable doubt the allegations of juvenile offenses in complaints or citations, and the allegations of incorrigible acts or petitions to revoke probation shall be proven by a preponderance of the evidence.

(g) Consolidation of hearing. When more than one juvenile is alleged to be involved in the same violation, the proceedings may be consolidated, except that separate hearings may be held with respect to disposition.

(h) Amendment of complaint, citation or petition to revoke probation. The complaint, citation or petition to revoke probation may be amended to conform to evidence presented which supports material facts not alleged. A continuance shall be granted to ensure justice and fairness to all parties if the amended complaint, citation or petition to revoke probation results in a substantial departure from the original complaint, citation or petition to revoke probation.

(i) Petition for new hearing. A parent, guardian, custodian or advocate of any juvenile whose status has been adjudicated under this chapter, or any adult affected by a proceeding hereunder, may, at any time, petition the court for a new hearing on the grounds that new evidence, which was not known and could not, with due diligence, have been made available at the original hearing and which might affect the judgment, has been discovered. If it appears to the court that there is such new evidence that might affect its judgment, it shall order a new hearing and enter such decree and make disposition of the case as is warranted by all the facts and circumstances and the best interests of the juvenile.

Sec. 11-135. Disposition proceedings.

After the adjudication hearing, the court shall enter findings of fact and conclusions of law that the allegations are true and proceed to disposition, or not true and dismiss the complaint, citation or petition to revoke probation.

- (1) Investigation and predisposition report. When a juvenile is found to be a juvenile offender or an incorrigible juvenile, the court may require that the juvenile probation officer conduct an investigation and prepare a written report describing reasonable and appropriate disposition alternatives. The investigation may include the juvenile's home environment, history and associations, the present conditions of the juvenile and family, and make recommendations for assistance to the juvenile calculated to resolve the problems established at the adjudication hearing and those problems reasonably related.
- (2) Hearing. The court may order a hearing to determine the proper disposition of the case. At such hearing, the court shall consider the juvenile probation officer's predisposition report and recommendations and afford the parties an opportunity to object. The court shall also consider alternative reports and recommendations of the juvenile, if any. Any relevant and material information shall be admissible at the hearing.

- (3) Notice of hearing. Notice of the disposition hearing shall be given to the juvenile and his or her parent, guardian or custodian no less than 48 hours before the hearing.
- (4) Options. The court shall give due regard to the customs and traditions of the Community and the family on the discipline of juveniles, and may, after considering the nature of the offense and the age, physical and mental condition, and earning capacity of the juvenile, order any of the following dispositions:
  - a. Order the juvenile to attend a traffic school, or a counseling or education program approved by the presiding judge of the juvenile court.
  - b. Place the juvenile on probation in his or her own home upon conditions determined by the court.
  - c. Place the juvenile in the legal custody of a relative or other suitable person, with or without probation.
  - d. Order the juvenile to pay the monetary penalty that is applicable to the offense; plus lawful costs.
  - e. Order that the juvenile or the juvenile's parent, guardian or custodian make restitution for damage or loss caused by the wrongful acts of the juvenile.
  - f. Order that the juvenile be committed to a juvenile detention facility or other facility as provided for in section 11-129(h).
  - g. In lieu of or in addition to a monetary penalty, order the juvenile to perform a program of work, which does not conflict with the juvenile's regular schooling and employment, or to provide Community service.

- h. Suspend the driving privileges of the juvenile and take physical possession of the juvenile's driving license and return it to the issuing agency, or restrict such driving privileges.
- i. Order that the juvenile be examined or treated by a physician, surgeon, psychiatrist or psychologist, or receive other special care, and for such purpose may place the juvenile in a hospital or other suitable facility. However, the juvenile shall not be held in such hospital or facility longer than 48 hours, excluding weekends and holidays, unless necessary for treatment of physical injuries, without a court hearing.
- j. Order, after due notice and a hearing set for that specific purpose, a medical examination of a parent or person with custody whose ability to care for the juvenile is at issue, if the court finds from the evidence presented at the hearing that the person's physical, mental or emotional condition may be a contributing factor in the juvenile's delinquent behavior.
- k. Order hospitalization of the juvenile in an authorized hospital if the court finds, upon due notice to the parent or guardian and a special hearing conducted in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations, that the juvenile is:
  - 1. Mentally ill, and because of illness is a threat to self or others if allowed to remain at liberty;
  - 2. In need of custody, care or treatment in such hospital; or
  - 3. Gravely disabled.
- l. Order reasonable conditions to be complied with by the juvenile, parent, custodian or any other person who has been made a party to the proceedings, which are in the best interests of the juvenile or required for the protection of the public; except that no juvenile under 12 years of age may be committed to jail upon adjudication under this chapter. The court may combine several alternatives of disposition where they are compatible.

- (5) Mandatory review of order. Disposition orders shall be reviewed at the court's discretion at least once every six months. Monthly written progress reports shall be filed with the juvenile court by the person or agency charged with supervising the care and custody of the juvenile, or alternatively by a person or agency so directed by the court.

Sec. 11-136. Modification or revocation of court order.

(a) The court may modify or set aside any order or decree made by it, but no modification of an order placing a juvenile on probation shall be made upon an alleged violation of the terms of probation until there has been a hearing after due notice to all persons concerned. Notice of an order terminating probation shall be given to the juvenile and a parent, guardian, or custodian and to the prosecution.

(b) Notice and a hearing shall also be required in any case in which the effect of modifying or setting aside an order may be to deprive a parent of the legal custody of a juvenile or to place the juvenile in an institution or agency. The hearing shall be held within ten days of the request for a court order to transfer the juvenile to an institution or from one institution to another; however, if the juvenile is transferred in good faith and in the juvenile's best interest without a hearing, the party transferring the juvenile shall incur no liability for such transfer. Transfer from one foster home to another may be effected without notice and hearing.

Sec. 11-137. Petition for incorrigibility.

(a) Generally. This article shall apply to a minor who is alleged to be incorrigible as defined in section 11-2.

(b) Diversion services requirement. Prior to the filing of any petition for incorrigibility, the parent(s) or legal guardian(s) and minor shall participate in diversion services offered through the Salt River Community Probation Department. The diversion services requirement shall not apply to petitions and/or complaints filed by the Community prosecutor. If the family has already participated in diversion services, the probation department will be responsible for determining whether diversion services would be appropriate.

(c) Time limitations. If diversion services through the probation department are unsuccessful, then the parent(s) or legal guardian(s) may file a petition for incorrigibility. However, the petition must be filed within three months from the date that the probation department notifies the parent(s) or legal guardian(s) that there is no substantial likelihood that further diversion services will benefit the family.

(d) Who may file a petition for incorrigibility.

- (1) The parent(s);
- (2) The legal guardian(s); or
- (3) The Community prosecutor.

(e) Contents of incorrigibility petition. The petition shall include the following information:

(Ord. No. SRO-455-2015, § 11-137, 1-7-2015)

Sec. 11-138. Incorrigibility proceedings and procedures.

(a) [Commencement.] Court proceedings in an incorrigible case shall be commenced by the filing of a petition for incorrigibility of a minor.

(b) [Legal counsel.] The court shall appoint legal counsel for the minor in all cases.

(c) Court-ordered custody and detention. If good cause appears to the court that the welfare of the minor or the public requires that the minor be taken into temporary custody pending the determination of incorrigibility, the court may, at any time after a petition is filed, make an order providing for custody and detention.

(1) By court order. A minor shall be taken into custodial detention by a police officer pursuant to an order of the juvenile court.

(2) Without court order. A minor may be taken into custodial detention by a police officer without an order of the court when there are reasonable grounds to believe the minor has run away from his parent(s) or legal guardian(s).

(3) Release from custodial detention. A minor shall not be detained any longer than is reasonably necessary under the circumstances to obtain his name, age, residence and other information, and to contact and obtain the appearance of his parent or legal guardian. Where the parent or legal guardian of a minor taken into custody without a court order can be located and is able to take the minor under his or her care, the minor shall be released to his or her care pending any proceeding in the juvenile court, unless custodial detention is reasonably necessary as provided in subsection (c)(6) below.

- (4) Review by juvenile intake officer. When a police officer or probation officer takes a minor into custodial detention, the officer shall immediately notify the juvenile intake officer. The juvenile intake officer shall, after a preliminary evaluation of the circumstances, prepare a written recommendation to the court as to the continued custodial detention of the minor. Copies of that recommendation shall be provided to the court and the parties.
- (5) Notification of family. If a minor is taken into custodial detention and not released, the officer taking the minor into custody shall immediately attempt to notify the minor's parent or legal guardian. All reasonable efforts shall be made to advise the parent or legal guardian of the reason for taking the minor into custody and the place of continued custody. If the parent or legal guardian cannot be contacted, the duty of notification shall transfer to the juvenile intake officer. Should contact with the parent or legal guardian not be achieved through reasonable efforts, the department of corrections shall notify child protective services within 24 hours.
- (6) Criteria for placing minor in detention. Unless ordered by the court pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, a minor shall not be placed in detention prior to court disposition unless detention is required:
  - a. To protect the person or property of others;
  - b. If it appears to the officer that the welfare of the minor or of the public requires that the minor be placed in detention; or

- c. If there is reasonable cause to believe that the minor will not otherwise be present at any hearing.

- (7) Place of detention. A minor, alleged to be an incorrigible minor or alleged to have committed an incorrigible act, may be detained pending a court hearing in the following places:
  - a. The Salt River Department of Corrections;
  - b. Any other suitable place designated by the court.

- (8) Written report. The officer who takes a minor into custodial detention shall immediately prepare and submit to the juvenile intake officer and to the prosecutor a written report stating the facts that bring the minor within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court and giving the reasons why the minor was taken into custodial detention and was not released, if the minor continues to be held in detention.

(d) Detention hearing. A minor in custodial detention shall be brought before a judge for a detention hearing no later than 24 hours after being taken into custody. At the detention hearing, the court shall determine whether continued custodial detention is warranted as provided in subsection (f) herein. Based on the court's findings, the court shall:

- (1) Continue the minor in custodial detention;
- (2) Release the minor to his or her parent or legal guardian and set reasonable terms and conditions of release; or
- (3) Detain the minor in any other suitable place designated by the court.

(e) Initial appearance. Procedures for providing notice of the initial appearance shall be in accordance with section 11-132. The court shall set an initial appearance date for the minor and the parent(s) or legal guardian(s) within 15 days following the filing of the petition. When a minor is in custody, the initial appearance shall be set within two business days of the detention hearing; however, the initial appearance may be held in conjunction with the detention hearing if the parties consent. At the initial appearance, the court shall inform the minor and the parent(s) or legal guardian(s) of the contents of the petition and allow the minor the opportunity to admit or deny the allegations of the petition.

- (1) Advisement of rights. At the initial hearing the court shall advise the minor that he or she has a right to be represented by legal counsel which may be court appointed or at his or her own expense in all incorrigibility proceedings, to introduce evidence, to be heard on his or her own behalf, to examine witnesses, to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his or her favor, to be informed of possible consequences if the allegations of the petition are found to be true and the right to appeal. The parties and their legal counsel shall be entitled to advance copies of court documents, including petitions and reports, unless deemed inappropriate by the court.

(f) Adjudicatory hearing. The adjudicatory hearing on the issues shall be set no later than 30 calendar days following the initial appearance of the minor on the petition.

- (1) Notice of hearing. Notice of the adjudication hearing shall be given to the minor, the person(s) who filed the petition, Community prosecutor, the parent(s) or legal guardian(s), and their legal counsel no less than ten days before the hearing, but all efforts shall be made to provide notice at the initial hearing.

- (3) Witnesses and evidence necessary. Unless the minor admits to committing the acts or offense(s) alleged, witnesses must be called and evidence presented to substantiate the allegations of the petition.

- (4) Burden of proof. The burden of proof lies with the petitioner. The allegations of incorrigible acts shall be proven by clear and convincing evidence.

- (5) Amendment of petition. The petition may be amended to conform to evidence presented at the adjudicatory hearing which supports material facts not alleged. A continuance shall be granted to ensure due process to all parties if the amended petition results in a substantial departure from the original petition. The continuance shall not exceed 15 days.

- (6) Petition for new hearing. Any party to the proceeding may, within 60 days, petition the court for a new hearing on the grounds that new evidence, which was not known and could not with due diligence have been made available at the original hearing and which might affect the judgment, has been discovered. If it appears to the court that there is new evidence that might affect its judgment, it shall order a new hearing and enter such order and make dispositions of the case as is warranted by all the facts and circumstances and the best interest of the minor.

- (7) [Withdrawal of petition.] The petitioning party shall have the authority to withdraw the petition any time prior to the adjudicatory hearing. Withdrawal of the petition shall be liberally granted and the dismissal shall be without prejudice.

(g) Issuing court order. Within five days after the adjudicatory hearing, the court shall enter findings of fact and conclusions of law. If the allegations are substantiated, the court shall proceed to disposition. If no allegations are substantiated, the court shall dismiss the petition.

- (1) Investigation and predisposition report. When a minor is found to be an incorrigible minor, the court shall require that the probation officer conduct an investigation and prepare a written report describing reasonable and appropriate disposition alternatives. The probation officer shall file the report with the court and the parties no later than ten days prior to the disposition hearing. The investigation and predisposition report shall include the minor's:

- c. Family, social and educational associations, present conditions of the minor and family;
- d. Previous services offered through diversion services; and
- e. Recommendations for assistance to the minor calculated to resolve the problems established at the adjudication hearing and those problems reasonably related.

(h) Disposition hearing. The court shall set a hearing to determine the proper disposition of the case within 40 days of the adjudicatory hearing. At such hearing the court shall consider the probation officer's predisposition report and recommendations of all the parties. Any relevant and material information shall be admissible at the hearing.

- (1) Notice of hearing. Notice of the disposition hearing shall be given to the minor, the parent(s) or legal guardian(s), and their legal counsel no less than ten days before the hearing, but all efforts shall be made to provide notice at the conclusion of the adjudication hearing.
- (2) Disposition options. In all other cases, the court shall give due regard to the customs and traditions of the Community, the family, and the underlying risk factors established at the adjudicatory hearing, and may, after considering the nature of the proven allegations and the age, physical and mental condition of the minor, order any of the following dispositions:
  - a. Order any reasonable conditions to be complied with by the minor, parent(s), legal guardian(s), or any other person who has been made a party to the proceedings, which are in the best interests of the minor and the family.

- b. An assessment of substance abuse or mental health concerns and require compliance with recommendations of such assessment.
  - c. Placement in outpatient or inpatient treatment center, if needed to address behavioral, mental or substance abuse issues.

  - e. Order counseling services not limited to substance abuse, mental health, conflict resolution, anger management, and family counseling.
  - f. Order participation in any class or classes that would address the minor's incorrigible behavior.
  - g. Community work service, Community events or other programs.
  - h. An educational assessment.

  - j. Any other appropriate disposition.
- (3) No term of supervision shall exceed one year after disposition.
- (i) Contempt hearing. If any party fails to comply with the terms and conditions of the dispositional order, the probation department may file a motion for an order to show cause why the minor should not be held in contempt of court for failing to comply with the disposition order.
- (1) The order to show cause hearing shall be set no later than 15 calendar days from the date the motion is filed with the court.
  - (2) Notice of hearing. Notice of the order to show cause hearing shall be served on all parties to the action no less than five calendar days before the hearing.

- (3) At the hearing, the court shall consider whether the minor failed to comply with the disposition order and any justifiable reasons for the failure to comply. Any relevant and material information shall be admissible at the hearing.

  - b. Community work service;
  - c. Not to exceed ten days in a juvenile detention facility for a first instance of contempt and not to exceed 30 days in a juvenile detention facility for each subsequent instance of contempt;
  - d. Any other reasonable sanction that would bring the minor in compliance with the disposition order.
- (5) The court may extend the date of the original disposition order by 90 days from the date the minor was held in contempt of court. There shall be no limit to the number of times the probation department may file a motion for order to show cause or the number of times a minor may be held in contempt of court for noncompliance with the disposition order.

(j) Referral to child protective services. When any probation officer, court staff, or other mandatory reporter as defined in section 11-156(b) has reason to believe that the minor alleged or found to be incorrigible is a dependent child as defined in section 11-2, they shall make a written report to child protective services stating the grounds for such belief. A copy of the incorrigibility petition, disposition order and other court orders and reports may be included with the referral. The filing of a diversion or incorrigibility petition under this article will not prevent the filing of a dependency or delinquency petition.

(k) Review hearing. Upon written request by any party, or on the court's own motion, the matter shall be set for a review hearing. The hearing shall be set within 15 calendar days from the date the written request or motion is filed with the court.

- (1) Prior to the review hearing, if the child is under the supervision of the probation department, the probation department shall file a written report with the court with copies provided to the parties. Sec. 11-161. Protective custody hearing.

(a) Time and purpose. A hearing shall be held regarding the removal of a child from his or her home before the end of the second working day following the filing of the dependency petition. The purpose of the protective custody hearing is to allow a judge to review the decision to remove the child from the home and to determine whether it is reasonable to believe that allowing the child to remain in the home is contrary to the welfare of the child and that reasonable efforts were made to prevent the removal of the child from the home. The court must make this determination at this protective custody hearing, regardless of whether the hearing is continued or not.

(b) Notice. The court shall make all reasonable efforts to advise the parent, guardian or custodian of the time and place of the custody hearing. The court shall request that the parent, guardian or custodian be present for the hearing. Reasonable efforts shall include written notice at their place of residence, and personal or telephone verbal contact at their place of residence, employment or other location where the person is known to frequent with regularity. If the court is unable to contact the parent, guardian or custodian, verbal notice shall be given to the child's extended family.

(c) Advisement of rights. During the hearing, the court shall advise the parties of the reason for the hearing and of their basic rights, as provided in section 11-100.

(d) Nature. The hearing shall be informal in nature. Concerned parties may present evidence relating to the situation, including the religious preferences of the child and the family. Hearsay evidence will not be excluded at this hearing if the court determines that it is reasonably reliable and it would aid the court in reaching a just decision in the best interests of the child.

(e) Reasonable efforts. Reasonable efforts to prevent the removal of a child or reunify the child and family are not required if the court finds that

- (1) A parent has subjected a child to aggravated circumstances that would be grounds for the involuntary termination of parental rights as listed in section 11-181; or

- (2) A parent has been convicted of aiding and abetting, attempting to, conspiring to, or soliciting any manner of homicide of a child's sibling or another parent; or
- (3) Parental rights of the parent with respect to a child's sibling have been terminated involuntarily.

(f) Possible outcomes. Possible outcomes of the custody hearing are as follows:

- (1) The petition may be dismissed and the child returned to the home.
- (2) The child may be returned to the home of the parent or custodian under protective supervision of the court pending the outcome of further hearings under this article.
- (3) Following a judicial determination that reasonable efforts were made to prevent the removal of the child from the home, the child may remain in protective custody through judicial order for a physical or constructive removal from the home pending the outcome of further hearings under this article.

(g) Primary consideration. In placing a child under the guardianship or legal custody of an individual or a private agency or institution, the juvenile court shall give primary consideration to the welfare of the child.

(h) Documentation of judicial determinations. Judicial determinations for the following findings must be explicitly documented, made on a case-by-case basis, and so stated in a court order:

- (1) Contrary to the welfare;
- (2) Reasonable efforts to prevent removal; and
- (3) Reasonable efforts to finalize a permanency plan, including when appropriate a judicial determination that reasonable efforts are not required.

2012, § 11-32, 5-30-2012; Ord. No. SRO-493-2017, 8-9-2017, eff. 10-9-2017; Ord. No. SRO-513-2019, 8-28-2019)

Sec. 11-162. Informal adjustment of petition.

(a) Authority. The Community prosecutor, child protective services worker and other parties in interest may hold an informal conference with the child's parent, guardian or custodian to discuss alternatives to formal disposition of the petition. The interested parties may agree to informal adjustment of the petition under the following conditions:

- (1) The facts as set forth in the petition are admitted and bring the case within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court;
- (2) An informal disposition of the matter would be in the best interests of the child; and
- (3) The parents, guardian or custodian of the child voluntarily consent to informal disposition of the matter.

This section does not authorize the child protective services worker or the Community prosecutor to compel any person to appear at any such conference, to produce any papers or visit any place.

(b) Time limitation. Any informal adjustment period shall not exceed three months without review by the juvenile court. In the event that the parties agree to informal adjustment of the petition, the Community prosecutor shall provide written notice to the court at least ten working days prior to the date set forth formal trial.

(c) Written agreement. The Community prosecutor shall set forth in writing the conclusions reached at the informal conference and the disposition agreed to by the parties for remedying the situation.

(d) Monitoring. A representative of the Community social services department shall review the family and child's progress at least once every 30 days. If, at any time before the end of the agreed-upon adjustment period, the social services department representative determines that positive results are not being achieved, the social services department representative may recommend that the Community prosecutor request that a formal trial on the merits be held pursuant to section 11-163.

(e) Tolling. If a petition is being adjusted, the time limit for setting formal trial shall be tolled during the period required to comply with the terms of adjustment.

(f) Case closure. Upon satisfactory completion of the disposition agreed to by the parties, the Community prosecutor shall request that the petition be dismissed.

(g) Interagency cooperation and coordination. It shall be the responsibility of all the involved agencies to cooperate and coordinate work effort to ensure that informal adjustment is used only in cases where such agreements are viewed as effective tools for the resolution, rehabilitation and reunification of families.

Sec. 11-163. Adjudication hearing generally.

(a) Formal trial on issues. The formal trial on the issues shall be set for no later than 60 days following the filing of the petition unless the petition has been dismissed pursuant to section 11-161(e)(1) or is being adjusted pursuant to section 11-162 or a rehearing has been ordered.

(b) Witnesses and evidence necessary. Unless the parent admits that he or she has neglected or abused the child, or that the child is otherwise a dependent child, witnesses must be called and evidence presented to substantiate the allegations of dependency.

(c) Admissibility. The records of the protective custody hearing and any statements made during the informal conference shall not be admitted into evidence at the adjudication hearing. This shall not be construed to prevent the admissibility of any evidence that was presented which would normally be admissible under the Community court's rules of evidence.

(d) Burden of proof. The burden of proof lies with the petitioner. Findings of fact by the judge as to allegations raised in the petition shall be based on the standard requiring clear and convincing proof.

(e) Advisement of rights. The court shall advise the parties of the reason for the hearing and of their basic rights, as provided for in section 11-100.

For purposes of this article, an abandoned infant is a child less than one year of age whose parent through words, actions, or omissions, has abandoned the child as defined by section 11-2.

(g) Amendment of petition. The petition may be amended to conform to evidence presented which supports material facts not alleged. A continuance shall be granted to ensure justice and fairness to all parties if the amended petition results in a substantial departure from the original petition.

(Code 1981, § 11-34; Code 2012, § 11-34; Ord. No. SRO-210-96, § 1, 11-15-1995; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 11-34, 5-30-2012; Ord. No. SRO-493-2017, 8-9-2017, eff. 10-9-2017)

Sec. 11-164. Adjudication hearing notice.

(a) Issuance of summons. After a petition has been filed, the court shall issue summons to the parent, guardian or custodian and such other persons as the court deems necessary and proper to the proceedings. The summons shall require them to appear personally before the court at the time set for the formal trial. No summons is required as to any person who appears voluntarily or who files a written waiver of service with the clerk of the court at or prior to the hearing.

(b) Attachments to summons. A copy of the petition and notice of basic rights, as provided under section 11-100, shall be attached to the summons.

(c) Service of summons. Service of summons shall be made under the direction of the court by a Community process server or other suitable person appointed by the court, or upon request of the court, by a Community law enforcement officer or any other peace officer.

(d) Personal service. If the parties to be served with a summons can be found within the exterior boundaries of the Community, service shall be made by delivering a copy of the summons, petition and notice of rights to them personally or by leaving copies thereof at their dwelling house or usual place of abode with a person of suitable age and discretion residing at such place no less than ten days before the stated time of the hearing.

(e) Mail service. If the parties cannot be personally served, and if their address is known, the summons, petition and notice of rights may be served, within or without the Community's exterior boundaries, by certified mail with a return receipt requested, at least 15 calendar days before the formal trial.

(f) Notice to extended family. If the court cannot accomplish personal or mail service, the court shall attempt to notify the parent, guardian or custodian by contacting an extended family member.

(g) Publication. Where it appears that the parent, guardian or custodian is a nonresident of the Community, or that their name, place of residence or whereabouts is unknown, or in cases of unsuccessful personal service or service by certified mail, the court shall direct the clerk to publish a legal notice in the next available issue of the Community's newspaper simultaneously with a legal notice appearing once in another newspaper of general circulation. Such notice shall be directed to the parent, guardian or custodian if their names are known, or if unknown, "a person to whom it may concern," may be used. The name of the court, the title and purpose of the proceeding, the date the petition was filed, and the hearing date shall be set forth in general terms.

(h) Contempt warning. The summons issued by the court shall display the following words:

"Notice, Violation of this Order is Subject to Proceedings For Contempt of Court Pursuant to Salt River Community Code Section 6-42.

The Court May Find the Parent, Guardian or Custodian in Contempt For Failure to Appear at a Court Hearing or For Failure to Follow Court Orders."

Sec. 11-165. Disposition proceedings.

(a) Court findings. After the adjudication hearing, the court will either find the allegations of the petition meet the applicable burden of proof and proceed with disposition of the matter, or the allegations do not meet this burden and dismiss the petition, unless the hearing is continued to a date certain to allow for presentation of further evidence.

(b) Investigation and predisposition report. When a child is found to be dependent, the court may order that a predisposition report consisting of a written evaluation of matters relevant to the disposition of the case be made by the Community social service department. The predisposition report shall include the following information and be made available to the court, and those parties deemed appropriate by the court, at least three working days prior to the disposition hearing:

(c) Hearing. The court may order a hearing to determine the proper disposition of the case. In the event that a disposition hearing is ordered, it shall be held within 60 days of the adjudication hearing date. #### Sec. 11-168. Permanency policy.

(a) The policy of the Community is to protect the best interests of its children and to promote the stability of its families by setting forth standards that reflect its cultural values while providing children a stable foundation in a permanent home. from emotional and mental harm caused by separation from his or her family and uncertain temporary placement.

(b) Consistent with these policies, all departments and agencies of the Community, and the Community court, shall protect dependent children from unnecessary prolonged separation from their parent(s) and extended family and from uncertain temporary placement.

For purposes of this section, no time shall be tolled, other than exceptional circumstances when the court is unable to accommodate the matter due to unforeseen administrative reasons.

At the conclusion of such hearing, the court may determine upon clear and convincing evidence that exceptional care requirements exist. The court shall issue an order with findings of fact as to the exceptional care requirements.
- (3) The existence of exceptional care requirements for any child shall not prevent a permanency disposition, including termination of parental rights. If a viable permanency plan exists, the court shall make a permanency disposition as required by section 11-169. The court shall defer to the best interest of the child in making such determinations.
- (Ord. No. SRO-408-2013, § 11-41, 12-1-2012)

- (2) For children under three years of age at the time of the protective custody hearing, the permanency hearing shall be within six months after disposition unless a judge determines that reasonable efforts to prevent the removal are unnecessary. If reasonable efforts to prevent the removal were unnecessary, the permanency disposition will take place within 30 days from the date of the protective custody hearing.

- (3) For children over three years of age at the time of the protective custody hearing, the permanency hearing shall be within 12 months after disposition unless a judge determines that reasonable efforts to prevent the removal are unnecessary. If reasonable efforts to prevent the removal were unnecessary, the permanency disposition will take place within 30 days from the date of the protective custody hearing.
  - (4) Permanency hearings will occur every 12 months after the initial permanency disposition until permanency is achieved.

custody to a noncustodial parent when that parent was not alleged to have contributed to the dependency of the child and the court finds that no grounds for a dependency would exist if child were placed in the custody of the noncustodial parent;

(e) In any case where the court finds exceptional circumstances prevents achieving final permanency disposition for a child within six months, the court shall make specific findings on the record as to such exceptional circumstances and the child's best interest.

(f) When a child has attained the age of 16 and the Community social services department has documented compelling reasons, as of the date of the permanency hearing, that it would not be in the best interest of the child to be returned home, have parental rights terminated, have a guardian appointed, enter into a permanent placement, or be placed for adoption, the child may be placed in another planned permanent living arrangement.

(g) Documentation of judicial determinations. The judicial determinations regarding contrary to the welfare, reasonable efforts to prevent removal, and reasonable efforts to finalize a permanency plan, including judicial determinations that reasonable efforts are not required, must be explicitly documented, made on a case-by-case basis, and so stated in a court order. Further, the Parties Should be Advised that the Hearing for Termination of Parental Rights May Proceed Without the Parent or Necessary

Respondent Present. Failure to Appear May Result in the Hearing Being Held Without The Parent and the Parental Rights of the Parent May be Terminated." (Ord. No. SRO-408-2013, § 11-53, 12-1-2012)

Sec. 11-183. Initial hearing for termination of parental rights.

(a) The court shall advise the parent(s) of the ability to voluntarily terminate their parental rights at the initial hearing.

(b) If the termination is contested at the initial hearing, the court shall set a date for trial on termination of parental rights within 90 calendar days of the initial hearing. The court shall identify from the parties the witnesses expected to be called at the trial, the need for any in camera proceedings, including the testimony of any child, and direct the parties to exchange any pertinent information relevant to the trial. The court shall schedule an appropriate amount of time for the termination trial after consultation with the parties. Notice of the time for the termination trial shall be provided to all parties present at the initial hearing.

(c) If the parent(s) voluntarily terminate their parental rights at the initial hearing, the court shall set a disposition hearing within 30 calendar days, which may be consolidated with any adoption, guardianship, or permanent legal guardianship hearings that are scheduled, so long as the hearing is within 90 calendar days of the voluntary termination.

Sec. 11-184. Termination of parental rights trial.

(a) When the parent(s) fails to appear for the termination of parental rights trial, the court shall make a finding as to whether service was completed. If service was completed, and the parent fails to appear, the court may find that the parent(s)' have waived the right to be present. When the court finds that the parent has waived the right to be present, the hearing shall be conducted in the absence of the parent(s), absent good cause. If service has been completed, and the court has no information as to the parent's failure to appear, the presumption shall be that the parent has voluntarily absented themselves from the trial and has waived the right to be present.

(b) The petitioning party shall have the burden of proof and shall prove by clear and convincing evidence that at least one of the allegations in the petition provides a legal basis for termination of parental rights and that the best interests of the child will be served by termination of the parent-child relationship.

(c) On occasion, when there is no viable option for reunification with a parent, a petition for termination of parental rights may be filed to mitigate any harm that the parent(s) may be imposing on a dependent child or upon the care of the child as a result of residual parental rights. In such cases, a permanency plan may not be a precondition to the termination. All other requirements for termination of parental rights remain the same.

(d) Rules of court for termination trial.

- (1) The court, within its discretion, may permit witnesses to appear telephonically.
- (2) The court may take judicial notice of procedural facts that were previously determined by the court.
- (3) When a parent is unable to attend the trial due to incarceration or some other involuntary means, the court shall make reasonable efforts to accommodate the parents participation in the trial, such as by allowing for telephonic appearance and the submission of depositions for the purpose of avoiding delay and the best interest of the child.
- (4) The court may permit the parties to stipulate to facts and evidence.
- (5) The court shall make specific findings as to the grounds for termination and the best interest of the child, requiring the petitioning party to prove each by clear and convincing evidence.
- (6) The court may consider any conduct relevant to the allegations, regardless of where such conduct occurred, so long as the evidence is reliable.

(7) Any other relevant evidence.

(e) The best interest of the child shall be the primary determining factor in making a decision as to the termination of parental rights. As to the determination of best interest of a child, the court shall consider the following (if such information exists):

- (1) Any recommendations from the child's treating mental health professional regarding the plans to meet the child's needs for consistency and bonding, including any emotional bonds the child has with substitute care;
- (2) Proposed plans regarding the ability of the child to maintain cultural-connectedness and cultural identity;
- (3) Any evidence in the record of the parent's demonstrated ability or lack of ability to substantially remediate the underlying issues that led to the dependency action;
- (4) Any other relevant evidence presented.

(f) Within 15 calendar days of the hearing, the court shall make findings of fact and conclusions of law as to the termination of the parental rights, specifically as to the alleged grounds for termination and as to the best interest of the child, and shall issue a written order of its findings. The court shall limit its finding to evidence presented in the records.

(g) A petition for termination of parental rights may not be dismissed with prejudice absent a hearing on the merits.

Sec. 11-185. Effect of termination.

Upon termination of the parent-child relationship, all rights, powers, privileges, immunities, duties and obligations, including any right to custody, control, and visitation existing between the child and parent shall be severed and terminated unless otherwise directed by the court. The parent shall have no standing to appear at any future legal proceedings concerning the child. The rights of one parent may be terminated without affecting the rights of the other parent. A termination of parental rights order shall not prevent a child from receiving child support or inheritance from the natural parent or adoptive parent until a final adoption is ordered.

(Ord. No. SRO-408-2013, § 11-56, 12-1-2012)

Sec. 11-186. Disposition after termination.

(a) Upon the entering of termination of parental rights order, the court shall conduct a disposition hearing within 30 calendar days, but may conduct the disposition immediately upon the consent of the remaining parties. The disposition hearing may be consolidated with any adoption or permanent legal guardianship hearings that are scheduled, so long as the hearing is within 90 calendar days of the termination order.

(b) If upon entering a termination of parental rights order, there remains no parent having parental custody, the court shall give primary consideration to the best interest of the child and with due regard to the customs and traditions of the Community and the family with regard to child-rearing, and may order any of the following dispositions:

- (1) Place the child for adoption under applicable law and regulations, including section 11-166;
- (2) Grant a guardianship or permanent legal guardianship for the child; or
- (3) Maintain the child in court-ordered placement and direct the social services department to identify a permanent plan immediately.

(c) This section does not apply when the court finds that exceptional care requirements exist.

(Ord. No. SRO-408-2013, § 11-57, 12-1-2012)

Sec. 11-187. Termination of parental rights petition denied, permanency review hearing required.

Sec. 11-188. Subsequent permanency review hearings.

In the cases where a termination of rights petition was denied by the court, permanency review hearings shall be conducted every 90 calendar days until permanency is achieved for the child, or the child is no longer dependent, consistent with sections 11-169 and 11-175.

(Ord. No. SRO-408-2013, § 11-59, 12-1-2012)

Sec. 11-189. Subsequent petition to terminate parental rights after denial of prior petition to terminate.

(a) A subsequent petition to terminate parental rights shall not be precluded when there has been a previous termination of parental rights denial by the court, however any subsequent petition to terminate parental rights received by the court shall only be considered when the circumstances of the child or the parent have materially and substantially changed since the previous petition for termination was denied, or when new grounds for termination of parental rights exist.

(b) The court may consider evidence presented in a previous hearing in a termination hearing so long as it is not the sole evidence under consideration.

ARTICLE IX. RIGHTS OF CHILD VICTIMS OR WITNESSES OF CRIME

Sec. 11-253. Intent.

The Community recognizes that it is important that child victims and child witnesses of crime cooperate with law enforcement and prosecutorial agencies and that their assistance contributes to Community enforcement efforts and the general effectiveness of the criminal justice system of the Community. Therefore, it is the intent of the Community Council by means of this article to ensure that all child victims and witnesses of crime are treated with sensitivity, courtesy and special care in order that their rights may be protected by law enforcement agencies, social agencies, protection afforded the adult victim, witness or criminal defendant.

Sec. 11-254. Definitions.

Sec. 11-255. Rights enumerated.

There shall be every reasonable effort made by law enforcement agencies, prosecutors and judges to ensure that child victims and witnesses are afforded the rights enumerated in this section. The enumeration of these rights shall be construed to create substantive rights and duties; and the application of an enumerated right in an individual case is not subject to the discretion of the law enforcement agency, prosecutor or judge. Child victims and witnesses have the following rights:

- (1) To have explained in language easily understood by the child all legal proceedings and/or police investigations in which the child may be involved.
- (2) To be provided, whenever possible, a secure waiting area during court proceedings and to have an advocate or support person remain with the child prior to and during any court proceedings.
- (3) To prevent the disclosure of the names, addresses or photographs of the living child victim or witness by any law enforcement agency, prosecutor's office or state agency without the written permission of the child victim, child witness, parents or legal guardians to anyone except another law enforcement agency, prosecutor, defense counsel or tribal or private agency that provides services to the child victim or witness.
- (4) To allow an advocate to make recommendations to the prosecuting attorney about the ability of the child to cooperate with prosecution and the potential effect of the proceedings on the child.

- (5) To allow an advocate to provide information to the court concerning the child's ability to understand the nature of the proceedings.
- (6) To be provided information or appropriate referrals to social service agencies to assist the child and/or the child's family with the emotional impact of the crime, the subsequent investigation and judicial proceedings in which the child is involved.
- (7) To allow an advocate to be present in court while the child testifies in order to provide emotional support to the child.
- (8) To provide information to the court as to the need for the presence of other supportive persons at the court proceeding while the child testifies in order to promote the child's feelings of security and safety.
- (9) To allow law enforcement agencies the opportunity to enlist the assistance of other professional personnel such as child protection services, victim advocates or prosecutorial staff trained in the interviewing of child victims.
- (10) To be provided with coordinated tribal services so as to decrease any duplication of services and to minimize the number of interviews with the child victim or witness.
- (11) To be provided with the use of closed circuit television or other such similar recording device for the purposes of interviewing or court testimony when appropriate, and to have an advocate remain with the child prior to and during any recording sessions. The use of closed circuit television or other such similar recording device is appropriate when the trial court, after hearing evidence, determines this procedure is necessary to protect the particular child witness' welfare; and specifically finds the child would be traumatized, not by the courtroom generally, but by the defendant's presence and finds that the emotional distress suffered by the child in the defendant's presence is more than de minimus.

Sec. 11-256. Civil liability.

The failure to make a reasonable effort to ensure that child victims and witnesses are afforded the rights enumerated in section 11-255 shall not result in civil liability so long as the failure to make a reasonable effort was in good faith and without gross negligence.

- (1) Application for such license shall be in such form as is prescribed by the director, to include such information and to be accompanied by such supporting data and verification of qualifications as may be required by the director.

The demonstration or other satisfaction of the requirements set forth in this subsection (2) may be by oral or written examination, satisfactory completion of training courses, actual field operation or demonstration, questionnaires, reports from other agencies or persons, reliance upon federal and state certifications and licenses, or any combination of all or any of the requirements set forth in this subsection (2); or such other appropriate means which may be adopted by the director.

- (3) Any such license issued by the director may be made subject to any reasonable qualifications, conditions, restrictions and limitations deemed to be appropriate by the director.
- (4) Before issuing such a license, the director shall require proof of financial responsibility consisting either of a deposit of money, liability insurance, surety bond or certified check protecting persons, and those claiming under them, who may suffer death, injury, illness or property damage as a result of the operations of the applicant. The director shall not accept any bond of liability insurance except from companies authorized to do business in the State of Arizona. The amount of the deposit, insurance or bond, unless a greater amount is specified by the director, shall be $100,000.00 for property damage, personal death, injury or illness, public liability and drift insurance, each separately, and it shall be maintained in not less than that sum at all times during the licensing period. Insurance shall be written in a form acceptable to the director and it shall be evidenced by certificates delivered to the director. Each policy by appropriate endorsement or other provisions shall provide for written notice to the director at least ten days before any cancellation or material change thereof. The license of an applicator who permits the security to fall below the required sum shall be suspended by the director and it shall remain suspended until the security meets the minimum financial requirements. The director may increase the amount of required deposit, insurance, surety bond or other security at any time upon 15 days' notice to the holder of a license.

- (5) A license may be issued by the director pursuant to subsection (b) of this section for any period not to exceed one calendar year, or the remaining portion of the year for which issued. It may be renewed annually upon application to the director and satisfaction of all qualifications and prerequisites therefor.
- (6) There shall be a fee charged for the issuance and each annual renewal of such a license, and an additional fee charge for the reactivation of any such license which is suspended for any reason. The director shall establish from time to time, an applicable fee schedule by regulations pursuant to section 13-100(c)(7). All such fees shall be submitted through the director and payable to the Community.

(c) Licenses for other activities may be required. The director may require such other certificates, licenses and permits as he or she deems appropriate from time to time as a condition to the transportation, handling or application of restricted pesticides within the Community. Such authorizations may be based upon such criteria, qualification and conditions as may be prescribed by the director in fulfillment of his or her responsibility set forth in sections 13-99 and 13-100. He or she may charge annual fees for issuance and renewals of such authorizations in accordance with a schedule of fees to be established from time to time, by the director, by regulation pursuant to hereof, which fees shall be submitted through the director and payable to the Community.

(d) Alteration, modification of requirements. The director from time to time may alter, modify, enlarge or increase the requirements, conditions, restrictions and limitations imposed upon any person holding any certificate, license or permit issued by the director, as such change reasonably appears necessary or desirable to the director to protect the public health, safety or welfare.

- (2) The afflicted person or, if a minor or incapacitated person, the afflicted person's parent or guardian, on consultation with an attorney, determines that it would be in the afflicted person's best interest to request a continuance for no longer than 30 days.

(i) The purpose of a detention hearing is to determine if the afflicted person has tuberculosis or other highly contagious or infectious disease. The burden of proof is on the petitioner to prove by clear and convincing evidence that detention is necessary because the person is an afflicted person and is a substantial danger to another person or to the community.

(j) At least three days before the court conducts the hearing on the petition or within a reasonable time after the appointment of a court appointed attorney, copies of the petition, affidavits in support of it, the notice of the hearing, the investigation reports, the afflicted person's medical records and copies of other exhibits shall be made available by the petitioner to the afflicted person or, if a minor or incapacitated person, the afflicted person's parent or guardian or that person's attorney for examination and reproduction.

ARTICLE VIII. DECLARATION OF PUBLIC HEALTH EMERGENCIES

Sec. 13-219. Isolation and quarantine during a local emergency declaration or major disaster declaration.

(a) During a declared local emergency declaration or major disaster declaration, the department must initiate an investigation if that agency has reasonable cause to believe that a highly contagious and fatal disease exists within its jurisdiction. Subject to the provisions of this article, persons who have contracted the disease or who have been exposed to the disease may be subject to isolation and quarantine if the director determines that quarantine is the least restrictive means by which the public can be protected from transmission of the disease, due to the nature of the disease and available preventive measures, or refusal by an individual to accept less restrictive measures to prevent disease transmission.

(b) The department may, during the local emergency declaration or major disaster declaration declared by the president or the council, do the following:

- (1) Establish and maintain places of isolation and quarantine, which may include the residence of the person quarantined.
- (2) Require isolation or quarantine of any person by the least restrictive means necessary to protect the public health. The department shall use all reasonable means to prevent the transmission of disease among the isolated or quarantined persons.

(c) The department shall ensure, to the extent possible, that the premises in which a person is isolated or quarantined is maintained in a safe and hygienic manner and is designed to minimize the likelihood of further transmission of disease or other harm to a person subject to isolation or quarantine. Adequate food, clothing, medication and other necessities, competent medical care and means of communicating with those in and outside these settings shall be made available.

(d) A person subject to isolation or quarantine shall comply with the department rules and orders, shall not go beyond the isolation or quarantine premises and shall not come in contact with any person not subject to isolation or quarantine other than a physician or other health care provider, department or local health authority or person authorized to enter an isolation or quarantine premises by the department or local health authority.

(e) Other than a person authorized by the department, a person shall not enter an isolation or quarantine premises. If, by reason of an unauthorized entry into an isolation or quarantine premises, the person poses a danger to public health, the department, or local health authority may place the person in isolation or quarantine.

(f) The department must terminate isolation or quarantine of a person if it determines that the isolation or quarantine is no longer necessary to protect the public health.

Sec. 13-220. Due process for isolation and quarantine during a local emergency declaration or major disaster declaration.

(a) The department may isolate or quarantine a person or group of persons through a written directive without first obtaining a written order from the court if any delay in the isolation or quarantine of the person would pose an immediate and serious threat to the public health. The directive shall:

- (1) Specify the identity of the person or persons subject to isolation or quarantine, the premises subject to isolation or quarantine, the date and time at which isolation or quarantine commences, the suspected highly contagious and fatal disease, if known, and that a local emergency declaration has been declared by the president or vice president.
- (2) Be given to the person or persons to be isolated or quarantined. If the directive applies to groups of persons and it is impractical to provide individual copies, it may be posted in a conspicuous place in the isolation or quarantine premises.

(b) Within ten days after issuing the written directive, or when any delay in the isolation or quarantine of a person or group of persons will not pose an immediate and serious threat to the public health, the department shall file a petition for a court order authorizing the initial or continued isolation or quarantine of a person or group of persons. The petition shall specify the following:

- (1) The identity of the person or group of persons subject to isolation or quarantine.
- (2) The premises subject to isolation or quarantine.
- (3) The date and time at which isolation or quarantine commences.
- (4) The suspected contagious disease, if known.
- (5) A statement of compliance with the conditions and principles for isolation and quarantine.
- (6) A statement of the basis on which isolation or quarantine is justified pursuant to this article.

(c) The petition must be accompanied by the sworn affidavit of department attesting to the facts asserted in the petition, together with any further information that may be relevant and material to the court's consideration.

(d) Notice to a person or group of persons identified in a petition must be completed within 24 hours after filing the petition.

(e) A hearing must be held on a petition filed pursuant to this section within five days after filing of the petition. In extraordinary circumstances and for good cause shown, the Community's Health and Human Services Department may apply to continue the hearing date on a petition for not more than ten days. If the court grants a continuance it must give due regard to the rights of the affected persons, the protection of the public's health, the severity of the emergency and the availability of necessary witnesses and evidence.

(f) The court shall grant the petition if, by a preponderance of the evidence, isolation or quarantine is shown to be reasonably necessary to protect the public health.

(g) A court order authorizing isolation or quarantine may do so for a period not to exceed 30 days. The order must:

- (1) Identify the isolated or quarantined person or group of persons by name or shared or similar characteristics or circumstances.
- (2) Specify factual findings warranting isolation or quarantine pursuant to this article, including any conditions necessary to ensure that isolation or quarantine is carried out within the stated purposes and restrictions of this article.
- (3) Be served on an affected person or group of persons.

(h) Before an isolation or quarantine order expires, the department may move to continue the isolation or quarantine for an additional period not to exceed 30 days. The court shall grant the motion if, by a preponderance of the evidence, isolation or quarantine is shown to be reasonably necessary to protect the public health.

(i) A person or group of persons isolated or quarantined pursuant to this section may apply to the court for an order to show cause why the person or group of persons should not be released. The court must rule on the application to show cause within 48 hours after it is filed. If the court grants the application, the court must schedule a hearing on the order to show cause within 24 hours after it issues the order to show cause. The issuance of an order to show cause does not stay or enjoin an isolation or quarantine order.

(j) A person isolated or quarantined pursuant to this section may request a court hearing regarding the person's treatment and the conditions of the quarantine or isolation.

(k) On receiving a request for a hearing, the court must set a date for a hearing. The hearing must take place within ten days after the court receives the request. The request for a hearing does not alter the order of isolation or quarantine. If the court finds that the isolation or quarantine of the person or group of persons does not comply with the requirements of this section, the court may provide remedies appropriate to the circumstances of the local emergency declaration, the rights of the individual and in keeping with the provisions of this article.

(l) A record of the proceedings pursuant to this section shall be made and retained. If, because of a local emergency declaration or major disaster declaration declared, parties cannot personally appear before the court, the proceedings may be conducted by the authorized representatives of the parties and held by any means that allows all parties to fully participate.

(m) The court shall appoint counsel to represent a person or group of person who is subject to isolation or quarantine pursuant to this article and who is not otherwise represented by counsel. Representation by appointed counsel continues throughout the duration of the isolation or quarantine of the person or group of persons. The department or local health authority must provide adequate means of communication between the isolated or quarantined persons and their counsel.

(n) In any proceedings brought pursuant to this section, to promote the fair and efficient operation of justice and having given due regard to the rights of the affected persons, the protection of the public's health, the severity of the emergency and the availability of necessary witnesses and evidence, the court may order the consolidation of individual claims into groups of claims if:

- (1) The number of persons involved or to be affected is so large as to render individual participation impractical.
- (2) There are questions of law or fact common to the individual claims or rights to be determined.
- (3) The group claims or rights to be determined are typical of the affected person's claims or rights.
- (4) The entire group will be adequately represented in the consolidation.

Sec. 15.1-8. Reporting of tax.

(a) Returns. The returns required under this chapter shall be made upon forms provided or approved by the tax collector, and shall be considered filed only when the accuracy of the return has been attested to, by signature upon the form, by the taxpayer or an authorized agent of the taxpayer, and when such form has been received by the tax collector.

(b) Method of reporting transaction privilege taxes. Each taxpayer shall elect to report on either a cash receipts basis or an accrual basis and shall indicate the choice on the privilege license application. A taxpayer shall not change his or her reporting method without receiving prior written approval by the tax collector.

- (1) Taxpayers shall report all gross income subject to the tax using the same basis of reporting.
- (2) Gross income from construction of improvements pursuant to a construction contract shall be reported either on cash receipts basis or on a progressive billing (accrual) basis. Where the construction is not pursuant to a construction contract, the value of the constructed improvement shall be reported as gross income upon completion of construction.

(c) Returns by the tax collector. If a taxpayer fails timely to file a return for any period, the tax collector, after prior written notice and demand to the taxpayer, may prepare such a return using reasonable estimates of gross income, property valuation, or sales volume based on any information available to him or her. The tax collector shall mail, by certified United States mail, or hand deliver a copy of the return to the taxpayer and the date of filing of such return shall be the date that the copy was mailed or delivered.

Sec. 15.1-9. When tax due; when delinquent; verification of return; extensions.

(a) Generally. Except as provided elsewhere in this section, the taxes shall be due and payable monthly on or before the 20th day of the month next succeeding the month in which the tax accrues.

- (1) Quarterly returns. The tax collector may authorize a taxpayer whose reporting history indicates an estimated annual Community privilege tax liability on taxable gross income in excess of $5,000.00, but less than $50,000.00, to file returns on a calendar-quarterly basis. The taxes for each calendar quarter shall be due and payable on or before the 20th day of the month next succeeding the end of each calendar quarter.

- (2) Annual returns. The tax collector may authorize a taxpayer whose reporting history indicates an estimated annual Community privilege tax liability on gross income of not more than $5,000.00 to file returns for such taxes on a calendar annual basis. The taxes for each calendar year shall be due and payable on or before January 20 of the following year.

(b) Special requirements of taxpayers filing quarterly or annual returns. No taxpayer may report on a quarterly or annual basis until he or she has established, to the tax collector's satisfaction, six months' reporting history. It is the taxpayer's responsibility to notify the tax collector and increase his or her reporting frequency (to quarterly or monthly as applicable) when his or her gross income exceeds the maximum limits for his or her current reporting frequency. Failure to do so may be deemed negligence or evasion, and penalties may apply. Failure to file returns timely, without good cause shown to the satisfaction of the tax collector, is sufficient cause for the tax collector to deny future filings by the taxpayer on a quarterly or annual basis.

(c) Delinquency date. Except as provided in subsection (d) of this section, all returns and remittances received within the tax collector's office on or before the last business day of the month when due shall be regarded as timely filed. The start of business of the first business day following the month when due shall be the delinquency date. It shall be the taxpayer's responsibility to cause his or her return and remittance to be timely received. Mailing the return or remittance on or before the due date or delinquency date does not relieve the taxpayer of the responsibility of causing his or her return or remittance to be received by the last business day of the month when due.

(d) Jeopardy reporting. If the tax collector determines that the collection of any tax due to the Community is in jeopardy, the tax collector may direct the taxpayer to file his or her return and remit the tax on a weekly, daily, or transaction-by-transaction basis. Such return and remittance shall be due upon the date fixed by the tax collector, and the delinquency date shall be the following day.

(e) Extensions. The tax collector may extend the time for filing a return, for good cause shown, and only when requested in writing and received by the tax collector prior to the tax due date. However, the time for filing such return shall not be extended beyond the last business day of the month next succeeding the due date of such return. In such cases, only the penalties for late filing and late payment may be waived by the tax collector for filing and payment within the extension period. Notwithstanding the granting of an extension, the interest payable for late payment of taxes shall be paid for the period commencing upon the original delinquency date and ending on the date the tax is paid. The interest may not be waived by the tax collector.

(f) Final return. The final return of a taxpayer who ceases to engage in activities taxable under this chapter shall be due ten days after cessation of such activities.

(Code 1981, § 15.1-8; Code 2012, § 15.1-8; Ord. No. SRO-361-2010, 3-31-2010; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 15.1-8, 5-30-2012; Ord. No. SRO-473-2015, Exh. A, 8-12-2015)

Sec. 15.1-10. Interest and civil penalties.

(a) Any taxpayer who fails to pay any of the taxes imposed by this chapter when due shall be subject to and shall pay interest upon such tax at the rate of one percent per month, or fraction of a month, until paid. Said interest may not be waived by the tax collector other than on the basis that section 15.1-11 applies. From and after September 1, 2013, the rate of interest on overpayments shall be one-quarter of one percent per month, or fraction of a month.

- (1) In the event of an underpayment of the tax liability due, interest begins to accrue starting on the due date of the applicable return.

- (2) On January 1 of each year any interest outstanding as of that date is thereafter considered a part of the principal amount of the tax and accrues interest pursuant to this section.

- (3) For credits or refunds authorized pursuant to subsection (b)(3) of this section, interest shall be calculated from the date the tax collector receives the claimant's written claim following the date of notice to the claimant authorizing the credit or refund.

(b) In addition to interest assessed under subsection (a) of this section, any taxpayer who fails to pay before the delinquency date any tax due under this chapter shall, in addition to any other penalties prescribed by this chapter, pay civil penalties as follows:

- (1) A taxpayer who fails to timely file a return for a tax imposed by this chapter shall pay a penalty of five percent of the tax for each month or fraction of a month elapsing between the delinquency date of the return and the date on which it is filed, unless the taxpayer shows to the satisfaction of the tax collector that the failure to timely file is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect. This penalty shall not exceed 25 percent of the tax due.
- (2) A taxpayer who fails to pay an applicable tax within the time prescribed shall pay a penalty of ten percent of the unpaid tax, unless the taxpayer shows to the satisfaction of the tax collector that the failure to timely pay is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect.
- (3) A taxpayer who fails to file a return within 30 days of having received a written notice and demand from the tax collector shall pay a penalty of 25 percent of the tax, unless the taxpayer shows to the satisfaction of the tax collector that the failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect or the tax collector agrees to a longer time period.

- (4) If the cause of a tax deficiency is determined by the tax collector to be negligence, but without intent to defraud, the taxpayer shall pay a penalty of ten percent of the amount of the deficiency.
- (5) If the cause of a tax deficiency is determined by the tax collector to be due to civil fraud or evasion of the tax, the taxpayer shall pay a penalty of 50 percent of the amount of deficiency.

(c) Interest imposed under subsection (a) of this section and penalties imposed by subsections (b)(1) and (2) of this section are due and payable upon notice by the tax collector and may be challenged by the taxpayer only after application for a refund and denial of such application. Penalties under subsections (b)(3), (4) and (5) of this section must be asserted by the tax collector in a notice of determination of a deficiency and may be challenged by the taxpayer before payment.

(d) For the purpose of this section, the term "reasonable cause" means that the taxpayer exercised ordinary business care and prudence, i.e., had a reasonable basis for believing that the tax did not apply to the business activity or the storage or use of the taxpayer's tangible personal property in the Community.

(e) For the purpose of this section, the term "negligence" shall be characterized chiefly by inadvertence, thoughtlessness, inattention or the like, rather than an "honest mistake." Examples of negligence include:

- (1) The taxpayer's failure to maintain records as required by the regulations;
- (2) Repeated failures to timely file returns; or
- (3) Gross ignorance of the law.
(Code 1981, § 15.1-9; Code 2012, § 15.1-9; Ord. No. SRO-361-2010, 3-31-2010; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 15.1-9, 5-30-2012; Ord. No. SRO-426-2013, § A, 9-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-473-2015, Exh. A, 8-12-2015)

Sec. 15.1-11. Erroneous advice or misleading statements by the tax collector; abatement of penalties and interest; definition.

(a) Notwithstanding section 15.1-10(a), a deficiency shall not bear interest if either:

- (1) The deficiency is directly attributable to erroneous written advice furnished to the taxpayer by the tax collector in response to a specific request from the taxpayer and not from the taxpayer's failure to provide adequate or accurate information; or
- (2) All of the following are true:
  - a. A tax return form or instruction related to the form prepared by the tax collector contains a statement that, if followed by a taxpayer, would cause the taxpayer to misapply this chapter.
  - b. The taxpayer reasonably relies on the statement.
  - c. The taxpayer's underpayment directly results from this reliance.

(b) The tax collector may waive or adjust penalties imposed by section 15.1-10(b)(1)—(4) above upon a finding that:

- (1) In the past, the taxpayer has consistently filed and paid the taxes imposed by this chapter in a timely manner; or
- (2) The amount of the penalty is greatly disproportionate to the amount of the tax; or
- (3) The failure of a taxpayer to file a return and/or pay any tax by the delinquency date was caused by any of the following circumstances which must occur prior to the delinquency date of the return or payment in question:
  - a. The return was timely filed but was inadvertently forwarded to another taxing jurisdiction.

- b. Erroneous or insufficient information was furnished the taxpayer by the tax collector or his employee or agent.
- c. Death or serious illness of the taxpayer, member of his immediate family, or the preparer of the reports immediately prior to the due date.
- d. Unavoidable absence of the taxpayer immediately prior to the due date.
- e. Destruction, by fire or other casualty, of the taxpayer's place of business or records.
- f. Prior to the due date, the taxpayer made application for proper forms which could not be furnished in sufficient time to permit a timely filing.
- g. The taxpayer was in the process of pursuing an active protest of the tax in question in another taxing jurisdiction at the time the tax and/or return was due.
- h. The taxpayer establishes through competent evidence that the taxpayer contacted a tax advisor who is competent on the specific tax matter and, after furnishing necessary and relevant information, the taxpayer was incorrectly advised that no tax was owed and/or the filing of a return was not required.
- i. The taxpayer has never been audited by the Community for the tax or on the issue in question and relied, in good faith, on a Community exemption or interpretation.
- j. The taxpayer can provide some public record (court case, report in a periodical, professional journal or publication, etc.) stating that the transaction is not subject to tax.

(c) A taxpayer may also request a waiver or adjustment of penalty for a reason thought to be equally substantive to those reasons itemized above. All requests for waiver or adjustment of penalty must be in writing and shall contain all pertinent facts and other reliable and substantive evidence to support the request. In all cases, the burden of proof is upon the taxpayer.

(d) No request for waiver of penalty under subsection (b) above may be granted unless written request for waiver is received by the tax collector within 30 days following the imposition of penalty. Any taxpayer aggrieved by the refusal to grant a waiver under subsection (b) above may appeal under the provisions of section 15.1-17 provided that a petition of appeal or request for an extension is submitted to the tax collector within 30 days of the taxpayer's receipt of notice by the Community that waiver has been denied. (Code 1981, § 15.1-10; Code 2012, § 15.1-10; Ord. No. SRO-361-2010, 3-31-2010; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 15.1-10, 5-30-2012; Ord. No. SRO-473-2015, Exh. A, 8-12-2015)

Sec. 15.1-12. Deficiencies; when inaccurate return is filed; when no return is filed.

(a) If the taxpayer has failed to file a return, or if the tax collector is not satisfied with the return and payment of the amount of tax required, and additional taxes are determined by the tax collector to be due, including interest and penalties due pursuant to section 15.1-10, the tax collector shall send, by certified United States mail, or shall hand-deliver a written determination of a deficiency to the taxpayer, and such deficiency shall include any applicable penalties and interest. The deficiency shall be due and payable 30 days after its effective date unless the taxpayer files a petition for review of the deficiency determination within that period.

(b) When a return is filed. If the tax collector is not satisfied with a return and payment of the amount of tax required by this chapter, he or she may examine the return or examine the records of the taxpayer, and re-determine the amount of tax, penalties, and interest required to be paid, for any periods available to the tax collector under section 15.1-14, based upon the information contained in the return or records or based upon any information within his or her possession or which comes into his or her possession.

(c) The tax collector shall give notice to the taxpayer of any determination of a deficiency by certified United States mail or hand-delivery of a notice to the taxpayer at the taxpayer's last address of record. The effective date of a notice given by certified United States mail shall be the date of mailing as shown on the postmark and the effective date of a notice that is hand-delivered shall be the date of delivery. The notice shall advise the taxpayer of his or her right to contest the deficiency by filing a petition for review pursuant to section 15.1-17.

Sec. 15.1-13. Closing agreements.

(a) If the tax collector determines that noncompliance with tax obligations results from a reasonable cause, misunderstanding or misapplication of provisions of this chapter, the tax collector may enter into a closing agreement with a taxpayer that may abate some or all of the tax, penalties, and/or interest that the taxpayer failed to remit. All closing agreements shall be subject to the approval of the Community treasurer.

(b) The closing agreement shall require the taxpayer to properly account for and pay such taxes in the future. If a taxpayer fails to adhere to such a requirement, the closing agreement is voidable by the tax collector and he or she may issue a notice of deficiency for the abated tax, interest and penalties. The tax collector may issue a proposed notice of deficiency at any time within six months after the date that he or she declares the closing agreement void or within the period prescribed by section 15.1-14.

(c) After a closing agreement has been signed pursuant to this section, it is final and conclusive, and neither it nor any determination, assessment, collection, payment abatement, refund or credit made pursuant to the agreement shall be reopened, annulled, modified, set aside or disregarded in any way, except on a showing of fraud, malfeasance or misrepresentation of a material fact.

(d) For the purpose of this section, the term "reasonable cause" means that the taxpayer exercised ordinary business care and prudence, i.e., had a reasonable basis for believing that the tax did not apply to the business activity or the storage or use of the taxpayer's tangible personal property in the Community.

Sec. 15.1-14. Limitation periods.

(a) Generally. The following limitation periods apply to all taxes referred to in this chapter:

- (1) Except as provided elsewhere in this section, the tax collector may issue a notice of deficiency with respect to any tax return at any time within four years after the date on which the tax return was due, or within four years after the date on which the tax return is filed, whichever period expires later.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (a)(1) of this section, if a taxpayer does not report an amount properly reportable that is in excess of 25 percent of the taxable amount stated on the return, the tax collector may assess additional tax due at any time within six years after the date on which the return was filed.
- (3) If a taxpayer fails to file a return, files a fraudulent return, or commits other fraud with the intent to evade (or that has the effect of evading) taxes, the tax collector may assess the amount due, plus interest and penalties, at any time within ten years after the date on which the return was either due or the date on which the return was filed, whichever is later.
- (4) Any delay in commencement or completion of any examination by the tax collector, which is requested or agreed to in writing by the taxpayer, shall be excluded from the computation of any limitation periods prescribed by this section and such limitation periods shall be extended for a length of time equivalent to the period of the agreed upon delay. However, the tax collector shall not be required to exclude any such period of delay from the tax collector's calculation of taxes and interest due.

- (5) A deficiency notice shall be sent by certified mail or hand-delivered to the taxpayer at the taxpayer's address of record or to the taxpayer's agent at the agent's address of record.

(b) Extension of limitation period. Any applicable limitation period may be extended by written agreement of the tax collector and taxpayer.

(Code 1981, § 15.1-13; Code 2012, § 15.1-13; Ord. No. SRO-361-2010, 3-31-2010; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 15.1-13, 5-30-2012; Ord. No. SRO-473-2015, Exh. A, 8-12-2015)

Sec. 15.1-15. Tax collector may examine books and other records; failure to provide records.

(a) The tax collector may require the taxpayer to provide and may examine any books, records, or other documents of any person who, in the opinion of the tax collector, might be liable for any tax under this chapter, for any periods not barred by limitations under section 15.1-14.

(b) In order to perform any examination authorized by this chapter, the tax collector may issue an administrative request for the attendance of witnesses or for the production of documents.

(c) If within 30 calendar days of receiving a written request for information in the possession of the taxpayer, the taxpayer fails or refuses to furnish the requested information, the tax collector may, in addition to penalties prescribed under section 15.1-10, impose an additional penalty of 25 percent of the amount of any tax deficiency attributable to the information that the taxpayer failed to provide, unless the taxpayer shows that the failure was due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect.

(d) The tax collector may use any generally accepted auditing procedures, including sampling techniques, to determine the correct tax liability of any taxpayer. The tax collector shall ensure that the procedures used are in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards.

(e) The fact that the taxpayer has not maintained or provided one or more books or records requested by the tax collector shall not preclude the tax collector from making a determination of deficiency. In such cases, the tax collector shall be authorized to use reasonable estimates, projections, or samplings, to determine the correct tax.

Sec. 15.1-16. Erroneous payment of tax; credits and refunds; limitations.

(a) A taxpayer may apply to the tax collector for a refund of any taxes that were paid but not due. The application for refund must be filed before the expiration of the limitation period set forth in section 15.1-14(a)(1). Taxpayers seeking a refund shall provide all information requested and reasonably required by the tax collector to make a determination as to the taxpayer's entitlement to a refund.

(b) The tax collector shall promptly consider an application for refund and shall issue to the taxpayer a notice of acceptance or denial of the application for refund.

(c) The tax collector shall refund any overpayment of taxes within ten days after determining that the refund is properly owed. If the taxpayer is delinquent in its obligation to pay taxes to the Community, or is delinquent in any other financial obligation to the Community, the tax collector shall apply some or all of the refund as may be necessary to satisfy as much of the obligation as possible.

(d) No credit shall be allowed or refund paid where it appears that the taxpayer has collected from its customers, by separately stated itemization, the amount of the tax, except that a credit or refund may be allowed in such case if the taxpayer can present documentation satisfactory to the tax collector identifying each customer from whom the excess taxes were collected and establishing that any taxes refunded pursuant to this section will be remitted to those customers within 60 days of receipt of the refund.

(e) Interest shall be allowed at the rate set forth in section 15.1-10(a) on any refund applied for and authorized pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. Interest shall be calculated from the date of the taxpayer's application for refund filed with the Community.

(f) When it is determined that taxes due to the Community have been reported and paid to the wrong taxing jurisdiction, the taxpayer bears all responsibility to recover any erroneous payment, and the taxpayer remains liable on all tax due to the Community.

(Code 1981, § 15.1-15; Code 2012, § 15.1-15; Ord. No. SRO-361-2010, 3-31-2010; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 15.1-15, 5-30-2012; Ord. No. SRO-473-2015, Exh. A, 8-12-2015)

Sec. 15.1-17. Administrative review; petition for hearing or for redetermination; finality of order.

(a) Applicability. This section describes the procedures under which a taxpayer may dispute any determination by the tax collector related to taxes owed or asserted to be owed by the taxpayer.

(b) Informal conference. A taxpayer shall have the right to discuss any dispute subject to this section by informal conference with the tax collector or with an auditor before seeking administrative review pursuant to subsection (c) of this section, provided that the time for filing a petition for administrative review shall not be extended by such informal conference, except by written agreement between the tax collector and the taxpayer.

(c) Administrative review.

(1) Filing a petition. A taxpayer may seek administrative review of a dispute that is subject to this section by filing with the tax collector a petition for review within 30 days of mailing or delivery to the taxpayer of the notice that is the subject of the petition.

(2) Extension to file a petition. The taxpayer may request only one extension from the tax collector of the time for filing a petition for review. Such request must be in writing, state the reasons for the requested delay and time of delay requested, and must be filed with the tax collector within the period set forth in subsection (c)(1) of this section for originally filing a petition. The tax collector may grant an extension that shall not exceed 15 days.

(3) Requirements for petition. The petition shall be in writing, shall describe the action of the tax collector which the taxpayer disputes, and shall state the basis of the taxpayer's contention that such action is erroneous. A taxpayer may file a petition of his assessment on the basis of (1) factual errors in the assessment, (2) improper classification, (3) inaccurate valuation, (4) improper denial of an exemption, (5) inequitable valuation, or (6) some combination of the above factors. The taxpayer may not contend inaccurate valuation if he did not timely supply the collector with requested income and expense information.

(4) Response to petition. The tax collector shall mail or hand-deliver to the taxpayer and to the hearing officer (or to the Community manager if the hearing officer has not been appointed) a written response to the petition within 20 days of the filing of the petition.

(5) Failure to file. If a request for administrative review and petition for hearing or redetermination of an assessment made by the tax collector is not filed within the period required by subsection (1) above, such person shall be deemed to have waived and abandoned the right to question the amount determined to be due and any tax, interest, or penalty determined to be due shall be final.

(d) The hearing officer. Upon receipt of a petition, the tax collector shall promptly deliver a copy of the petition to the Community manager who shall appoint a hearing officer to conduct proceedings for the resolution of the dispute. The hearing officer shall be a person with general knowledge of taxes, a member in good standing of the state bar and have previous experience serving in a judicial capacity.

(e) The hearing. The hearing officer shall review the petition and the response, and shall, upon consultation with the taxpayer and tax collector, schedule a hearing within 30 days of his or her appointment and advise the parties of the general rules of hearing procedure. The hearing officer shall not be required to prescribe strict rules regarding hearsay and authentication of evidentiary records. The parties may be represented by attorneys or advocates of their choice in all proceedings conducted under this section. The hearing officer shall maintain a record of the proceeding that shall include all papers filed with the hearing officer and all papers offered into evidence. The taxpayer has the burden of proving that the assessment is incorrect.

(f) The hearing officer's decision. The hearing officer shall, within 30 days of the hearing, render a written decision, which shall include a summary statement of the reasons for the decision. The hearing officer shall mail copies of the decision to the parties. The decision may, in the hearing officer's discretion, include an award of fees and costs to the prevailing party upon a finding that such award is both reasonable in amount and warranted under the circumstances. If neither party seeks a reconsideration, the decision becomes final 30 days after the date of the decision. Either party may seek reconsideration of the decision by written motion filed and served within 15 days of the date of the decision. If a motion for reconsideration is determined by the hearing officer to be not timely filed, the hearing officer shall notify both parties in writing of the determination of untimeliness, and the decision will be final 15 days after the date of the notice. If a motion for reconsideration is timely filed and it is denied, the hearing officer shall notify both parties in writing of the denial and the decision will be final 15 days after the date of the notice. If a motion for reconsideration is granted, the hearing officer shall issue an amended decision which will be final 15 days after the date of the new or supplemental decision. A motion for reconsideration may not be based upon evidence not in the hearing officer's record, except upon a showing that such evidence was unavailable due to fraud.

(g) Effect of the final decision. Any determination of deficiency that is upheld by the hearing officer in a final decision shall be assessed, and any application for refund that is upheld by the hearing officer in a final decision shall be paid, 30 days after the decision is final unless the deficiency determination or the refund determination is challenged within that time by the filing of a complaint in the Community court.

(h) Injunctions. No injunction shall be awarded by any court or judge to restrain the collection of the taxes imposed by this chapter or to restrain the enforcement of this chapter.

Sec. 15.1-18. Jeopardy assessments.

(a) If the tax collector believes that the collection of any deficiency of any amounts imposed by this chapter will be jeopardized by delay, he or she shall deliver to the taxpayer a notice of such finding and demand immediate payment of deficiency declared to be in jeopardy.

(b) Jeopardy assessments are immediately due and payable and the tax collector may immediately begin proceedings for collection. The taxpayer, however, may stay collection by filing, within ten days after receipt of notice of jeopardy assessment, or within such additional time as the tax collector may allow, by bond or collateral in favor of the Community, in the amount declared by the tax collector in his or her notice to be in jeopardy.

(c) The bond required by this section shall be issued in favor of the Community by a surety company authorized to transact business in this state and approved by the treasurer of the Community as to solvency and responsibility. Collateral shall consist of marketable securities or cash, which will be deposited with the treasurer of the Community.

(d) If bond or collateral is not filed within the period prescribed by subsection (b) of this section, the tax collector may immediately assess and collect the deficiency. The taxpayer nevertheless shall be entitled to initiate the review proceedings provided in sections 15.1-17 and 15.1-19.

(Code 1981, § 15.1-17; Code 2012, § 15.1-17; Ord. No. SRO-361-2010, 3-31-2010; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 15.1-17, 5-30-2012; Ord. No. SRO-473-2015, Exh. A, 8-12-2015)

Sec. 15.1-19. Judicial review.

(a) A taxpayer may seek judicial review of all or any part of a hearing officer's decision by initiating an action against the Community in the Community court within 30 days of the date that the decision becomes final. A taxpayer is not required to pay any tax, penalty, or interest upheld by the hearing officer before seeking such judicial review.

(b) The tax collector may seek judicial review of all or any part of a hearing officer's decision by initiating an action against the taxpayer in the Community court within 30 days of the date the decision becomes final.

(c) The court may reverse the decision of the hearing officer in whole or in part but only upon a finding that the decision is clearly erroneous. The court shall not consider any contentions or evidentiary materials other than those found in the record of the hearing officer's proceeding.

Sec. 15.1-20. Collection of assessed taxes.

(a) The tax collector, and other Community officials designated by the Community manager, may collect assessments in the same manner as judgments of the Community court.

(b) Every tax imposed by this chapter, and all interest and penalties thereon, shall become, from the time the same is due and payable, a personal debt to the Community from the person liable, but shall be payable to and recoverable by the collector.

(c) An action in the name of the Community may be brought at any time by the Community attorney, at the request of the collector, to recover the amount of any taxes, interest and penalties due under this chapter.

(d) There shall be no levy made which will impinge upon the federal trust.

(Code 1981, § 15.1-19; Code 2012, § 15.1-19; Ord. No. SRO-361-2010, 3-31-2010; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 15.1-19, 5-30-2012; Ord. No. SRO-473-2015, Exh. A, 8-12-2015)

Sec. 15.1-21. Collection of delinquent possessory interest taxes.

If any tax imposed pursuant to article III of this chapter is not protested or paid within 60 days after becoming delinquent, or upon entry of any final judgment of the courts of the Community against a taxpayer, the collector shall issue a warrant directed to the chief of police of the Community department of public safety commanding him or her to levy upon and sell, within 60 days, to a person approved by the Community Council, the possessory interest against which the tax was assessed. The proceeds of such sale shall promptly be turned over to the collector, who shall use such proceeds to pay the amount of the delinquent tax, with the added penalties, interest, any applicable court costs, and the cost of executing the warrant. With respect to any real property possessory interest that is the subject of such a warrant, all or such number of any lessors of the real property who wish to purchase such real property at the sale shall have preference at the sale. The chief of police shall, within five days after the receipt of the warrant, file with the clerk of the Community court a copy thereof, and the clerk shall thereupon enter in the judgment docket, in the column of judgment debtors, the name of the delinquent taxpayer mentioned in the warrant, and in appropriate columns the amounts of the tax or portion thereof and penalties and interest for which the warrant is issued and the date when such copy is filed. Thereafter, the amount of such warrant so docketed shall become a lien upon the title to the possessory interest upon which levy has been made in the same manner as a judgment against the taxpayer duly docketed in the office of the clerk. After filing the copy of the warrant with the clerk, the chief of police shall execute the warrant in the same manner prescribed by law for executing judgments of the Community court, and shall be entitled to the same fees for his or her services in executing the warrant, to be collected in the same manner. If a warrant is returned not satisfied in full, the collector shall have the same remedies to enforce the claim for taxes against the delinquent taxpayer as if the Community had recovered judgment against the delinquent taxpayer for the amount of the tax.

Sec. 15.1-22. Manner of making remittance of tax; collector's receipt.

All remittances of taxes imposed by this chapter shall be made by bank draft, check, cashier's check, money order, electronic funds transfer, or cash to the collector, who, upon request by the taxpayer, shall issue receipts to the taxpayer; provided, that no remittance for the tax assessed and levied under the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed received unless and until it has been paid to the collector by any of the methods specified above.

Sec. 15.1-23. Proof of exemption—Sale for resale; sale, rental, lease, or license of rental equipment.

A claim of purchase for resale or of purchase, rental, lease, or license for rent, lease, or license is valid only if the evidence is sufficient to persuade a reasonably prudent businessman that the particular item is being acquired for resale or for rental, lease, or license in the ordinary course of business. The fact that the acquiring person possesses a privilege license number, and makes a verbal claim of "sale for resale or lease" or "lease for re-lease" does not meet this burden and is insufficient to justify an exemption. The "reasonable evidence" must be evidence which exists objectively, and not merely in the mind of the vendor, that the property being acquired is normally sold, rented, leased, or licensed by the acquiring person in the ordinary course of business. Failure to obtain such reasonable evidence at the time of the transaction will be a basis for disallowance of any claimed deduction on returns filed for such transactions.

(Ord. No. SRO-473-2015, Exh. A, 8-12-2015)

Sec. 15.1-24. Proof of exemption—Exemption certificate.

For the purpose of proof of exemption, the minimum acceptable proof and documentation for each transaction shall be the completion, at the time of the transaction, in all material respects, of a certificate containing all the information set forth below. For the purpose of validating the vendor's claim of exemption, such certificate is sufficient if executed by any person with apparent authority to act for the customer, and the information provided validates the claim.

Sec. 15.1-25. Conducting Community business.

(a) Purpose. The Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community ("Community") recognizes the need for retaining flexibility in the manner in which the Community conducts business on and off Community lands. In recent years, the Community has conducted Community business in various forms, including Community divisions organized by ordinance as subordinate economic entities of the Community, as well as wholly owned Community limited liability companies. By this chapter, the Community recognizes certain additional entities under Community law, including entities established under the laws of another jurisdiction and entities that include non-Community members or owners. The Community deems this flexibility essential to achieving its goals of self-determination, including the expertise that can be obtained and learned through securing non-Community partners. The arrangements recognized through this chapter are deemed critical to the Community's ability to raise revenues for the purpose of providing core essential government functions.

(b) Recognition of foreign entities. The Community may conduct its business by establishing an entity organized under the laws of any state, including, without limitation, a state chartered corporation or a state chartered limited liability company. Such entities, when wholly owned by the Community, shall automatically have dual status as a state chartered entity and an entity recognized under and subject to the laws of the Community. Such entities shall be treated as Community-owned entities for purposes of federal preference laws, the Buy Indian act, and similar purposes.

(c) Community owned entities. A business entity with both Community and non-Community owners or members will be considered a Community-owned entity, regardless of form or of the jurisdiction in which it is established, organized or chartered, provided that each of the following are met:

- (1) The entity must be majority owned by the Community;
- (2) The entity must conduct its business on land within the Community's boundaries;
- (3) The Community retains the right to appoint (or control the majority voting rights for such appointment) the managing member or highest officer of the entity; and
- (4) The Community shares in a majority of profits or losses of the entity; and
- (5) The Community must control the daily operations of the entity.

(d) Sovereign immunity. This chapter shall not be construed as a waiver of the Community's sovereign immunity, which may be waived only by express resolution of the Community Council. Nothing herein shall waive the sovereign immunity of an entity that otherwise retained sovereign immunity as a subordinate economic entity of the Community. Community-owned entities shall be subject to regulation, taxation, and oversight under Community law. (Ord. No. SRO-489-2017, 2-8-2017)

Sec. 15.1-26. Tax entity or operator.

(a) Purpose. The Community imposes certain transaction privilege taxes for the privilege of conducting business within the Community. As some Community-owned business entities utilize management contracts and contracted service providers in the conduct of business, the Community desires to define the appropriate business entity for purposes of imposing transaction privilege taxes.

(b) Business operator. A Community-owned business enterprise, regardless of form or of the jurisdiction in which it is established, organized or chartered, shall be treated as the "business" or "operator" for purposes of transaction privilege taxes, regardless of whether the entity contracts with a management company or other service providers in the conduct of the business, so long as (1) the Community-owned entity holds itself out as the business or business operator and not just a lessor of property, (2) the Community or the Community-owned entity reserves the right to terminate the business or change its business purpose, and (3) the Community or the Community-owned entity reserves the right to continue the business if the management or other service contract is terminated. The Community recognizes, particularly in the early years of an enterprise, that Community-owned businesses may require outside expertise in order to succeed. These arrangements, such as but not limited to franchise arrangements, vendor services, hotel management services, purchasing arrangements, or food and beverage services, are recognized as merely support services to a Community-owned business. The intention of the Community in this regard shall be the primary factor in determining the proper business/operator for tax purposes. A business entity that is qualified as a Community-owned entity shall be presumed to be the owner-operator and taxpayer unless the business contracts or other documents expressly provide to the contrary, or unless there is other clear and convincing evidence that the manager or other contractor, as applicable, retains actual control over all business operations, including the ability to terminate the business or change the scope or purpose of the enterprise.

(c) Conforming amendments or references. Other Community ordinances or regulations using the term Community-owned entity or business, or similar words and phrases not otherwise defined to the contrary, shall have the meanings set forth herein. Without limitation, section 15.1-2 (definition of Community), section 15.1-50(1)f. (the business of operating a hotel), and section 15.1-50(9) (business or division of the Community) shall be construed and applied consistently with this chapter.

grant a gaming employee license to such individual. If, however, the chairman requests further information during the 30-day period, the 30-day period shall be suspended until the chairman receives the information requested, if, within the 30-day period, the NIGC provides the Community regulatory agency with a statement itemizing objections to the issuance of a gaming employee license to a key employee or to a primary management official applicant, for whom a notice of results was submitted, the Community regulatory agency shall reconsider the license application, taking into account the objections itemized by the NIGC. The Community regulatory agency shall make the final decision whether to issue a gaming employee license to such applicant. Once a decision to issue or not issue a license is made pursuant to this procedure, the Community regulatory agency shall notify the NIGC of its decision within 30 days. Each temporary gaming employee license shall expire and become void and of no effect upon the determination by the Community regulatory agency of the applicant's suitability for a gaming employee license.

employee at any time, and may suspend or revoke any gaming employee license issued hereunder if new information concerning facts arising either prior to or since the issuance of the original license, or any renewal thereof, comes to the attention of the regulatory agency, which information could justify denial of such original license, or any renewal thereof; provided, however, that no such license shall be suspended without notice and an administrative hearing unless the Community regulatory agency determines that continued licensing constitutes an immediate threat to the public health, safety or welfare, or the integrity of gaming on the reservation, and no license shall be permanently revoked until the Community regulatory agency has provided the licensee with an opportunity upon request for an administrative hearing pursuant to section 15.5-14(f)(6).

- (7) Duration and renewal. Any gaming employee license shall be effective for two years from the date of issuance unless the compact allows otherwise; provided, that a licensee who has applied for renewal may continue to be employed or engaged under the expired license until action is taken on the renewal application by the Community regulatory agency. Applicants for renewal shall provide information as requested, on the appropriate renewal forms. The scope of the renewal background investigation shall concern the applicant's continuing eligibility for a license based information that is new since the initial application that is discovered by or made available to the applicant. Any person denied renewal of license shall have the opportunity upon request to appeal such denial to the gaming regulatory board pursuant to section 15.5-14(f)(6).

- (8) Mandatory disclosure duty. Any licensee has an affirmative and continuing duty to disclose and report to the Community regulatory agency within 72 hours of the occurrence any information or event that may affect or be relevant to eligibility determination standards as specified in subsection (3) above.

  - (5) Suspension and revocation. The issuance of a gaming services license by the Community regulatory agency shall not create or imply a right to supply gaming services on a continuing basis. The Community regulatory agency shall have the right to conduct additional background or other investigations of any gaming services licensee or principal of such licensee at any time, and may suspend or revoke any gaming services license issued hereunder if new information concerning facts arising either prior to or since the issuance of the original license, or any renewal thereof, comes to the attention of the Community regulatory agency, which information could justify denial of such original license, or any renewal thereof; provided, however, that no such license shall be suspended without notice and hearing unless the Community regulatory agency determines that continued licensing constitutes an immediate threat to the public health, safety or welfare, or the integrity of gaming on the reservation; and no license shall be permanently revoked until the Community regulatory agency has provided the licensee with an opportunity upon request for an administrative hearing pursuant to section 15.5-14(f)(6); and provided further, that the licensee shall be entitled to any payment due for services provided or goods delivered prior to the effective date of suspension or revocation of the license.

(a) Requirements enumerated. The following brake equipment is required:

- (1) Every motor vehicle, other than a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle, when operated upon a highway shall be equipped with brakes adequate to control the movement of and to stop and hold the vehicle, including two separate means of applying the brakes, each of which means shall be effective to apply the brakes to at least two wheels. If these two separate means of applying the brakes are connected in any way, they shall be so constructed that failure of any one part of the operating mechanism shall not leave the motor vehicle without brakes on at least two wheels.
- (2) Every motorcycle and every motor-driven cycle, when operated upon a highway, shall be equipped with at least one brake which may be operated by hand or foot.
- (3) Every trailer or semitrailer of a gross weight of 3,000 pounds or more when operated upon a highway shall be equipped with brakes adequate to control the movement of and to stop and hold the vehicle and so designed as to be applied by the driver of the towing motor vehicle from its cab, and the brakes shall be so designed and connected that in case of an accidental breakaway of the towed vehicle the brakes shall be automatically applied.
- (4) Every new motor vehicle, trailer or semitrailer sold in the Community and operated upon the Community highway shall be equipped with service brakes upon all wheels of every vehicle, except any motorcycle or motor-driven cycle, and except that any semitrailer of less than 1,500 pounds gross weight need not be equipped with brakes and except that three-axle trucks need only be equipped with brakes on all wheels of the two rear axles.
- (5) In any combination of motor-drawn vehicles, means shall be provided for applying the rearmost trailer brakes of any trailer equipped with brakes, in approximate synchronism with the brakes on the towing vehicle and developing the required braking effort on the rearmost wheels at the fastest rate, or means shall be provided for applying braking effort first on rearmost trailer equipped with brakes. Both of the above means capable of being used alternatively may be employed.
- (6) Every motor vehicle and combination of vehicles manufactured or sold in the Community, except motorcycles and motor-driven cycles, shall be equipped with parking brakes adequate to hold the vehicle on any grade on which it is operated, under all conditions of loading on a surface free from snow, ice, or loose material. The parking brakes shall be capable of being applied in conformance with the foregoing requirements by the driver's muscular effort or by spring action or by equivalent means. Their operation may be assisted by the service brakes or other source of power, provided that failure of the service brake actuation system or other power-assisting mechanism will not prevent the parking brakes from being applied in conformance with the foregoing requirements. The parking brakes shall be so designed that when once applied they shall remain applied with the required effectiveness despite exhaustion of any source of energy or leakage of any kind. The same brake, brake shoes and lining assemblies may be used for both the service brakes and the parking brakes. If the means of applying the parking brakes and the service brakes are connected in any way, they shall be so constructed that failure of any one pair shall not leave the vehicle without operative brakes.

- (7) The brake pads and shoes operating within or upon the brakes on the vehicle wheels of any motor vehicle may be used for both service and hand operation.

(b) Deceleration requirements. Every motor vehicle or combination of motor-drawn vehicles shall be capable at all times and under all conditions of loading, of being stopped on a dry, smooth, level road free from loose material, upon application of the service or footbrake, within the distance specified below, or shall be capable of being decelerated at a sustained rate corresponding to these distances:

|                                                                     | Feet to stop from20 miles per hour | Deceleration in feetper second feet to stop |

Sec. 16-111. Gross weight of vehicles and loads.

(a) Limits set out—Up to 18 feet. Subject to the limit upon the weight imposed upon the highway through any one axle as set forth in the previous section, the total gross weight with load imposed upon the highway by any one group of two or more consecutive axles of a vehicle or combination of vehicles shall not exceed the gross weight given for the respective distance between the first and last axle of the group of axles measured longitudinally to the nearest foot as set forth in the following table:

(b) Same—Over 18 feet. The total gross weight with load imposed on the highway by any vehicle or combination of vehicles where the distance between the first and last axles is more than 18 feet shall not exceed that given for the respective distances in the following table:

(c) How distance measured. The distance between axles shall be measured to the nearest even foot. When a fraction is exactly one-half foot, the next larger whole number shall be used.

(d) Punishment fines. A person convicted of violating this provision shall be punished by a fine, the maximum of which shall be $2,500.00 and the minimum of which shall be set forth in the following table:

| If the excess weight is | The minimum fine shall be: |
|--------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1,000 to 2,000 pounds          | $100.00                          |
| 2,001 to 3,000 pounds          | $200.00                          |

(e) Axle weight violations. If the officer finds that the person has violated only the axle weight limitation and not the total weight limitation, the officer shall request the driver to reload the vehicle to comply with the axle weight limitations; and if the driver so complies, the driver shall not be subject to a fine. If the driver does not comply with the request of the officer to reload, the driver shall be subject to a fine as provided in subsection (d) of this section.

Sec. 16-112. Community officers authorized to stop vehicles, weigh and require removal of excess weight.

(a) Stops authorized. A police officer having reason to believe that the weight of a vehicle and load is unlawful is authorized to require the driver to stop and submit to a weighing of the same by means of either portable or stationary scales and may require that the vehicle be driven to the nearest scales in the event such scales are within two miles.

(b) Load removal. When a police officer, upon weighing a vehicle and load as provided in subsection (a) of this section, determines that the weight is unlawful, the officer may require the driver to stop the vehicle in a suitable place and remain standing until such portion of the load is removed as may be necessary to reduce the gross weight of the vehicle to the limit as permitted under this article. All material so unloaded shall be cared for by the owner or operator of the vehicle at the wish of the owner or operator.

(c) Refusing to stop. Any driver of a vehicle who fails or refuses to stop and submit the vehicle and load to a weighing, or who fails or refuses when directed by an officer upon a weighing of the vehicle to stop the vehicle and otherwise comply with the provisions of this section is guilty of a criminal offense.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-112, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-112, 1-1-2014)

Sec. 16-113. Permit for excess size and weight.

(a) Council authorized to grant. The council may, in its discretion, upon application in writing and good cause being shown therefore, issue a special permit in writing authorizing the applicant to operate or move a vehicle or combination of vehicles of a size or weight of vehicle or load exceeding the maximum specified in this article or otherwise not in conformity with the provisions of this chapter upon Community highways.

(b) Contents of application. The application for any such permit shall specifically describe the vehicle or vehicles and load to be operated or moved and the particular highways for which permit to operate is requested, and whether the permit is requested for a single trip or for continuous operation.

(c) Limitations on permit. The council is authorized to issue or withhold the permit at its discretion. If the permit is issued, the council may limit the number of trips, establish seasonal or other time limitations within which the vehicles described may be operated on the highways indicated or otherwise limit or prescribe conditions of operation of the vehicle or vehicles, when necessary to assure against undue damage to the road foundations, surfaces or structures, and may require such undertaking or other security as may be deemed necessary to compensate for any injury to any roadway or road structure.

(d) Permit to be carried, displayed. Such a permit shall be carried in the vehicle or combination of vehicles to which it refers and shall be open to inspection by any law enforcement officer and no person shall violate any of the terms or conditions of the special permit.

(e) Fees. The following fees shall be assessed for each permit issued in accordance with the provisions of this section:

- (1) For a single trip and one load—$100.00.

- (2) For 30 days—$300.00.

(f) Government vehicles exempt. No fees shall be assessed for any permit issued in accordance with the provisions of this section for the movement of vehicles or combination of vehicles owned by the United States or the Community, federally recognized Indian tribes, the State of Arizona or any political subdivision thereof.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-113, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-113, 1-1-2014)

Secs. 16-114—16-120. Reserved.

ARTICLE V. TRAFFIC-CONTROL DEVICES

Sec. 16-121. Council authorized to place signs on all Community highways.

The council shall designate a Community agency to adopt a manual and specifications for a uniform system of traffic control devices for use on highways within the Community. The designated Community agency will have the authority to place and maintain signs according to the manual and specifications adopted. The goal of placing and maintaining the traffic devices on the highways of the Community is for the purpose of regulating, guiding, or warning traffic.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-121, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-121, 1-1-2014)

Sec. 16-122. Obedience to devices required; exceptions.

(a) Traffic control device. The driver of any vehicle shall obey the instructions of any official traffic-control device applicable thereto placed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, unless otherwise directed by a police officer, subject to the exemptions granted to a driver of an authorized emergency vehicle in this chapter.

(b) Gore area. The driver of any vehicle shall not drive over or across or park in any part of a gore area. This subsection does not apply to the driver of a vehicle that is disabled while on the paved or main traveled portion of a highway in a manner and to an extent that it is impossible to avoid stopping and temporarily leaving the disabled vehicle in that position. For the purpose of this subsection, the term "gore area" means the area that is between a through roadway and an entrance ramp or exit ramp and that is defined by two wide solid white lines that guide traffic entering or exiting a roadway. Gore area does not include a safety zone. The restriction in this subsection shall not apply to a driver of an authorized emergency vehicle in this chapter or if the driver is directed by a police officer.

(c) Signage. No provision of this chapter for which signs are required shall be enforced against an alleged violator if at the time and place of the alleged violation an official sign is not in proper position and sufficiently legible to be seen by an ordinarily observant person. When a particular section does not state that signs are required, that section shall be effective even though no signs are erected or in place.

Sec. 16-123. Signal legend.

(a) When traffic is controlled by traffic control signals exhibiting different colored lights, or colored lighted arrows, successively one at a time or in combination, only the colors green, red, and yellow shall be used, except for special pedestrian signals carrying a word or symbol legend, and such lights shall indicate and apply to drivers of vehicles and pedestrians as follows:

(1) Green indication:

- a. Vehicular traffic facing a green signal may proceed straight through or turn right or left unless a sign at that place prohibits either turn. Vehicular traffic, including vehicles turning right or left, shall yield the right-of-way to other vehicles and to pedestrians lawfully within the intersection or an adjacent crosswalk at the same time the signal is exhibited.
- b. Vehicular traffic facing a green arrow signal, shown along or in combination with another indication, may cautiously enter the intersection only to make the movement indicated by such arrow, or such other movement as is permitted by other indications shown at the same time. Such vehicular traffic shall yield the right-of-way to pedestrians lawfully within an adjacent crosswalk and to other traffic lawfully using the intersection.

- c. Unless otherwise directed by a pedestrian control signal, as provided in section 16-127, pedestrians facing any green signal, except if the sole green signal is a turn arrow, may proceed across the roadway within any marked or unmarked crosswalk.

(2) Steady yellow indication:

- a. Vehicular traffic facing a steady yellow signal is thereby warned that the related green movement is being terminated or that a red indication will be exhibited immediately thereafter when vehicular traffic shall not enter the intersection.
- b. Pedestrians facing a steady yellow signal, unless otherwise directed by a pedestrian control signal as provided in section 16-127, are thereby advised that there is insufficient time to cross the roadway before a red indication is shown and no pedestrian shall then start to cross the roadway.

(3) Red indication:

- a. Vehicular traffic facing a steady red signal alone shall stop at a clearly marked stop line; but if none, before entering the crosswalk on the near side of the intersection; or if none, then before entering the intersection, and shall remain standing until an indication to proceed is shown except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c) of this subsection.
- b. The driver of a vehicle which is stopped as close as practicable at the entrance to the crosswalk on the near side of the intersection or, if there is no crosswalk, then at the entrance to the intersection, in obedience to a red signal may make a right turn, but shall yield the right-of-way to pedestrians and other traffic proceeding as directed by the signal. Right turns may be prohibited against a red signal at any intersection when a sign is erected at the intersection prohibiting such turn.

- c. The driver of a vehicle on a one-way street which intersects another one-way street on which traffic moves to the left shall stop in obedience to a red signal, but may then make a left turn into such one-way street, but shall yield the right-of-way to pedestrians and other traffic proceeding as directed by the signal at the intersection, except that any such left turn as above described may be prohibited when a sign is erected at such intersection giving notice thereof.
- d. Unless otherwise directed by a pedestrian control signal as provided in section 16-127, pedestrians facing a steady red signal alone shall not enter the roadway.

(b) If an official traffic control signal is erected and maintained at a place other than an intersection, the provisions of this section shall be applicable except as to those provisions which by their nature can have no application. Any stop required shall be made at a sign or marking on the pavement indicating where the stop shall be made, but in the absence of a sign or marking the stop shall be made at the signal.

Cross reference—Pedestrians' rights and duties, §§ 16-281—16-287.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-123, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-123, 1-1-2014)

Sec. 16-124. Flashing signals.

When an illuminated flashing red or yellow signal is used in a traffic sign or signal, it shall require obedience by vehicular traffic as follows:

- (1) Flashing red stop signal. When a red lens is illuminated with rapid intermittent flashes, drivers of vehicles shall stop before entering the nearest crosswalk at an intersection or at a limit line when marked or if none, then before entering the intersection, and the right to proceed shall be subject to the rules applicable after making a stop at a stop sign.

- (2) Flashing yellow caution signal. When a yellow lens is illuminated with rapid intermittent flashes, drivers of vehicles may proceed through the intersection or past the signal only with caution.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-124, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-124, 1-1-2014)

Sec. 16-125. Stop signs and yield signs.

(a) Council's authority to place. The council or a Community agency designated by council, with reference to Community highways, may designate through highways and erect stop or yield signs at specified entrances thereto or may designate any intersection as a stop or yield intersection and erect like signs at one or more entrances to the intersection.

(b) Specifications. Every stop sign shall bear the word "stop" in letters not less than six inches in height. Every yield sign shall bear the word "yield" in letters not less than three inches in height. The sign shall at nighttime be rendered luminous by steady or flashing internal illumination or by efficient reflecting elements on the face of the sign.

(c) Placement. Every stop sign and every yield sign shall be erected as near as practicable to the nearest line of the crosswalk, then as close as practicable to the nearest line of the intersecting roadway.

(d) Obedience to stop sign. Every driver of a vehicle approaching a stop sign shall stop before entering the crosswalk on the near side of the intersection or, in the event there is no crosswalk, shall stop at a clearly marked stop line, but if none, then at the point nearest the intersection roadway where the driver has a view of approaching traffic on the intersecting roadway before entering the intersection except when directed to proceed by a police officer or traffic-control signal.

(e) Obedience to yield sign. The driver of a vehicle approaching a yield sign shall, in obedience to such sign, slow down to a speed reasonable for the existing conditions and shall yield the right-of-way to any vehicle in the intersection or approaching on another highway so closely as to constitute an immediate hazard during the time such driver is moving across or within the intersection, provided that if such driver is involved in a collision with a vehicle in the intersection, after driving past a yield sign without stopping, such collision shall be deemed prima facie evidence of the driver's failure to yield the right-of-way. (Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-125, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-125, 1-1-2014)

A person shall not drive to the left side of the center of the roadway in overtaking and passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction unless the left side is clearly visible and is free of oncoming traffic for a sufficient distance ahead to permit the overtaking and passing to be completely made without interfering with the safe operation of any vehicle approaching from the opposite direction or any vehicle overtaken. The overtaking vehicle must return to the right-hand side of the roadway before coming within 100 feet of any vehicle approaching from the opposite direction.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-177, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-177, 1-1-2014)

Sec. 16-178. When driving on the left prohibited.

(a) A person shall not drive the vehicle to the left of the center of the roadway under the following conditions:

- (1) When approaching the crest of a grade or upon a curve in the highway where the driver's view is obstructed within such distance as to create a hazard in the event another vehicle might approach from the opposite direction.
- (2) When approaching within 100 feet of or traversing any intersection or where appropriate signs or markings have been installed to define a no-passing zone.
- (3) When the view is obstructed upon approaching within 100 feet of any bridge, viaduct or tunnel.

(b) The limitations set forth in subsection (a) of this section shall not apply upon a one-way roadway.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-178, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-178, 1-1-2014)

Sec. 16-179. Overtaking on the right.

(a) The driver of a vehicle may overtake and pass upon the right of another vehicle only under the following conditions:

- (1) When the vehicle overtaken is making or about to make a left turn.
- (2) Upon a street or highway with unobstructed pavement not occupied by parked vehicles of sufficient width for two or more lines of moving vehicles in each direction.
- (3) Upon a one-way street, or upon any roadway on which traffic is restricted to one direction of movement, where the roadway is free from obstructions and of sufficient width for two or more lines of moving vehicles.

(b) The driver of a vehicle may overtake and pass another vehicle upon the right only under conditions permitting the movement in safety. In no event shall the movement be made by driving off the pavement or main-traveled portion of the roadway.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-179, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-179, 1-1-2014)

Sec. 16-180. No passing zones.

Those portions of any highway where overtaking and passing or driving to the left of the roadway would be especially hazardous and may, by appropriate signs or markings on the roadway, indicate the beginning and end of such zones; and when the signs or markings are in place and clearly visible to an ordinary observant person, every driver of a vehicle shall obey the directions thereof.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-180, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-180, 1-1-2014)

If a person stops, parks, or leaves standing a vehicle, the person shall leave an unobstructed width of the highway opposite a standing vehicle for the free passage of other vehicles and a clear view of the vehicle shall be available from a distance of 200 feet in each direction of the highway.

(b) This section shall not apply to:

- (1) The driver of any vehicle which is disabled while on the paved or main-traveled portion of a highway in such manner and

DIVISION 4. SPEED RESTRICTIONS

Sec. 16-211. Reserved.

Sec. 16-212. Maximum speed limit.

(a) Maximum speed. No maximum speed limit on any highway in this Community shall be in excess of 65 miles per hour except as established pursuant to any other provision of law. This shall not be construed as altering any existing maximum speed limit which is less than 65 miles per hour or to prevent the Community from establishing, altering or lowering any maximum speed limit which is less than 65 miles per hour within the Community.

(b) Four or more lanes of traffic. The speed limit for all types of motor vehicles shall be 65 miles per hour on any portion of any highway that has four or more traffic lanes, the opposing lanes of which are physically separated other than by striping, unless otherwise provided by action of the Community.

(c) Prohibition. It is unlawful for any person to drive a motor vehicle at a speed in excess of 65 miles per hour, or in excess of a higher maximum speed if changed as set forth under subsection (b) of this section.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-212, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-212, 1-1-2014)

Sec. 16-213. Minimum speed limit.

(a) Impeding traffic. No person shall drive a motor vehicle at such a slow speed as to impede or block the normal and reasonable movement of traffic except when reduced speed is necessary for safe operation or in compliance with law or if the reasonable flow of traffic exceeds the maximum safe operating speed of the lawfully operated implement of husbandry.

(b) Determining minimum speed. Whenever the Community determines on the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation that slow speeds on any part of a highway consistently impede the normal and reasonable movement of traffic, the Community may determine and declare a minimum speed limit below which no person shall drive a vehicle except when necessary for safe operation or in compliance with law.

(c) Enforcement. Police officers are authorized to enforce this section by directions to drivers, and in the event of apparent willful disobedience to this section and refusal to comply with the direction of an officer in accordance with this section, the continued slow operation by a driver is a criminal offense.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-213, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-213, 1-1-2014)

Sec. 16-214. Speed limits for motor-driven cycles and ATV's.

No person shall operate any motor-driven cycle or all-terrain vehicle at any time mentioned in 16-71 at a speed greater than 25 miles per hour unless such motor-driven cycle or all-terrain vehicle is equipped with a head lamp or lamps which are adequate to reveal a person or vehicle at a distance of 300 feet ahead.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-214, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-214, 1-1-2014)

Sec. 16-215. Speeds to be reasonable and prudent.

(a) No person shall drive a vehicle on a highway at a speed greater than is reasonable and prudent under the circumstances, conditions and actual and potential hazards then existing. In every event, speed shall be so controlled as may be necessary to avoid colliding with any person, vehicle or other conveyance on or entering the highway in compliance with legal requirements and the duty of all persons to exercise reasonable care for the protection of others.

(b) Except as provided in subsections (c) and (d) of this section or where a special hazard requires a lesser speed, any speed in excess of these speeds shall be prima facie evidence that the speed is too great and therefore unreasonable and unlawful as follows:

- (1) Fifteen miles per hour approaching school crossing.
- (2) Twenty-five miles per hour in any residential area.
- (3) Forty-five miles per hour in other locations.

(c) The maximum lawful speed as provided in this section shall be reduced to that which is reasonable and prudent under the conditions and having regard to the actual and potential hazards then existing, such as when:

- (1) Approaching and crossing an intersection.
- (2) Approaching and going around a curve.
- (3) Approaching a hill crest.
- (4) Traveling upon any narrow or winding roadway.
- (5) Special hazards exist with respect to pedestrians or other traffic or by reason of weather or highway conditions.

(d) No person shall drive a motor vehicle at a speed that is less than that which is reasonable and prudent under existing conditions.

(e) The maximum speed limits set forth in this section may be altered as authorized in sections 16-218 and 16-219.

(f) The prima facie speed limits set forth in this section may be altered as authorized in section 16-218.

(g) The driver of every vehicle shall, consistent with the requirements of subsection (a) of this section, drive at an appropriate reduced speed when approaching and crossing an intersection, when approaching and going around a curve, when approaching a hill crest, when traveling upon any narrow or winding roadway, and when special hazards exist with respect to pedestrians or other traffic or by reason of weather or highway conditions.

(h) If the person exceeds the posted speed limit by more than 20 miles per hour, the violation is a criminal offense.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-215, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-215, 1-1-2014)

Sec. 16-216. Speed restriction on bridges and elevated structures.

(a) Maximum speed. No person shall drive a vehicle over any bridge or other elevated structure constituting a part of a highway at a speed which is greater than the maximum speed which can be maintained with safety to the bridge or structure, when the structure is signposted as provided in this section.

(b) Investigation. The council upon request from any local agency shall, or upon its own initiative may, conduct an investigation of any bridge or other elevated structure constituting a part of a highway; and if it thereupon finds that the structure cannot safely withstand vehicles traveling at the speed otherwise permissible under this article, the council shall determine and declare the maximum speed of vehicles which the structure can withstand, and shall cause or permit suitable signs stating such maximum speed to be erected and maintained at a distance of 300 feet before each end of the structure.

(c) Evidence. Upon the trial of any person charged with a violation of this section, proof of determination of the maximum speed by the council and the existence of the signs shall constitute conclusive evidence of the maximum speed which can be maintained with safety on the bridge or structure.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-216, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-216, 1-1-2014)

Sec. 16-218. Establishment and amendment of speed limits.

When the council or a Community agency designated by council determines upon the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation that any prima facie speed set forth in this article is greater or less than is reasonable or safe under the conditions found to exist at any intersection or other place or upon any part of a Community highway, the council may determine and declare a reasonable and safe prima facie speed limit which shall be effective at such times as may be determined when appropriate signs giving notice thereof are erected at the intersection or other place or part of the highway.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-218, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-218, 1-1-2014)

Sec. 16-219. Speed limits on freeways authorized to be variable.

When the council determines upon the basis of an engineering and traffic survey that the safe and orderly movement of traffic upon any highway which is a freeway will be facilitated by the establishment of variable speed limits, the council may erect, regulate and control signs upon the highway which is a freeway, or any portion thereof, which sign shall be so designed as to permit display of different speed limits at various times of the day or night. Such signs shall be of sufficient size and clarity to give adequate notice of the applicable speed limit. The speed limit upon the freeway at a particular time and place shall be that which is then and there displayed upon such sign.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-219, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-219, 1-1-2014)

A violation of this section is a criminal offense.

(b) First offense. A person who violates this section shall be punished upon a first conviction by imprisonment for not more than 90 days, by a fine of not more than $300.00, or both.

(c) Second and subsequent offenses. When a second or subsequent violation is committed within a period of 24 months, upon conviction, such person shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than ten days nor more than six months, and in the discretion of the court, by a fine of not less than $150.00 nor more than $300.00, or both. No judge may grant probation to or suspend the imposition of a jail sentence of any person for such a second or subsequent conviction.

(d) Suspension of driving privileges. When any person is convicted of a violation of the provisions of this section, the judge may, upon a first conviction, and shall upon a second or subsequent conviction for an offense committed within a period of 24 months require the surrender to court of any driver license of such person and immediately forward same to the police department with the abstract of conviction. The judge may upon a first conviction and shall upon a subsequent conviction for an offense committed within a period of 24 months order the suspension of the driving privileges in the Community of such person for a period not to exceed 90 days.

(e) Community authorized races. The Community may give authorization in writing for any organized and properly controlled event otherwise prohibited by this section to utilize a highway or part of a highway to be utilized, and any special conditions the Community may require for the particular event.
(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-220, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-220, 1-1-2014)

Sec. 16-221. Driving at speed which causes trailer to sway.

No person shall drive a vehicle towing a trailer or semitrailer at a rate of speed which causes the trailer or semitrailer to sway laterally from the line of traffic or fishtail.
(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-221, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-221, 1-1-2014)

Sec. 16-222. Charge of violation to specify alleged speed of violator; speed limit not to relieve plaintiff of proving negligence.

(a) Citation. In every charge of violation of any speed regulation in this article, the complaint or the citation shall specify the speed at which the driver is alleged to have driven and the prima facie speed applicable or at the location.

(b) Burden of proof. The provisions of this article declaring maximum speed limitations shall not be construed to relieve the plaintiff in any civil action from the burden of proving negligence on the part of the defendant as the proximate cause of an accident.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-222, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-222, 1-1-2014)

- (1) While under the influence of any intoxicating liquor, or under the influence of any drug, a vapor releasing substance containing any toxic substance, or any combination of liquor, drugs, or vapor releasing substances containing any toxic substance causing the person to be impaired to the slightest degree; or
- (2) If the person has an alcohol concentration of 0.08 or more within two hours of driving or being in actual physical control of the vehicle and the alcohol concentration results from alcohol consumed either before or while driving or being in actual physical control of the vehicle; or
- (3) While there is any drug defined in section 6-121 or its metabolite in the person's body.

(b) Unlawful to drive or be in actual physical control of the vehicle while under the extreme influence of intoxicating liquor ("extreme DUI"). It is a criminal offense for a person to drive or be in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within the exterior boundaries of the Community if the person has an alcohol concentration of 0.20 or more within two hours of driving or being in actual physical control of the vehicle and the alcohol concentration results from alcohol consumed either before or while driving or being in actual physical control of the vehicle.

(c) Unlawful to refuse to submit to a chemical test ("refusal"). It is a civil offense for a person who, pursuant to an investigation for a violation of section 16-231(a) or (b), has been informed by a law enforcement officer that reasonable grounds exist to believe that the person was driving or in actual physical control of the vehicle within the exterior boundaries of the Community in violation of section 16-231(a) or (b), to refuse to submit to a chemical test as required under section 16-232.

(d) Prescribed drugs. It is not a defense to a charge of a violation of section 16-231(a)(1) that the person is or has been entitled to use the drug under the laws of the Community or pursuant to a valid prescription. If the person has a valid prescription issued by a licensed medical practitioner, the person does not violate section 16-231(a)(3).

(e) Filing of offense. Offenses in this section may be filed in the form of a juvenile petition, a criminal complaint, or a citation except as may be otherwise required. In any case in which the Community seeks sentencing pursuant to section 16-231(f)(2)—(5), the allegations of the necessary factors shall be alleged within 45 days of the filing of a criminal offense.

The court may impose probation up to three years, but any sentence that is imposed shall include at least three but not more than five days of incarceration which shall not be deleted, deferred, or suspended. Any part of a sentence that is otherwise suspended shall be contingent upon the defendant complying with section 16-231(j) and (k).

Sec. 16-232. Implied consent; tests; refusal to submit.

(a) Implied consent. Any person who operates a motor vehicle within the Community gives consent, subject to the provisions of the following section to a test or tests of the person's blood, breath or urine, or other bodily substance for the purpose of determining alcoholic concentration or drug content, if arrested for any offense arising out of acts alleged to have been committed while the person was driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of drugs or intoxicating liquor. The test or tests chosen by the law enforcement agency shall be administered at the direction of a law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the highways of the Community while under the influence of drugs or intoxicating liquor.

(b) Tests. After an arrest, a violator shall submit to and successfully complete any test or tests prescribed by subsection (a) of this section. If the violator refuses to submit, the violator shall be informed that reasonable grounds exist to believe that the person was driving or in actual physical control of a vehicle in violation of section 16-231(a) or (b), and that refusal to submit to a chemical test shall result in the violation of section 16-231(c) and that the person shall be subject to all applicable penalties under section 16-231(h) unless the violator subsequently expressly agrees to submit to and successfully completes the test or tests. A failure to expressly agree to the test or successfully complete the test is deemed a refusal.

(c) Refusal to submit to test.

- (1) If a person under arrest refuses to submit to a chemical test as provided in subsection (a) of this section, none shall be given unless a police officer secures a search warrant from a tribal, state, or federal judge who has jurisdiction over the matter. - (2) Persons incapable of refusal. Any person who is dead, unconscious or who is otherwise in a condition rendering him or her incapable of refusal shall be deemed not to have withdrawn the consent provided by subsection (a) of this section and the test or tests may be administered, subject to the provisions of section 16-233.
- (3) Refusal does not preclude issuance of a search warrant. The fact that a violator has refused to submit to a chemical test as provided in subsection (a) of this section shall not preclude a judge of the Salt River Community Court from approving a search warrant for blood or other bodily fluid in order to secure evidence of a possible violation of section 16-231(a) or 16-231(b) of this chapter, provided that the judge is satisfied that probable cause exists that there has been a violation of said subsection.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-232, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-232, 1-1-2014; Ord. No. SRO-530-2021, 1-27-2021)

- (1) If there was at that time 0.05 percent or less by weight of alcohol in the defendant's blood, it shall be presumed that the defendant was not under the influence of intoxicating liquor.
- (2) If there was at that time in excess of 0.05 percent but less than 0.08 percent by weight of alcohol in the defendant's blood, such fact shall not give rise to any presumption that the defendant was or was not under the influence of intoxicating liquor, but such fact may be considered with other competent evidence in determining the guilt or innocence of the defendant.
- (3) If there was at that time 0.08 percent or more by weight of alcohol in the defendant's blood, it shall be presumed that the defendant was under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

(b) Basis for measurements. Percent by weight of alcohol in the blood shall be based upon milligrams of alcohol per 100 cubic centimeters of blood.

(c) When test is considered valid. Chemical analysis of the person's blood, urine, breath or other bodily substance to be considered valid under the provisions of this section shall have been performed according to methods approved by the Arizona State Department of Public Safety and by a person possessing a valid permit issued by the Arizona State Department of Public Safety for such purpose.

(d) Persons qualified to administer test. When a person shall submit to a blood or urine test under the provisions of the preceding section, only a physician or a registered nurse, phlebotomist or other persons who have received training in drawing blood or collection of urine, may withdraw blood or take the urine specimen for the purpose of determining the alcoholic content therein. Such limitation shall not apply to taking of breath specimens.

The failure or inability to obtain an additional test by a person shall not preclude the admission of evidence relating to the test or tests taken at the direction of a law enforcement officer.

(f) Results to be made available to person tested. Upon the request of the person who shall submit to a chemical test or tests, full information concerning the test or tests shall be made available to him or her or his or her attorney or advocate. If a defendant is charged with the offense of driving while under the influence, the Community shall disclose to the defendant, any motor vehicle department records that the Community intends to use at trial, name and contact information of custodian of records if any, Quality Assurance Scan ("QAS") logs, Intoxilyzer checklist. If blood or urine was analyzed, the Community shall disclose the results of any chemical tests and the testing method used to analyze the blood or urine specimen.

(g) Preliminary breath test. A police officer who has reasonable suspicion to believe that a person has committed a violation of section 16-231(a) or (b) may request that the person submit to a preliminary breath test or breath tests before an arrest. Information from a preliminary breath test(s) shall be admissible to show the presence of alcohol but the blood alcohol concentration results of the preliminary breath test(s) shall not be admissible in the defendant's criminal trial.

(b) Consolidation. Civil and criminal traffic offenses based on the same conduct or otherwise related in their commission may be consolidated at any point in the proceedings on motion of a party or on the court's own motion. At the trial of any consolidated case, the rules governing the criminal offense shall apply, except that the civil offenses shall be tried to the court. The consolidated trial shall not change the applicable burden of proof for the civil or the criminal offense.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-265, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-265, 1-1-2014)

DIVISION 2. RULES OF PROCEDURE FOR CRIMINAL TRAFFIC OFFENSES

Sec. 16-266. Applicability of rules of criminal procedure for criminal traffic cases.

The rules of criminal procedure for the Community shall apply to all aspects of the criminal traffic offense, unless specifically described in this chapter. Criminal offenses alleged to have been committed under this chapter may be brought by the issuance of a traffic citation without bearing the prosecutor's signature, or by the submittal of a criminal complaint.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-266, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-266, 1-1-2014)

Sec. 16-267. Procedure for issuance of citation when officer completes personal service.

(a) Filing of the citation. When a law enforcement officer of the Community alleges a criminal offense arising under this chapter and issues a citation in person, whether that person is arrested or not, the officer shall immediately provide the cited person a copy of that citation, and shall promptly submit the citation to the Community prosecutor and the police department's designated agent for prompt filing with the Community court.

(b) Time for appearance. For any criminal offense arising under this chapter, where the person is issued a citation in person and not arrested, the citation shall require the appearance of the cited person at the Community court for an arraignment, at a time at least ten) and no more than 30 days after the alleged offense occurred. The citation shall advise the cited person of the court date and time of the arraignment, and address of the court. Arraignment shall not be set on weekends or any Community holiday. Should any citation direct a cited person to appear on a weekend or Community holiday, the court shall reset the date and notify the cited person of a new date and time. The cited person shall be required to sign the citation which includes the notice of the time to appear. If the person refuses to sign the notice to appear, the officer may make an arrest without a warrant. This provision does not alter the officer's legal authority to make an arrest without a warrant pursuant to any other provision of the Community Code of Ordinances.

(c) Arrested persons. When an officer makes an arrest without a warrant, the citation accompanied by a sworn probable cause statement by the officer, shall be submitted to the court, and the court shall make a determination of probable cause. The citation will serve as the complaint.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-267, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-267, 1-1-2014)

Sec. 16-268. Procedure for issuance of citation not served in person.

In the event that the officer does not serve the cited person with a citation, the officer may submit the citation, or the requested charges along with the probable cause statement, to the Community prosecutor with a request for charges. The Community prosecutor shall determine if criminal charges should be submitted to the court from the request. The prosecutor may file a citation or a complaint with the court that includes the alleged offenses arising under this chapter. The prosecutor shall also request either a summons or a warrant to secure the appearance of the accused. The court shall refer to the rules of criminal procedure for guidance as to whether a summons or a warrant shall issue.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-268, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-268, 1-1-2014)

DIVISION 3. RULES OF PROCEDURE FOR CIVIL TRAFFIC OFFENSES

Sec. 16-269. Sufficiency and amendment of the complaint.

(a) Sufficiency. No civil traffic citation or complaint shall be deemed insufficient for failure to contain a sufficient statement of essential facts constituting the specific offense which the cited person is alleged to have committed if the citation or the complaint contains either a written description or the code designation of the offense.

(b) Juveniles. For offenses alleged against a juvenile, the citation or the complaint shall include a space that allows the juvenile to provide the name and address of his or her parent or legal guardian.

(c) Amendments. The court may permit a civil traffic citation or the complaint to be amended at any time before judgment if no additional or different offense is charged and if substantial rights of the cited person are not thereby prejudiced.

(d) Conform to evidence. The citation or the complaint may be amended to conform to the evidence adduced at hearing, if no additional or different offense is charged thereby and if substantial rights of the cited person are not thereby prejudiced.

(e) Notice required. If the cited person has convictions or adjudications for a prior offense under this chapter that would expose the person to any additional penalties, the prosecutor shall file a notice of prior adjudications or convictions five business days prior to the cited person's scheduled hearing.

(f) Conflicts. If the judge determines there is a conflict between the written description and the statutory description of a civil offense, the descriptive text shall take precedence unless the substantial rights of the cited person are prejudiced or such action would result in a criminal offense. In the event the judge cannot determine what offense was charged, the judge shall dismiss the offense without prejudice and provide the officer who issued the citation or tribal prosecutor with an opportunity to refile the citation or charging document.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-269, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-269, 1-1-2014)

Sec. 16-270. Representation of parties.

(a) Counsel. Counsel for the cited person shall be permitted consistent with section 4-4 of the Community Code of Ordinances. If counsel has been retained to represent the cited person, counsel shall file an entry of appearance with the Community court and notify the prosecutor of the counsel's appearance. The hearing will be rescheduled if counsel for a cited party fails to notify the Prosecutor at least three business days before the hearing.

(b) Community representation. The Community law enforcement agency may be represented by the prosecutor, but may proceed without the assistance of the prosecutor. At the beginning of any traffic offense hearing, the prosecutor or the law enforcement agent shall advise the court of the representation.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-270, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-270, 1-1-2014)

Sec. 16-271. Initial appearance and entry of plea.

(a) Time and place. The citation shall require the appearance of the cited person at the Community court for an initial appearance, at a time at least ten and no more than 30 days after the alleged offense occurred. The citation shall advise the cited person of the court date and time of the initial appearance, and address of the court. Initial appearances shall not be set on weekends or any Community recognized holiday. If any cited person is ordered to appear on a weekend or Community holiday, the court shall reset the date and notify the cited person of a new date and time.

(b) Entry of plea. The cited person shall enter a plea of responsible or denial at the time of initial appearance to each and every offense in the citation. Failure to enter a plea to any offense shall be entered as an admission to the offense.

(c) Denial of offenses. The cited person may enter a denial to any and all of the offenses in the citation and an informal hearing on any challenged offenses shall be set consistent with section 16-272. When the cited person enters a denial and the matter is set for a hearing, the cited person shall ensure that the court is provided with a valid mailing address for service of any necessary court orders. The court shall advise the person that the duty to update the court for address changes is solely the responsibility of the cited person. In lieu of personal appearance, the cited person may mail in a correspondence denying responsibility for the cited offense and requesting a hearing. A default judgment will not be entered against a person who does not appear at the scheduled initial appearance if the person has mailed in correspondence denying responsibility for the cited offense and requesting a hearing and the correspondence is received by the court before the date of the scheduled initial appearance.

(d) Admission of offenses. The cited person may admit responsibility to any and all of the offenses, and offer any explanation to the court. The court shall consider any explanation of the person and impose a fine as penalty and enter the judgment.

(e) Resolved by payment of fine. When a cited person elects to admit the offense(s) in the citation, the cited person may submit payment to the clerk of the court pursuant to the established disposition schedule at appendix A prior to the initial appearance with the signed admission of responsibility for the offense either in person or by mail. The cited person bears the responsibility of ensuring that payment is received by the court prior to the scheduled initial appearance. Failure to ensure that payment is received by the court subjects the cited person to default judgment as described in subsection (b) of this section. In the event that the cited person submits payment, but such payment is received after the initial appearance, any entry of default shall prevail, but the submitted payment may be applied towards any imposed fine.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-271, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-271, 1-1-2014)

Sec. 16-272. Hearing.

(a) Hearing. If the cited person denies the allegations in the citation at the initial appearance, the matter shall be heard in an informal hearing before a judge of the Community court. The hearing shall be heard no sooner than 15 days and no later than 45 days after the initial appearance. The hearing shall be informal and without a jury. Witnesses may testify in narrative form. The Community shall have the burden of proof and shall prove the civil violation by a preponderance of the evidence. The rules of evidence do not apply, except for provisions relating to privileged communications.

(b) Order of proceedings. The order of proceedings shall be as follows:

- (1) Direct, cross, and re-direct examination of Community's witnesses.
- (2) Direct, cross, and re-direct examination of defense witnesses.
- (3) Direct, cross, and re-direct examination of Community's rebuttal witnesses, if any.
- (4) Argument of the parties or their counsel if permitted by the Court.
- (5) Ruling by the court.

(c) Witnesses. The cited person and the Community may subpoena witnesses, but shall request the court issue subpoenas at least ten days prior to the hearing.

(d) Discovery. No pre-trial discovery shall be permitted absent extraordinary circumstances. Immediately prior to the hearing for the alleged offense, both parties shall produce for inspection any pre-prepared exhibits and written or recorded statements of any witness which may be offered at the hearing. Failure to comply with this rule may result, in the court's discretion, a continuance or recess to permit such inspection, or denying the admission of the evidence not so exchanged.

(e) Continuances. The Community or the cited person may request a continuance for the informal hearing in writing prior to the hearing, or in extraordinary circumstances, by oral motion at the beginning of the hearing. The court may grant a continuance when such a continuance is in the interest of justice, but shall not permit undue delay for the matter to proceed. When a continuance is requested and not granted, the parties are required to appear for the hearing, or may be subject to default consistent with section 16-273. (Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-272, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-272, 1-1-2014)

Sec. 16-273. Outcomes of hearing, payment of fines.

(a) Admissions by cited person. The cited person may enter an admission of responsible to any and all of the offenses at the time of the hearing. After the admission of such offense, the judge shall consider any explanation of those offenses, and impose a fine as penalty.

(b) Contested offenses. For those offenses that the person enters a denial, the judge shall evaluate the evidence presented and determine if the Community has proven the contested allegation by a preponderance of the evidence.

(c) Finding for Community, cited person responsible. For any offense the judge finds in favor of the Community and the cited person is responsible, the judge shall impose a fine as penalty and record the judgment in accordance with disposition schedule at appendix A.

(d) Finding for cited person, not responsible or dismissal of offense. For any offense the judge finds in favor of the cited person, the judge shall enter and record judgment for the person.

(e) Dismissal by Community. The Community may also dismiss any and all alleged offenses in the citation at any time prior to the judge rendering a decision.

(f) Default for Community, cited person's failure to appear. When the court finds that the cited person received proper notice for the hearing and no requested continuance on behalf of the cited person for the hearing has been granted, and the person fails to appear, the court shall find the person responsible for the offenses alleged in the citation and impose a fine as penalty in accordance with disposition schedule at appendix A.

Notice shall be sent within three business days to the cited person at the address on record with the court as to the fine due and the date due.

(g) Default for cited person, Community failure to prosecute. When the court finds that the Community received proper notice for the hearing and no requested continuance on behalf of the Community has been granted, and the Community fails to appear and present evidence to support the alleged offenses in the citation, the court shall find that the Community has failed to prosecute the citation and dismiss the citation in its entirety with prejudice.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-273, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-273, 1-1-2014)

Sec. 16-274. Admissions, not evidence in other matters.

Any admission of an allegation contained in a civil traffic citation or a judgment on the matter shall not be evidence in any negligence-related claim or in any criminal matter.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-274, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-274, 1-1-2014)

Sec. 16-275. Payment of fines.

If a fine has been ordered under this section, the person shall pay the fine within 30 days of either the entry of judgment or the date the judgment is mailed to the cited person, whichever is later. If the payment of fine within 30 days of entry of judgment will create an economic burden on the person, the court may permit the person to make payments in installments. If the person fails to pay the fine imposed for violation of this chapter, the court may order that the driving privilege of the person be suspended after mailing the notice to the person's last known address in addition to other fine collection procedures. The court ordered suspension shall remain in effect until the person satisfies the fine. If the person is cited while their license is suspended pursuant to this chapter, the court may impose double the maximum penalty allowed pursuant to section 16-40.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-275, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-275, 1-1-2014)

DIVISION 4. JUVENILE TRAFFIC OFFENSES PROVISIONS

Sec. 16-276. Juvenile provisions.

For any offense with a criminal penalty arising under this chapter against a juvenile, the matter shall be heard and adjudicated by the juvenile court in accordance with chapter 11 and the delinquency process. Any matter that is subject to the delinquency process shall be transferred to the juvenile court without undue delay, and with proper notice to the juvenile and the parent or legal guardian and Tribal prosecutor's office. For any civil offense against a juvenile arising under this chapter, the matter shall be heard consistent with this chapter, with the following exceptions:

- (1) A court shall not dispose of a civil traffic violation offense arising from the issuance of a traffic citation to a juvenile under 18 years of age unless a parent or guardian of such juvenile appears in court with such juvenile at the time of the disposition of such charge.
- (2) In the event of unusual circumstances preventing the appearance of the parent or guardian, the court may waive the appearance and shall instead send written notice to the parent or guardian, if such be known, advising them of the charge and its disposition.
- (3) When a fine is to be imposed upon a juvenile for a civil traffic offense, and the juvenile does not have the means to pay, the court may impose community service or an educational driving course.
- (4) The court will exercise jurisdiction pursuant to this chapter only over those juveniles for whom it can exercise criminal jurisdiction.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-276, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-276, 1-1-2014)

A pedestrian shall not suddenly leave any curb or other place of safety and walk or run into the path of a vehicle which is so close that it is impossible for the driver to yield. This provision shall not apply under the conditions stated in subsection (b) of this section.

(b) Prohibitions. When any vehicle is stopped at a marked crosswalk or at any unmarked crosswalk at an intersection to permit a pedestrian to cross the roadway, the driver of any other vehicle approaching from the rear shall not overtake and pass the stopped vehicle.

(Ord. No. SRO-417-2013, § 16-281, 2-1-2013; Ord. No. SRO-428-2014, § 16-281, 1-1-2014)

(b) Additional crossings. Additional crossings across highways not abutting school grounds may be approved by the Community upon application of school authorities, with written satisfactory assurance given to the Community that guards will be maintained by the school authorities at the elementary school crossings to enforce the proper use of the crossing by the school children.

The Community shall also provide for the type and working of portable signs indicating that school is in session and permanent signs providing warning of approach to school crossings.

(d) Placement of signs. When such crossings are established, school authorities shall place within the highway the portable signs indicating that school is in session, placed not to exceed 300 feet each side of the school crossings, and "stop when children in crosswalk" signs at school crossings. School authorities shall maintain these signs when school is in session and shall cause them to be removed immediately thereafter.

(e) Speed limit. No vehicle shall proceed at a speed to exceed 15 miles per hour when approaching the crosswalk and while between the portable signs placed on the highway indicating "school in session" and "stop when children in crosswalk."

(d) Exception. This section shall not be construed to deprive a totally or industrially blind person not carrying a white cane or being guided by a dog of the rights and privileges conferred by law upon pedestrians crossing ways, nor shall the failure of a blind person to carry a white cane or be guided by a guide dog while on the ways be held to constitute prima facie evidence of contributory negligence.

The residents and operators of such a facility shall be considered a family for the purposes of any law or zoning ordinance which relates to the residential use of property. The limitation of eight or fewer persons does not include the operator of a resi-

(b) For the purpose of the zoning ordinance, a residential facility which serves eight or fewer persons shall not be included within the definition of any term which implies that the residential facility differs in any way from a single-family residence.

(c) The provisions of this section shall not be construed to forbid the Community from placing restrictions on building heights, setbacks, lot dimensions and placements of signs of a residential facility which serves eight or fewer persons as long as such restrictions are identical to those applied to other single-family residences.

(d) The provisions of this section shall not be construed to forbid the application to a residential facility of any Community law or regulation which deals with health and safety, building standards, environmental impact standards, or any other matter within the jurisdiction of the Community, so long as the law or regulation applies equally to other single-family dwellings and does not distinguish residents of such residential facilities from persons who reside in other single-family dwellings.

(e) No conditional use permit, zoning variance, or other zoning clearance shall be required of a residential facility which serves eight or fewer persons which is not required of other single-family residences in the same zone.

(f) For the purposes of any contract, deed, lease or covenant for the transfer of an interest in real property executed subsequent to the effective date of this section, a residential facility which serves eight or fewer persons shall be considered a residential use of property and a use of property by a single-family, notwithstanding any disclaimers to the contrary.

(g) No residential facility shall be established within a 1,200-foot radius of an existing residential facility in a residential area.

(h) Residential facilities which serve nine or more persons shall be a permitted use in any zone in which residential buildings of similar size, containing rooms or apartments which are provided on a continuing basis for compensation, are a permitted use. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the Community from requiring a conditional use permit in order to maintain a residential facility serving nine or more persons, provided that no conditions shall be imposed on such a facility which are more restrictive than those imposed on other similar dwellings in the same zones.

(i) The provisions of this section shall apply only to residential facilities licensed, operated, supported or supervised by the Community and the establishment of a particular facility shall not create any zoning rights with respect to any subsequent use of the property involved. - (2) Acquire the leasehold interest of a lessee of Community land for the purpose of using such land for roadway and utility corridors and other public purposes.

(Code 1981, § 5-61; Code 2012, § 17-21; Ord. No. SRO-110-88, § 1, 2-17-1988; Ord. No. SRO-125-89, § 1, 7-12-1989; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17-21, 5-30-2012)

(Code 1981, § 5-62; Code 2012, § 17-22; Ord. No. SRO-110-88, § 2, 2-17-1988; Ord. No. SRO-125-89, § 2, 7-12-1989; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17-22, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 17-36. Actions for condemnation; immediate possession; money deposit.

(a) Commencement of action; application for possession. All actions for condemnation shall be brought as other civil actions in the Community court. The action shall be commenced in the name of the Community as plaintiff. The plaintiff may, at the time of filing the complaint, or at any time thereafter, make application to the court for an order permitting it to take possession of and use the property or interest therein sought to be condemned.

(b) Service of notice. Upon filing the application, a time for hearing shall be fixed, and notice thereof served upon the parties in interest by personal service pursuant to section 5-23 or by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in Maricopa County, Arizona, if they cannot be served pursuant to the Community's Rules of Civil Procedure.

(c) Evidence or probable damages. On the day of the hearing the court shall receive evidence as to the probable damages to each owner, possessor or person having an interest in each parcel of land and/or improvements or interests in property sought to be condemned, and may direct that upon a deposit of money or a bond in a form to be approved by the court, the plaintiff shall be let into the possession and full use of the parcels of land and/or improvements or interests in property, as described in the order. In determining the value of a lessee's interest in a leasehold estate the value shall be limited by the more restrictive of:

- (1) The uses allowed under the lease;

- (2) The uses permitted in the zoning of the land subject of the lease in force at the time the application was filed; and shall be further limited to the extent the considerations for the leasehold interest were less than the highest value obtainable as allowed under the provisions of 25 USC 416.

(d) Deposit of money or bond. The money or bond may be deposited with the Community treasurer at the election of the plaintiff and held for the use and benefit of each person having an interest in each parcel of land sought to be condemned, subject to final judgment after trial of the action, and held also as a fund to pay any further damages and costs recovered in the proceedings, as well as all damages sustained by the defendant if for any cause the property is not finally taken. The deposit of the money or bond shall not discharge the plaintiff from liability to maintain the fund in full but it shall remain deposited for all accidents, defalcations or other contingencies, as between the parties to the proceedings, at the risk of the plaintiff, until the compensation or damage is finally settled by judicial determination, and the court awards such part thereof as shall be determined to the defendant or the treasurer is ordered by the court to disburse it.

(e) Investment and disbursement of money or bond. The treasurer shall receive the money or bond and return a receipt therefor to the court and the treasurer shall safely keep such deposit in a special fund to be entered on his or her books as the condemnation fund. The treasurer shall invest and reinvest the monies in the condemnation fund. The treasurer shall disburse the money deposited and, if necessary, convert such investments to cash for the purpose of making such disbursements or forfeit the bond as the court may direct pursuant to its judgment. After satisfaction of the judgment in a condemnation action, the excess, if any, of the deposit made regarding such action, including monies earned by the investment and reinvestment of such deposit, shall be returned by the treasurer to the plaintiff.

(f) Amount of deposit. The parties may stipulate as to the amount of deposit, or for a bond from the plaintiff in lieu of a deposit.

(g) Rights of persons in interest. The parties may stipulate that:

- (1) The plaintiff deposit with the clerk of the court the amount in money for each person in interest which plaintiff's valuation evidence shows to be the probable damages to each person in interest; and
- (2) Upon order of the court each person in interest may withdraw the amount which plaintiff has deposited for his or her interest.

(h) Withdrawal or repayment of funds. No person in interest for whom a deposit has been made, pursuant to stipulation for his or her withdrawal, shall be entitled to interest upon the amount which he or she is allowed to withdraw, but he or she shall be entitled to interest upon that portion of the final judgment, exclusive of costs allowed by the court, which exceeds the amount which is deposited for his or her withdrawal. Should the amount which is withdrawn by any defendant exceed the amount of the final judgment awarded the defendant inclusive of costs allowed by the court, such defendant withdrawing the funds shall forthwith repay the plaintiff such excess, with legal interest, as set by the court, but, not to exceed ten percent, from date of withdrawal to date of repayment.

(i) Use as evidence. No stipulation which is made nor any evidence which is introduced pursuant to this section shall be introduced in evidence or used to the prejudice of any party in interest on the trial for the action.

Sec. 17-439. Acknowledgements of satisfaction; recording; liability for failure to acknowledge satisfaction.

(a) If a mortgagee, trustee or person entitled to payment receives full satisfaction of a mortgage or deed of trust, he or she shall acknowledge satisfaction of the mortgage or deed of trust by delivering to the person making satisfaction or by recording a sufficient release or satisfaction of mortgage or deed of release and reconveyance of the deed of trust, which release, satisfaction of mortgage or deed of release and reconveyance shall contain the docket and page number of the mortgage or deed of trust or acknowledge satisfaction as provided in subsection (c) of this section when applicable. It shall not be necessary for the trustee to join in the acknowledgement or satisfaction of mortgage or deed of release and reconveyance. The recorded release or satisfaction of mortgage or deed of release and reconveyance constitutes conclusive evidence of full or partial satisfaction and release of the mortgage or deed of trust in favor of purchaser and encumbrancers for value and without actual notice.

(b) When a mortgage or deed of trust is satisfied by a release or satisfaction of mortgage or deed of release and reconveyance, except where the record of such deed of trust or mortgage has been destroyed or reduced to microfilm, the real estate and land services section shall not on the margin of the record of the deed of trust or mortgage the book and page where the release is recorded.

(c) If the record of such mortgage or deed of trust has been destroyed and the record thereof reduced to microfilm, it shall be sufficient evidence of satisfaction of any such mortgage or deed of trust for the release or satisfaction of mortgage or deed of release and reconveyance to be recorded and indexed as such. If the person acknowledging satisfaction appears in the office of the real estate and land services section without a release or satisfaction of mortgage or deed of release and reconveyance, the person shall acknowledge satisfaction on a form of instrument provided by the recorder for such purpose, which instrument shall sufficiently identify the mortgage or deed of trust by parties and by book and page of the official records. Such instrument shall be certified to by the real estate and land services section and thereupon shall be treated as a release or satisfaction of mortgage or deed of release and reconveyance and recorded and indexed as such.

(d) If satisfaction is acknowledged by an assignee, the note secured shall be produced and cancelled in the presence of the real estate and land services section, who shall enter that fact on the margin of the record. If the record of such mortgage or deed of trust has been destroyed and the record thereof reduced to microfilm, the real estate and land services section shall reduce such production and cancellation of note to a written and signed statement which shall thereafter be recorded and indexed as releases, satisfactions of mortgage and deeds of release and reconveyance are recorded and indexed. If the note secured by a mortgage or deed of trust has been lost or destroyed, the assignee, mortgagee or beneficiary shall, before acknowledging satisfaction, make an affidavit that he or she is the lawful owner of the note and that it has been paid, but cannot be produced for the reason that it has been lost or destroyed, and the affidavit shall be entered on the face or margin of the record or appended thereto. If the record of such mortgage or deed of trust has been destroyed and the record thereof reduced to microfilm, such affidavit shall be recorded and indexed as releases, satisfactions of mortgage and deeds of release and reconveyance are recorded and indexed and shall have the same force and effect as a release or satisfaction of a mortgage or deed of release and reconveyance as provided in subsection (a) of this section.

(e) If a release or satisfaction of mortgage or deed of release and reconveyance of deed of trust, which, according to its terms, recites that it secures an obligation having a stated indebtedness not greater than $500,000.00 exclusive of interest, has not been executed and recorded pursuant to subsection (a) or (c) of this section within 60 days of satisfaction of the obligation secured by such mortgage or deed of trust, then a title insurer may prepare, execute and record a release or satisfaction of mortgage or deed of release and reconveyance of deed of trust. However, at least 30 days prior to the issuance and recording of any such release or satisfaction of mortgage or deed of release and reconveyance pursuant to this subsection, the title insurer shall mail, by certified mail with postage prepaid, return receipt requested, to the mortgagee of record or to the trustee and beneficiary of record and their respective successors in interest of record at their last known address shown of record and to any persons who, according to the records of the

(g) A release or satisfaction of mortgage or deed of release and reconveyance of deed of trust issued pursuant to subsection (e) of this section shall be entitled to recordation and, when recorded, shall constitute a release or satisfaction of mortgage or deed of release and reconveyance of deed of trust issued pursuant to subsection (a) or (c) of this section.

(h) Where an obligation secured by a deed of trust or mortgage was paid in full prior to the effective date of this section, and no release or satisfaction of mortgage or deed of release and reconveyance of deed of trust has been issued and recorded within 60 days of the effective date of this section, a release or satisfaction of mortgage or deed of release and reconveyance of deed of trust, as provided for in subsection (e) of this section, may be prepared and recorded.

(i) A release or satisfaction of mortgage or a release and reconveyance of deed of trust by a title insurer under the provisions of subsection (e) of this section shall not constitute a defense nor release any person from compliance with subsections (a) through (d) of this section.

(j) In addition to any other remedy provided by law, a title insurer preparing or recording the release and satisfaction of mortgage or the release and reconveyance of deed of trust pursuant to this section shall be liable to any party for actual damage, including attorneys' fees, which any person may sustain by reason of the issuance and recording of the release and satisfaction of mortgage or release and reconveyance of deed of trust.

(l) The title insurer may charge a reasonable fee to the owner of the land or other person requesting a release and satisfaction of mortgage or release and reconveyance of deed of trust, including, but not limited to, search of title, document preparation and mailing services rendered, and may, in addition, collect official fees.

(m) An attorney-in-fact to whom the money due on a mortgage or deed of trust is paid may execute the release provided for in this division within this Community Code of Ordinances. Such acknowledgment of satisfaction or deed of release, duly acknowledged and recorded, releases the mortgage or deed of trust and reinvests in the mortgagor or person who executed the deed of trust, or his or her legal representatives, all title to the property affected by the mortgage or deed of trust.

(n) The executor or administrator of a mortgagee or of the holder or owner of an indebtedness secured by a mortgage or deed of trust shall, if the indebtedness was paid to the decedent in his or her lifetime, acknowledge satisfaction thereof on the margin of the record of the mortgage or deed of trust, or deliver to such person a sufficient release, satisfaction of mortgage or deed of release of the mortgage or deed of trust or acknowledge satisfaction, as provided in subsection (c) of this section. If the executor or administrator, upon proof to him or her of the payment of the indebtedness to his or her decedent, does not, within 30 days, acknowledge satisfaction in the margin of the record or deliver to the person owning the property a sufficient release, satisfaction of mortgage or deed of release, or acknowledge satisfaction, as provided in subsection (c) of this section, he or she shall personally forfeit to the party aggrieved $100.00 and be personally liable for the damages thereby sustained. The executor or administrator shall not be liable to the estate of which he or she is executor or administrator for any indebtedness by mortgage or deed of trust release by him or her in accordance with this section.

(o) Liability for failure to acknowledge satisfaction.

- (1) If any person receiving satisfaction of a mortgage or deed of trust shall, within 30 days, fail to record or cause to be recorded, with the recorder or real estate and land services section, a sufficient release, satisfaction of mortgage or deed of release or acknowledge satisfaction, he or she shall be liable to the mortgagor, trustor or current property owner for actual damages occasioned by the neglect or refusal.
- (2) If, after the expiration of the time provided in subsection (o)(1) of this section, the person fails to record or cause to be recorded a sufficient release and continues to do so for more than 30 days after receiving a written request which identifies a certain mortgage or deed of trust by certified mail from the mortgagor, trustor, current property owner or his or her agent, he or she shall be liable to the mortgagor, trustor or current property owner for $1,000.00, in addition to any actual damage occasioned by the neglect or refusal.
- (3) Any action to enforce the provisions of this section, including any action to recover amounts due under this section, shall be brought and maintained in the individual names of, and shall be prosecuted by, persons entitled to recover under the terms thereof, and not in a representative capacity or otherwise.

(Code 1981, § 17-205; Code 2012, § 17-205; Ord. No. SRO-198-95, § I(E), 5-3-1995; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17-205, 5-30-2012)

The attorney or agent for the trustee may conduct the sale and act at such sale as the auctioneer for the trustee. Any person, including the trustee or beneficiary, may bid at the sale. Only the beneficiary may make a credit bid, in lieu of cash, at such sale. The trustee shall require every bidder, except the beneficiary, to provide a $1,000.00 deposit, in a form satisfactory to the trustee, as a condition of entering a bid. Every bid shall be deemed an irrevocable offer until the sale is completed, except that a subsequent bid by the same bidder for a higher amount shall cancel that bidder's lower bid. To determine the highest price bid, the trustor or beneficiary present at the sale may recommend the manner in which the known lots, parcels or divisions of the trust property be sold. The trustee shall conditionally sell the trust property under each recommendation, and, in addition thereto, shall conditionally sell the trust property as a whole. The trustee shall determine which conditional sale or sales result in the highest total price bid for all of the trust property. The trustee shall return deposits to all but the bidder or bidders whose bid or bids result in the highest bid price. The sale shall not be deemed completed until the purchaser pays the price bid in a form satisfactory to the trustee.

(b) The person conducting the sale may, for any cause deemed in the interest of the beneficiary or trustor, or both, postpone or continue the sale from time-to-time, or change the place of the sale to any other location authorized pursuant to this chapter by giving notice of the new date, time and place by public declaration at the time and place last appointed for the sale. Any new sale date shall be a fixed date within 90 calendar days of the date of the declaration. No other notice of the postponed, continued or relocated sale is required, except as provided in subsection (c) of this section.

(c) A sale shall not be complete if the sale as held is contrary to, or in violation of, any federal statute in effect because of an unknown or undisclosed bankruptcy. A sale so held shall be deemed to be continued to a date, time and place announced by the trustee at the sale and shall comply with subsection (b) of this section or, if not announced, shall be continued to the same place and at the same time 30 days later, unless the thirtieth day falls on a Saturday, Sunday or other legal holiday, in which event it shall be continued to the first business day thereafter. In the event a sale is continued because of an unknown or undisclosed bankruptcy, the trustee shall notify, by registered or certified mail with postage prepaid, all bidders who provide their names, addresses and telephone numbers in writing to the party conducting the sale of the continuation of the sale. (Code 1981, § 17-231; Code 2012, § 17-231; Ord. No. SRO-198-95, § II(K), 5-3-1995; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17-231, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 17-479. Payment of bid; deliverance of deed.

(a) The purchaser at the sale, other than the beneficiary to the extent of his or her credit bid, shall pay the price bid by no later than 5:00 p.m. of the following day, other than a Saturday or legal holiday. If the purchaser fails to pay the amount bid by him or her for the property struck off to him or her at the sale, the trustee, in his or her sole discretion, shall either continue the sale to reopen bidding or immediately offer the trust property to the second highest bidder, who shall purchase the trust property at his or her bid price. The deposit of the purchaser who fails to pay the amount bid by him or her shall be forfeited, and shall be treated as additional sale proceeds to be applied in accordance with subsection 17-480(a). If the second highest bidder does not pay his or her bid price by 5:00 p.m. of the next day, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and other legal holidays, after the property has been offered to him or her by the trustee, the trustee shall either continue the sale to reopen bidding or offer the trust property to each of the prior bidders on successive days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and other legal holidays, in order of their highest bid, until a bid price is paid, or, if there is no other bidder, the sale shall be deemed to be continued to a time and place designated by the trustee. If the sale is continued, the trustee shall provide notice of the continuation of the sale by registered and certified mail, with postage prepaid, to all bidders who provide their names, addresses and telephone numbers in writing to the party conducting the sale. In addition to the forfeit of his or her deposit, a purchaser who fails to pay the amount bid by him or her is liable to any person who suffers loss or expenses as a result, including attorney's fees. In any subsequent sale of trust property, the trustee may reject any bid of that person.

(b) The price bid shall be paid at the office of the trustee or his or her agent, or any other reasonable place designated by the trustee. The payment of the bid price may be made at a later time if agreed upon in writing by the trustee. Upon receipt of payment, in a form satisfactory to the trustee, the trustee shall execute and deliver his or her deed to the purchaser. The trustee's deed shall raise the presumption of compliance with the requirements of the deed of trust and this division within this Community Code of Ordinances relating to the exercise of the power of sale and the sale of the trust property, including recording, mailing, publishing and posting of notice of sale and the conduct of the sale. Such deed shall constitute conclusive evidence of the meeting of such requirements in favor of purchasers or encumbrances for value and without actual notice. Knowledge of the trustee shall not be imputed to the beneficiary.

(c) The trustee's deed shall operate to convey to the purchaser the title, interest and claim of the trustee, the trustor, the beneficiary, their respective successors in interest and of all persons claiming the trust property sold by or through them, including all interest or claim in the trust property acquired subsequent to the recording of the deed of trust and prior to delivery of the trustee's deed. Such conveyance shall be absolute, without right to redemption and clear of all liens, claims or interests having a priority subordinate to the deed of trust.

Sec. 17-480. Disposition of proceeds of sale.

(a) The trustee shall apply the proceeds of the trustee's sale as follows:

- (1) To the costs and expenses of exercising the power of sale and of sale, including the payment of the trustee's fees and reasonable attorney's fees actually incurred.
- (2) To the payment of the contract or contracts secured by the trust deed.
- (3) To the payment of all other obligations provided in or secured by the trust deed.
- (4) To the junior lienholds or encumbrances in order of their priority. After payment in full to all junior lienholders and encumbrancers, payment shall be made to the trustor.

(b) The trustee may, in his or her discretion, instead of any one or more of the applications specified in subsection (a) of this section, elect to deposit the balance of such proceeds with the clerk of the Community court. Upon deposit of the balance of such monies, the trustee shall be discharged from all responsibility for acts performed in good faith according to the provisions of this article, and the clerk shall deposit the amount with the Community treasurer subject to order of the Community court upon the application, by civil action, of any interested party. (Code 1981, § 17-233; Code 2012, § 17-233; Ord. No. SRO-198-95, § II(M), 5-3-1995; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17-233, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 17-481. Default in performance of contract secured; reinstatement; cancellation of recorded notice of sale.

(a) If, prior to the maturity date fixed by the contract or contracts, all or a portion of a principal sum or interest of the contract or contracts secured by a trust deed becomes due or is declared due by reason of a breach or default in the performance of the contract or contracts or of the trust deed, the trustor or his or her successor in interest, any person having a subordinate lien or encumbrance of record thereon, or any beneficiary under a subordinate trust deed may, subject to section 17-475, before 5:00 p.m. on the last day other than a Saturday, Sunday or other legal holiday before the date of sale or the filing of an action to foreclose the trust deed, reinstate by paying to the beneficiary, the trustee or the trustee's agent, in a form acceptable to the beneficiary or the trustee, the entire amount then due under the terms of the contract or contracts or trust deed, other than such portion of the principal as would not then be due had no default occurred, by curing all other defaults and by paying the amounts due under subsection (b) of this section.

(b) The beneficiary shall notify the trustee of the performance and the name of the person who performed such conditions. The proceedings shall be dismissed and the contract or contracts and trust deed shall be deemed reinstated and in force as if no breach or default had occurred upon performance of such of the following which may be applicable:

- (1) Payment of the entire amount then due.
- (2) Payment of costs and expenses incurred in enforcing the terms of such contract or trust deed.
- (3) Payment of reasonable attorney's fees actually incurred, in an amount not to exceed $250.00 or 0.50 percent of the entire unpaid principal sum secured, whichever is greater.
- (4) Payment of the recording fee for cancellation of notice of sale.
- (5) Payment of the trustee's fees, in an amount not to exceed $250.00 or 0.50 percent of the entire unpaid principal sum secured, whichever is greater.

(c) Fees charged pursuant to subsection (b)(3) of this section shall not duplicate or include fees charged for services rendered under subsection (b)(5) of this section. Upon request, the trustee shall provide to the trustor, or any person entitled to notice pursuant to subsection 17-477(b), at any time that the trust deed is subject to reinstatement, a good faith estimate of the sums which appear necessary to reinstate the trust deed, separately specifying costs, fees, accrued interest, unpaid principal balance and any other amounts which are required to be paid as a condition to reinstatement of the trust deed.

(d) If the trust deed is reinstated as provided in subsection (b) of this section, the trustee shall have a cancellation of the notice of sale recorded in the Maricopa County recorder's office and in the real estate services land title and trust section. A trustee who, for 30 days after reinstatement, fails to have proper notice of the cancellation of the notice of sale recorded is liable, to the person who performed the conditions resulting in reinstatement, for all actual damages resulting from such failure.

(e) An acknowledged recorded cancellation of a recorded notice of sale under a trust deed shall be sufficient if it is in substantially the following form:

Sec. 17-482. Action to recover balance after sale or foreclosure on property under deed.

(a) Except as provided in subsections (f) and (g) of this section, within 90 days after the date of sale of trust property under a trust deed pursuant to section 17-474, an action may be maintained to recover a deficiency judgment against any person directly, indirectly or contingently liable on the contract for which the trust deed was given as security, including any guarantor of or surety for the contract and any partner of a trustor or other obligor which is a partnership. In any such action against such a person, the deficiency judgment shall be for an amount equal to the sum of the total amount owed the beneficiary as of the date of the sale, as determined by the court, less the fair market value of the trust property on the date of the sale, as determined by the court, or the sale price at the trustee's sale, whichever is higher. A written application for determination of the fair market value of the real property may be filed by a judgment debtor with the court in the action for a deficiency judgment or in any other action on the contract which has been maintained. Notice of the filing of an application and the hearing shall be given to all parties to the action. The fair market value shall be determined by the court at a priority hearing upon such evidence as the court may allow. The court shall issue an order crediting the amount due on the judgment with the greater of the sales price or the fair market value of the real property. The term "fair market value" means the most probable price, as of the date of the execution sale, in cash, or in terms equivalent to cash, or in other precisely revealed terms, after deduction of prior liens and encumbrances with interest to the date of sale, for which the real property or interest therein would sell after reasonable exposure in the market under conditions requisite to fair sale, with the buyer and seller each acting prudently, knowledgeably and for self-interest, and assuming that neither is under duress. Any deficiency judgment recovered shall include interest on the amount of the deficiency from the date of the sale at the rate provided in the deed of trust or in any of the contracts evidencing the debt, together with any costs and disbursements of the action.

(b) If a trustee's sale is a sale of less than all of the trust property or is a sale pursuant to one of two or more trust deeds securing the same obligation, the 90-day time limitations of subsection (a) of this section shall begin on either the date of the trustee's sale of the last of the trust property or be sold or the date of sale under the last trust deed securing the obligation, whichever occurs last.

(c) The obligation of a person who is not a trustor to pay, satisfy or purchase all or a part of the balance due on a contract secured by a trust deed may be enforced, if the person has so agreed, in an action regardless of whether a trustee's sale is held. If, however, a trustee's sale is held, the liability of a person who is not a trustor for the deficiency is determined pursuant to subsection (a) of this section and any judgment for the deficiency against the person shall be reduced in accordance with subsection (a) of this section. If any such action is commenced after a trustee's sale has been held, it is subject, in addition, to the 90-day time limitations of subsections (a) and (b) of this section.

(d) If no action is maintained for a deficiency judgment within the time period prescribed in subsections (a) and (b) of this section, the proceeds of the sale, regardless of amount, shall be deemed to be in full satisfaction of the obligation and no right to recover a deficiency in any action shall exist.

(e) Except as provided in subsection (f) of this section, the provisions of this division within this Community Code of Ordinances do not preclude a beneficiary from foreclosing a deed of trust in the same manner as a real property mortgage. In an action for the foreclosure of a deed of trust as a real property mortgage, the provisions of division 2 of this article are applicable.

(f) A deed of trust may, by express language, validly prohibit the recovery of any balance due after trust property is sold pursuant to the trustee's power of sale, or the trust deed is foreclosing in the manner provided by law for the foreclosure of mortgages on real property.

(g) If trust property of 2½ acres or less which is limited to and utilized for either a single one-family or a single two-family dwelling is sold pursuant to the trustee's power of sale, no action may be maintained to recover any difference between the amount obtained by sale and the amount of the indebtedness and any interest, costs and expenses.

Sec. 17-483. Recordkeeping.

The real estate and land services section shall keep all of the records required to be filed or filed with such section pursuant to this division within this Community Code of Ordinances in a uniform system of recording and shall maintain an index of such documents by the name of the parties listed on such documents, and legal description. (Code 1981, § 17-236; Code 2012, § 17-236; Ord. No. SRO-198-95, § II(P), 5-3-1995; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17-236, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 17-484. Limitation on action or sale of trust property.

The trustee's sale of trust property under a trust deed shall be made, or any action to foreclose a trust deed as provided by law for the foreclosure of mortgages on real property shall be commenced, within the period prescribed by the law of the Community for the commencement of an action on the contract secured by the trust deed.

Sec. 17-485. Transfer of secured contract.

The transfer of any contract or contracts secured by a trust deed shall operate as a transfer of the security for such contract or contracts.

(Code 1981, § 17-238; Code 2012, § 17-238; Ord. No. SRO-198-95, § II(R), 5-3-1995; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17-238, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 17-486. Notice from instruments recorded; assignment of a beneficial interest.

Except as otherwise provided in this section, a trust deed, substitution of trustee, notice of resignation of trustee, assignment of a beneficial interest under a trust deed, notice of sale, cancellation of notice of sale, trustee's deed, deed of release, and any instrument by which a trust deed is subordinate or waived as to priority, if acknowledged as provided by law, shall, from the time of being recorded, impart notice of the content to all persons, including subsequent purchasers and encumbrancers, for value. The recording of an assignment of the beneficial interest in a trust deed shall not be deemed notice of such assignment to the trustor, his or her heirs or personal representatives, so as to invalidate any payment made by them, or any of them, to the person previously holding the note, bond, or other instrument evidencing the contract or contracts secured by the trust deed.

(b) Purpose. The purpose of this article is to provide for the assessment and payment of development fees by applicants for new development such that the fair share of new development's impacts on public facilities are mitigated and adequate public facilities may be provided in a timely manner to new development.

Sec. 17-514. Findings.

The Community Council recognizes that growth and development in the Community will require that the capacity of the Community's public facilities be expanded in order to maintain adequate levels of service, and that without a funded program for public facility improvements, new growth and development will have to be limited to ensure that the health, safety and welfare of the members of the Community are not compromised.

- (1) The Community Council has completed a study, including periodic updates thereto, establishing the type, amount, and cost of projected public facility improvements needed to serve new development.

Sec. 17-519. Applicability of this article; exemptions.

(a) Affected area. Except as expressly provided in this section, this article shall apply to all new development within the Community, based on the development fee service areas described in Sections 17-527 through 17-531.

(b) Type of development affected. Development fees shall be paid by new development, unless the proposed development specifically is not subject to or is exempt from the terms of this article, or has received an offset pursuant to Section 17-522.

(c) Type of development not affected. The following types of development shall not be required to pay development fees for a particular public facility type, pursuant to this article:

- (1) The replacement of a destroyed or partially destroyed building or structure, with a new building or structure of the same size and use;
- (2) Developments or redevelopments that do not increase the demand for a particular public facility, based on the demand factors and methodology used in the technical report;
- (3) Developments that are the subject of a development agreement or other binding agreement with the Community, or a condition of development approval, which agreement or condition would result in a contribution or payment by an applicant in excess of the applicant's proportionate share or which is in direct conflict with this article, but only to the extent of such excessive contribution or payment, or conflict; or
- (4) Temporary uses.

(d) Exemptions.

- (1) No development fees shall be required for the following land uses:
  - a. Agriculture;
  - b. Essential public services;
  - c. Residential development;
  - d. For up to 1,000 square feet of outdoor dining; or
  - e. Tribal government.
- (2) For uses exempt by this subsection (d) only, funding sources other than development fee revenues will be used, as necessary and appropriate, to fund improvements to public facilities such that the level of service standards in the technical report are maintained. No development fee shall exceed new development's proportionate share capital capacity costs as a result of these exemptions. On an annual basis, the Community will assess the need for these payments during the annual review of the development fee program and applicable CIPs, pursuant to Section 17-526.

(e) Appeals. Pursuant to Section 17-533, if an applicant has filed an appeal and bond or other surety, no development fee shall be required prior to resolution of the appeal, in accordance with the final written determination by the Community manager or hearing officer. (Code 1981, § 17-257; Code 2012, § 17-257; Ord. No. SRO-348-09, 5-13-2009; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17-257, 5-30-2012; Ord. No. SRO-512-2019, 8-28-2019)

Sec. 17-520. Application; calculation, collection of development fees; administrative fees.

- (1) The amount of development fees owed for each type of development project shall be in accordance with Sections 17-527 through 17-531.
- (2) A development fee shall be assessed for each use within the proposed development, except that accessory uses shall be assessed at the same rate as the principal land use.
- (3) Where the specific use for a new development is not known at the time of building or construction permit issuance, the development fee required for the most intense use allowed within the relevant zoning district shall be paid upon the issuance of the building or construction permit. Upon the issuance of a tenant improvement permit or certificate of occupancy, whichever is first required to establish the actual use, the development fee shall be adjusted by a partial reimbursement by the Community, if applicable, based on the actual land use and the fee schedules set forth in Sections 17-527 through 17-531.

- (4) If the proposed land use is not listed in the fee schedules set forth in Sections 17-527 through 17-531, the director shall determine whether the proposed use is similar in demand to a listed use, based on the factors, assumptions, and methodologies set forth in the technical report, the North American Industry Classification System, the ITE Trip Generation Manual, the Land-Based Classification Standards (APA), and other relevant and generally-accepted indicators of land use intensity. The director also may consult with other department heads or outside professionals in making this determination, based on the factors, assumptions, and methodology set forth in the technical report and other relevant documentation.
- (5) If the proposed land use represents an expansion or intensification of an existing land use, the development fee shall be equal to the difference between the existing land use and the proposed land use. However, no refund of development fees will be made for the conversion of an existing land use to a less intense proposed use.
- (6) Transition provision. If a new development received final approval of a design review application or submitted a complete design review application prior to the effective date of the fees set forth in Sections 17-527 through 17-531 of this article and the building permit for vertical building construction is issued within 16 months of to the effective date of the fees, which building permit neither lapses nor is renewed beyond the initial six-month period, development fees shall be calculated based upon the fee amounts in effect immediately prior to the effective date. Development fees calculated based upon the previously effective fee schedule will be calculated for all categories of development fees. A development for which the building permit lapsed or is renewed beyond the initial six-month period shall pay the full fees set forth in Section 17-527 through 17-531 of this article; the transition provision shall not apply.

(b) Collection.

- (1) Development fees shall be paid, in the amounts set forth in Sections 17-527 through 17-531 or as determined by the Director pursuant to Section 17-520(a) of this article, at the time of issuance of a building permit, construction permit, tenant improvement permit, certificate of occupancy, or other Community approval of new development.
- (2) Development fees will not be received by the Community prior to the time of issuance of a building permit, construction permit, tenant improvement permit, certificate of occupancy, or other Community approval of new development, which is necessary for the developer to establish an actual land use on a property.

(c) Administrative fees. In order to offset the Community's costs to administer development fees, an administrative fee equal to two percent of the total development fees due shall be paid at the time development fees are paid.

(Code 1981, § 17-258; Code 2012, § 17-258; Ord. No. SRO-348-09, 5-13-2009; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17-258, 5-30-2012; Ord. No. SRO-512-2019, 8-28-2019)

Sec. 17-521. Individual assessment of development fee.

(a) At the request of applicant, an individual assessment may be used to determine whether a fair share of the public facilities costs necessitated by the proposed development will be less than the fees in the fee schedules set forth in Sections 17-527 through 17-532 or as determined by the director pursuant to Section 17-520(a). The individual assessment shall be calculated according to the methodology used for the particular public facility in the technical report and the costs of the individual assessment shall be borne by the applicant.

(b) The individual assessment analysis shall be funded by the applicant and prepared by qualified professionals in the fields of planning and engineering, impact analysis, and economics, as deemed appropriate to the circumstances of the assessment selected by applicant and reasonably approved by the director.

(c) With the individualized assessment, the applicant shall submit an administrative fee of $1,000.00 for costs incurred by the Community to have the study evaluated. If the costs to the Community exceed $1,000.00, the director will assess the additional costs to the applicant, along with documentation verifying the costs incurred. The director will not issue a final decision until all documented costs have been paid by the applicant. If the costs to the Community to have the assessment evaluated are less than $1,000.00, the Community will refund any balance to the applicant at the time of the director's final determination.

(d) Within 30 working days of receipt of an individual assessment analysis, the director shall determine if the individual assessment analysis is complete and that the required $1,000.00 administrative fee has been paid. If the director determines the application is not complete or the administrative fee has not been paid, the director shall send a written statement specifying the deficiencies to the person submitting the application. Until the deficiencies are corrected and all fees paid, the director shall take no further action on the application.

(e) When the director determines the individual assessment analysis is complete and the fees paid, the director shall review it within 45 working days. The director shall approve the proposed fee if he or she determines that the data, factors, and methodology used to determine the proposed development fee are professionally acceptable and fairly assess the costs for capital improvements to the Community's public facilities systems that are necessitated by the proposed development if the facilities are to be maintained at levels of service in the technical report. If the director determines that the data, factors, or methodology are unreasonable, the proposed fee shall be denied, the director shall provide a summary of the reasons for its determination, and the developer shall pay the development fees according to section 17-520.

(Code 1981, § 17-259; Code 2012, § 17-259; Ord. No. SRO-348-09, 5-13-2009; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17-259, 5-30-2012; Ord. No. SRO-512-2019, 8-28-2019)

Sec. 17-522. Offsets against development fees due.

(a) Applicability; eligibility.

(1) Applicability. This section shall apply to any request for an offset submitted on or after the effective date of this article.

(2) Eligibility.

- a. Offsets may be provided pursuant to either an offset agreement with the Community Council, as provided herein, or by the director pursuant to a documented condition of development approval.
- b. Offsets may be granted only for offset-eligible improvements scheduled by the Community to commence construction within five years of the approval of an offset agreement or the condition of approval, which offset-eligible improvement is included on a CIP or for which the Community Council agrees by resolution to add to a CIP during its immediately subsequent annual CIP review.
- c. Offsets shall be given only for the same category of public facility as the offset-eligible improvement.
- d. Nothing in this subsection precludes the Community from entering into an agreement with an applicant in order to clarify the timing and manner of providing offset-eligible improvements pursuant to a documented condition of development approval.

(b) Requirements and procedures for development fee offsets. Applications for offsets must be made on a form provided by the CIPAC for such purposes. Unless the offset is sought pursuant to a documented condition of development, the offset application must be accompanied by a proposed offset agreement as provided herein.

(1) Procedure.

- a. Upon receipt of a complete application, the CIPAC, Community general counsel, and other appropriate staff must review the application, as well as such other information and evidence as may be deemed relevant.
- b. Within 60 calendar days of the receipt of a complete application, the director must either:
  1. Forward a report to the Community Council as to whether an offset is proper based on the provisions of this article; or
  2. Provide written comments or objections to the applicant with respect to the application for an offset or the offset agreement.
- c. Within 60 calendar days of the receipt from the director's report, and based on the terms of the proposed offset agreement, the provisions of this article, the CIP, the general plan, adopted Community budget, and the technical report, the Community Council must make a final decision to accept, reject or accept with conditions the proposed offset application regarding the dedication, construction or funding of an offset-eligible capital improvement in exchange for an offset against development fees owed.

(2) Calculation of the value of offset.

- a. The value of any offset shall be calculated as the lower of the following:
  1. The amount of the development fees due; or
  2. The actual verified costs of dedication or construction.

- b. This section does not apply to any reimbursements, credits, or refunds for capital improvements provided by an applicant, which exceed the value of the offset pursuant to subsection (b)(2)a of this section. However, this section does not prohibit the Community from agreeing to such excess reimbursements, credits, or refunds, at its sole discretion, by separate agreement.
  - c. Actual verified costs shall be calculated as follows:
    - 1. Facilities and equipment associated with the offset-eligible improvement. Actual cost of construction or equipment, as evidenced by receipts or other sufficient documentation provided by the developer of the offset-eligible improvement and verified by the CIPAC. For projects yet to be built, sufficient documentation may include three bids prepared for and submitted by the applicant or an outside cost estimate commissioned by the Community.
    - 2. Dedication of land associated with the offset-eligible improvement. The fair market value of the land as determined by a certified property appraiser hired and paid for by the developer. If the CIPAC rejects the developer's appraisal, the Community may hire and pay for a second appraiser to appraise the property. If either party rejects the second appraisal, a third appraisal may be performed by an appraisal, a third appraisal may be performed by an appraiser chosen by the first and second appraisers, the costs of which are to be shared equally by the Community and the developer. The third appraisal is binding on both parties. All appraisals must be consistent with generally-accepted appraisal techniques.
- (3) Offset agreement requirements. No capital improvement may be accepted in exchange for an offset except pursuant to a documented condition of development approval or an executed offset agreement between the Community and the provider of the offset-eligible improvement, which agreement shall include the following:
- a. A schedule for the initiation, completion, and dedication, as applicable, of proposed offset-eligible improvements;
  - b. The agreed to offset mechanism including, but not limited to, credits, waivers, payments and reimbursements;
  - c. The amount of the development fees, by type, proposed to be offset by the Community;
  - d. The timing of any offset that will be issued by the Community, with any necessary conditions or limitations;
  - e. The method of accounting for offsets;
  - f. Terms related to the assignment or transfer of the burdens and benefits conferred under the agreement;
  - g. A provision that all construction will be in accordance with Community specifications and all regulations set forth in this Community Code of Ordinances; and
  - h. Such other terms and conditions as deemed necessary by the Community to effectuate the provisions of this article.
- (c) Recordation; assignability. Not later than ten working days after the execution of the offset agreement, the Community shall record a copy of the agreement with the secretary of the Community Council. Recordation constitutes notice of the offset agreement to all persons. The burdens and benefits conferred under the offset agreement shall be assigned or transferred to other parties only as provided in the offset agreement.

(d) Transferability. Offsets granted pursuant to this section, including credits against future development fee payments, may be transferred from the applicant to property owners within the original development without further approval by the Community. No other transfer of offsets shall be allowed except as expressly provided in an offset agreement.

(Code 1981, § 17-260; Code 2012, § 17-260; Ord. No. SRO-348-09, 5-13-2009; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17-260, 5-30-2012; Ord. No. SRO-512-2019, 8-28-2019)

Sec. 17-523. Use of funds collected; development fee accounting.

(a) Development fees collected pursuant to this article shall be used solely for the purpose of acquisition, expansion, and development of capital improvements included in the CIP applicable to each public facility, or for which the council agrees by resolution to include within the CIP. Development fees may not be used for site-related capital improvements. Allowable expenditures include, but are not limited to:

- (1) Public facilities and public facilities capital costs;
- (2) Repayment of monies transferred or borrowed from any budgetary fund of the Community which were used to fund the acquisition, expense, and development of public facilities for new development;
- (3) Payment of principal and interest and costs of issuance under any bonds or other indebtedness issued by the Community to provide funds for acquisition, expansion, and development of public facilities;
- (4) Refunds granted pursuant to Section 17-524;
- (5) Updates to the technical report as required by this article; and
- (6) Offset-eligible improvements, pursuant to Section 17-522.

(b) Development fees collected for each public facility category must be spent for the benefit of new development within the development fee service areas described in Sections 17-527 through 17-532. Incidental benefits accruing to nonfee payers as a secondary result or minor consequence of the provision of facilities to those paying development fees or to existing development do not invalidate the use of development fee revenues pursuant to this article.

(c) Development fees collected shall be spent or encumbered for the construction of public facilities within ten years of the date of collection. Development fees shall be considered spent or encumbered in the order received by the Community on a first-in, first-out basis.

(d) In order to ensure that development fee revenues are earmarked and spent solely for the expansion of public facilities necessary to offset the impacts of new development, the following provisions apply:

- (1) The Community shall establish an external bank account into which all collected development fees will be deposited, separate from the general fund and all other Community funds. Administrative fees shall not be deposited into this account.
- (2) In order to track the collection and expenditures of development fees, the Community also shall establish an internal revenue fund for development fees, with an internal accounting methodology such that the Community may at all times identify the amount of development fees previously spent and remaining, by public facility type and service area.
- (3) Amounts withdrawn from a development fee account must be used solely in accordance with the provisions of this article. Amounts retained in a development fee account shall not be used for any expenditure that would be classified as a maintenance, operations, or repair expense, or to address existing deficiencies in public facilities.

(Code 1981, § 17-261; Code 2012, § 17-261; Ord. No. SRO-348-09, 5-13-2009; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17-261, 5-30-2012; Ord. No. SRO-512-2019, 8-28-2019)

Sec. 17-524. Refunds.

(a) Upon application, development fees shall be returned to the fee payer if the approved development is canceled due to non-commencement of construction or the Community approval expires or is revoked before the funds have been spent or encumbered. Refunds may be made in accordance with this section provided the fee payer, or the fee payer's authorized agent, files a petition for a refund within one year from the date of non-commencement, expiration, or revocation. Applicable administrative fees already collected will be retained by the Community.

(b) Upon application, in the event development fees are not spent or encumbered by the Community within ten years from the date of collection, the Community shall refund the amount of the fee to the fee payer, or the fee payer's authorized agent, provided a petition for a refund is filed within one year from the expiration of the ten-year timeframe.

(c) A refund application shall include the following information:

- (1) Evidence that the development fee was paid for the property, the date of payment, and the amount paid; and
- (2) Other information deemed by the director to be reasonably necessary in order to determine compliance with the provisions of this section, based on the circumstances of the refund request.

(d) Within 30 working days of receipt of a refund application, the director shall determine if it is complete. If the director determines the refund application is not complete, the director shall send a written statement specifying the deficiencies by mail to the person submitting the refund application. Unless the deficiencies are corrected, the director shall take no further action on the refund application.

(e) When the director determines the refund application is complete, the director shall review it within 30 working days, and shall approve the proposed refund if he or she determines that a refund is appropriate based on the criteria of this section.

(f) Except for refunds granted pursuant to subsection (b) of this section, an administrative fee equal to $500.00 shall be paid at the time the refund application is submitted in order to offset the Community's costs to process the refund application.

(Code 1981, § 17-262; Code 2012, § 17-262; Ord. No. SRO-348-09, 5-13-2009; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17-262, 5-30-2012; Ord. No. SRO-512-2019, 8-28-2019)

Sec. 17-525. Updating; annual adjustments.

(a) Updates.

- (1) At least once every five years, the Community shall update the technical report that provides the basis for the development fees imposed under this article.
- (2) Prior to adopting development fees pursuant to a technical report update, the Community Council will hold a public hearing and will give published notice in the Community newspaper at least 30 calendar days prior to the public hearing.

(b) Automatic Indexing of Impact Fee Schedules.

- (1) Unless the Community Council directs that one, several or all impact fee schedules not be increased, the impact fee schedules shown in Sections 17-527 through 17-531 shall be adjusted by the Community Development Director in August each calendar year based on the methodology described below. Any adjustments to the impact fee schedules made pursuant to this section shall be effective the first day of October. The Community Development Director shall post notice of a change to impact fee schedules on or before the first business day of September.
- (2) The base for computing any adjustment to an impact fee schedule is the May index for the prior calendar year and the May index for the current calendar year. The percentage change in the impact fee shall be equal to the percentage change in the appropriate index from the prior year to the current year. The formula is:

ADJUSTED IMPACT FEES = EXISTING IMPACT FEE X (MAY INDEX CURRENT YEAR / MAY INDEX PRIOR YEAR)

- (3) The automatic indexing of the Street, Public Safety, Storm Drainage, Water and Wastewater Fee Schedules shall employ the Construction Cost Index published by McGraw-Hill's Engineering News-Record (ENR) magazine or other index or computation with which it is replaced in order to obtain substantially the same result as would be obtained using the Construction Cost Index.

(Code 1981, § 17-263; Code 2012, § 17-263; Ord. No. SRO-348-09, 5-13-2009; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17-263, 5-30-2012; Ord. No. SRO-407-2013, 10-17-2012; Ord. No. SRO-512-2019, 8-28-2019)

- (2) The balance of each development fee account maintained for each type of development fee assessed as of the beginning and end of the fiscal year.
- (3) The amount of development fee monies spent on and/or planned for public facility capital improvement projects and the location of each project.

(b) Capital improvements program. At least annually, the CIPAC will review current CIPs for each public facility for which development fees are collected, and shall address, among other things, the following:

- (1) Reviewing planned capital improvements to ensure level of service (LOS) standards are maintained, based on the technical report and any exemptions made pursuant to Section 17-519(d);

- (2) Ensuring that planned capital improvements, to be funded with the development fees revenues, reflect the proportionate impact of new development;
- (3) Ensuring that development fee revenues are spent on capital improvements that benefit new development, as provided for in this article;
- (4) Proposing amendments to the CIPs related to offsets granted or to be granted pursuant to this article;
- (5) Confirming that development fee revenues are scheduled for expenditure or encumbrance as provided in [sections] 17-523 and 17-524; and
- (6) Other matters related to the efficient implementation of this article and its ongoing lawful application to new development.

(Code 1981, § 17-264; Code 2012, § 17-264; Ord. No. SRO-348-09, 5-13-2009; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17-264, 5-30-2012; Ord. No. SRO-512-2019, 8-28-2019)

Sec. 17-532. Appeals.

(a) Initiation.

- (1) An appeal from a final determination made by the director or other Community official may be made within 30 calendar days of the time the official's determination has been communicated to the applicant.
- (2) An appeal shall be made on a form provided by the director and filed with the Community executive secretary.

- (3) The appeal will be decided by the Community manager, or by a hearing officer appointed by the Community manager, as provided in this section.
- (4) The filing of an appeal does not stay the imposition or the collection of the development fee as calculated by the Community unless an appeal bond or other sufficient surety, satisfactory to the office of the general counsel and the Community treasurer has been provided. If no such bond or other surety has been accepted by the Community, the applicant must pay all development fees owed prior to filing an appeal.
- (5) The bond or other surety shall not be released in whole until the Community manager or hearing officer either grants the appeal and determines in writing that no additional development fees are thereafter owed by the applicant or the applicant pays all development fees owed following the written determination regarding the appeal by the Community manager or hearing officer. The bond may provide for partial draws on bond funds or partial releases by the Community.
- (6) If the appeal form is accompanied by a bond or other sufficient surety, in an amount equal to the development fee calculated by the director to be due, a building permit, construction permit, tenant improvement permit, certificate of occupancy, or other Community approval of new development, which is necessary for the developer to establish an actual land use on a property may be issued to the new development, pending the outcome of the appeal.

(b) Hearing on the appeal. The Community manager or hearing officer shall set the appeal for hearing and shall notify the applicant in writing of the date, time, and location of the hearing.

(c) Burden of proof. The appellant has the burden of proof to demonstrate that the decision of the director or other Community official is erroneous, based on the terms of this article, the Community Constitution, or other applicable law.

(d) Decision.

- (1) The Community manager or hearing officer must:
  - a. Determine whether there is an error in an order, article requirement, or decision of a Community official in the enforcement of this article; and/or
  - b. Based on the information provided, reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or modify the order, requirement, or decision of the Community official appealed, and make such order, requirement, decision, or determination as necessary, including recommending amendments to the provisions of this article to the council.
- (2) The Community manager or hearing officer must render a decision on the appeal within 60 calendar days after the receipt by the Community executive secretary of the appeal application form.
- (3) Should the appeal result in a determination that development fees paid should be refunded in whole or in part to the applicant, the written decision of the Community manager or hearing officer shall so indicate and shall direct appropriate Community staff to make the refund consistent with the final decision.
- (4) Should the appeal be rejected, any development fees not paid, but secured by bond or other surety, shall be paid in full within 30 calendar days of the written decision of the Community manager or hearing officer, unless the written decision provides otherwise. If all development fees owed pursuant to the final decision are not paid within 30 calendar days, the Community may draw an amount of the bond funds equal to the amount of development fees owed. The availability of this remedy does not preclude the Community from seeking or enforcing any other lawful remedy necessary to enforce the provisions of this article.

(Code 1981, § 17-271; Code 2012, § 17-271; Ord. No. SRO-348-09, 5-13-2009; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17-271, 5-30-2012; Ord. No. SRO-512-2019, 8-28-2019)

Sec. 17-533. Violation; penalty.

When required to provide information pursuant to this article, all persons shall act in good faith and provide correct and accurate information. Furnishing false information to any official or agent of the Community charged with the administration of this article on any matter relating to the administration of this article, including without limitation the furnishing of materially false information regarding the expected size, use, or impacts from a proposed development, shall be a violation of this article. Any person, firm, or corporation that violates any of the provisions of this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Persons determined to have falsified information to any official or agent of the Community shall be fined in an amount not to exceed $5,000.00 and may have their Community business license revoked. Firms or corporations or other entities determined to have falsified information to an official or agent of the Community shall be fined not to exceed $20,000.00. Each violation shall be considered a separate offense, and fined as described in this section.

- Sec. 17.5-11. Removal of obstructions.
- Sec. 17.5-12. Penalties.

Sec. 17.5-1. Requirements and regulations established; short title.

(a) It is the purpose of this chapter to establish requirements and regulations pertaining to the use and development of land in the Community which will minimize the occurrence of losses, hazards and conditions adversely affecting the public health, safety and general welfare which might result from flooding caused by the surface runoff of rainfall.

(b) This chapter may be referred to as the floodplain and drainage ordinance.
(Code 1981, § 17.5-1; Code 2012, § 17.5-1; Ord. No. SRO-185-95, § A, 10-26-1994; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17.5-1, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 17.5-2. Definitions.

Unless specifically defined as follows, words or phrases used in this chapter shall be interpreted so as to give them the meaning they have in common usage and to give this chapter its most reasonable application:

Appeal means a request for a review of the floodplain administrator's interpretation of any provision of this chapter or a request for a variance.

Base flood means the flood having a one percent chance of being equaled or exceeded in any given year. This is also called a 100-year flood.

Basement means the lowest level or story of a structure which has its floor subgrade on all sides.

Construction means new construction of or substantial improvements to a structure.

Detention basin means a hydraulic structure similar to a reservoir that intercepts and retards or detains stormwater and is specifically designed to attenuate or dampen peak discharge rates.

Development means any manmade change to improved or unimproved real estate, including but not limited to construction, mining, excavation, filling, grading, paving or farming.

Environmentally sensitive lands means environmentally sensitive lands as defined in regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter.

Flood or flooding means a general and temporary condition of partial or complete inundation of normally dry land areas from:

- (1) The overflow of floodwaters;
- (2) The unusual and rapid accumulation or runoff of surface waters from any source; and/or
- (3) The collapse or subsidence of land along the shore of a lake or other body of water as a result of erosion or undermining caused by waves or currents of water exceeding anticipated cyclical levels or suddenly caused by an unusually high water level in a natural body of water, accompanied by a severe storm, or by an unanticipated force of nature, such as flash flood, or by some similarly unusual and unforeseeable event which results in flooding as defined in this definition.

Floodplain or floodprone area means any land area susceptible to being inundated by water from any source.

Floodplain administrator means the Community development director or designee who is authorized by this chapter to administer its provisions.

Floodproofing or flood protection means any combination of structural and nonstructural additions, changes, or adjustments to structures, including utility and sanitary facilities, which would preclude the entry of water. The structure must be watertight, with walls which are substantially impermeable to the passage of water. Structural components shall have the capability of resisting hydrostatic and hydrodynamic loads and the effect of buoyancy.

Floodway means the channel of a river or other watercourse and the adjacent land areas necessary in order to discharge the 100-year flood without cumulatively increasing the water surface elevation more than one foot above the base floodwater surface elevation.

Grading means an excavation or filling of land or combination thereof.

Lowest floor means the lowest floor of the lowest enclosed area (including basement). An unfinished or flood resistant enclosure, usable solely for parking of vehicles, building access or storage in an area other than a basement area is not considered a building's lowest floor; provided, that such enclosure is not built so as to render the structure in violation of the applicable nonelevation design requirements of this chapter.

Natural areas means those areas within environmentally sensitive areas which are required to be retained in a natural state, including areas stipulated as such through the zoning process. Special conditions relating to environmentally sensitive lands will apply to such natural areas.

Regulatory base flood elevation means the water surface elevation of the base flood.

Regulatory floodway means the channel of a wash or other watercourse and the adjacent land areas that must be reserved in order to discharge the base flood without raising the water surface elevation more than one foot above the base floodwater surface elevation.

Residential structure means a place of residence and may be a single-family or multifamily dwelling.

Retention basin means a hydraulic structure similar to a reservoir that intercepts and stores stormwater and is specifically designed to be drained to the underground or to be emptied by evaporation to the atmosphere.

Start of construction for purposes of this chapter only, includes substantial improvement, and means the date the building permit was issued, provided the actual start of construction, repair, reconstruction, placement, or other improvement was within 180 days of the permit date. The actual start means either the first placement of permanent construction of a structure on a site, such as the pouring of slab or footings, the installation of piles, the construction of columns, or any work beyond the stage of excavation; or the placement of a manufactured home on a foundation. Permanent construction does not include land preparation, such as clearing, grading and filling; nor does it include the installation of streets and/or walkways; nor does it include excavation for a basement, footings, piers, or foundations or the erection of temporary forms; nor does it include the installation on the property of accessory buildings, such as garages or sheds not occupied as dwelling units or not part of the main structure.

Structure means a walled and roofed building or a gas or liquid storage tank that is principally above ground. The term "structure" includes, but is not limited to, houses, commercial buildings, factories, storage buildings, mobile homes and similar structures.

Substantial improvement.

- (1) The term "substantial improvement" means any repair, reconstruction or improvement of a structure, the cost of which equals or exceeds 50 percent of the market value of the structure either before the:
  - a. Improvement is started; or
  - b. Damage occurred, if the structure has been damaged and is being restored.

For the purposes of this subsection of this definition, substantial improvement is considered to occur when the first alteration of any wall, ceiling, floor or other structural part of the building commences, whether or not that alteration affects the external dimensions of the structure.

- (2) The term "substantial improvement" does not include any alteration to comply with existing local health, sanitary, building or safety codes or regulations which are solely necessary to ensure safe living conditions.

Variance means a grant of relief from some of the requirements of this chapter which permits construction in a manner that would otherwise be prohibited by this chapter.

Waste disposal system means any system of disposing of worthless materials and useless byproducts, either sanitary or commercial or industrial, except: existing single-family septic systems and sanitary sewer pipe lines.

Watercourse means a lake, river, creek, stream, wash, arroyo, channel or other topographic feature on or over which waters flow at least periodically. The term "watercourse" includes specifically designated areas in which substantial flood damage may occur.

(Code 1981, § 17.5-2; Code 2012, § 17.5-2; Ord. No. SRO-185-95, § B, 10-26-1994; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17.5-2, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 17.5-3. The floodplain administrator.

(a) Designated. The Community development department director or designee shall be the floodplain administrator.

(b) Responsibilities. It is the responsibility of the floodplain administrator or his or her authorized representative to do the following:

- (1) Review all applications for development permits and ensure that the requirements of this chapter are enforced.
- (2) Take action on violations of the regulations in this chapter.
- (3) Review proposed development documents to ensure that necessary permits required by section 404 of the Clean Water Act (33 USC 1344) have been obtained for such development prior to issuance of any development permits.
- (4) Administer the processing of requests for a variance from the requirements of this chapter, maintain records of all actions taken.

(Code 1981, § 17.5-3; Code 2012, § 17.5-3; Ord. No. SRO-185-95, § C, 10-26-1994; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17.5-3, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 17.5-4. Appeals and variances.

(a) A person may appeal to the Community Council for a variance or for a judgment on the interpretation of this chapter. The Community Council upon the recommendation of the land management board may grant a variance if conditions would not be created by the variance which would result in danger or damage to persons or property and if strict application of the regulations would deprive the property owner of privileges enjoyed by similar property in the floodplain. The subsections of this section describe the conditions applicable to the granting of a variance.

(b) A variance shall not be granted for property within a regulatory floodway if the water surface elevation during a base flood discharge would result in an increase in water surface elevation greater than one foot.

(c) A variance may be granted in conformance with subsections (d), (e) and (f) of this section for new construction and substantial improvements to be erected on a lot of one-half acre or less in size contiguous to and surrounded by lots with existing structures with lowest floors constructed below the base flood level.

(d) A variance shall only be granted upon the determination of the following: Granting the variance will not allow conditions to be created which result in increased floodwater heights, additional threats to public safety, extraordinary public expense, the creation of nuisances, the causing of fraud or victimization of the public, or conflict with other laws or ordinances.

(e) A variance shall only be granted upon a determination that the variance is the minimum necessary, considering the flood hazard, to afford relief for the applicant.

(f) The floodplain administrator shall notify the applicant in writing that the following condition will exist as a result of the variance.

- (1) Construction of a lowest floor below the base flood level will result in increased premium rates for flood insurance.
- (2) Construction below the base flood level increases risks to life and property.

(g) While the granting of variances generally is limited to a lot size less than one-half acre, deviations from this limit may be considered by the floodplain administrator; however, as the lot size is increased beyond one-half acre, the technical justifications required for a variance must be more detailed and comprehensive.

(Code 1981, § 17.5-4; Code 2012, § 17.5-4; Ord. No. SRO-185-95, § D, 10-26-1994; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17.5-4, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 17.5-5. Interpretation.

In the interpretation and application of this chapter, all provisions shall be:

- (1) Considered as minimum requirements;

(2) Liberally construed in favor of the Community; and

(3) Deemed neither to limit or repeal any other powers granted under law.

(Code 1981, § 17.5-5; Code 2012, § 17.5-5; Ord. No. SRO-185-95, § E, 10-26-1994; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17.5-5, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 17.5-6. Warning and disclaimer of liability.

The degree of flood protection provided by the requirements in this chapter is considered reasonable for regulatory purposes and is based on scientific and engineering considerations. Floods larger than the base flood can and will occur on rare occasions. Floodwater heights may be increased by manmade or natural causes. This chapter does not imply that land outside the areas of special flood hazards or uses permitted within such areas will be free from flooding or flood damages. This chapter shall not create liability on the part of the Community, any officer or employee thereof, or the federal government for any flood damages that result from reliance on this chapter or any administrative decision lawfully made thereunder.

(Code 1981, § 17.5-6; Code 2012, § 17.5-6; Ord. No. SRO-185-95, § F, 10-26-1994; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17.5-6, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 17.5-7. Prohibited development.

(a) A development is prohibited if it would create hazards to life or property by increasing the potential for flooding either on the property to be developed or on adjacent property or to any other property. A watercourse may not be altered. Alteration within the meaning of this section includes, but is not limited to: Encroachments, fill, new construction, substantial improvements to existing developments, and other construction within a watercourse, unless a professional engineer certifies that the alterations will not increase flooding hazards within, upstream or downstream of the altered portion of the watercourse.

(b) Waste disposal systems shall not be installed wholly or partially in a floodway and/or a regulatory floodway. Replacement of existing systems will be reviewed on an individual basis and may be granted a variance.

(Code 1981, § 17.5-7; Code 2012, § 17.5-7; Ord. No. SRO-185-95, § G, 10-26-1994; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17.5-7, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 17.5-8. Development requirements to be met for issuance of a permit.

Prior to the issuance of a permit by the Community for development on private property or for work in the public rights-of-way, the applicant for the permit shall furnish the floodplain administrator information as required to determine that all proposed building sites will be reasonably safe from flooding and sufficient data to enable the Community development department to determine that the proposed work is not of such a scope that it would be prohibited in accordance with subsections (1) and (2) of this section. Reports, construction plans, and other data submitted in support of an application for a permit shall comply with the following criteria:

- (1) Drainage reports. When a drainage report is required, it must be prepared and sealed by a civil engineer registered as a professional engineer in the State of Arizona, and it must be prepared in accordance with the criteria established by the Community. The purpose of the report is to analyze the effect that a proposed development would have upon the rainfall runoff in the vicinity of the development, to provide data to ensure that the development is designed to be protected from flooding, to provide data to ensure that the development is to be designed to minimize flooding and to provide data supporting the design of facilities to be constructed for the management of rainfall runoff. Each drainage report must consider rainfall runoff from storms with a return frequency up to and including a 100-year storm. The complexity of the report depends upon the nature of the development and the site on which the development will occur. A drainage report shall be submitted by an applicant requesting one of the following:

- a. A permit for grading, unless the requirement is waived by the floodplain administrator.
  - b. A permit to construct right-of-way improvements.
  - c. A permit to construct any structure, except that a report will not be required if the structure is to be a single-family residential structure to be built without a basement and to be located at a site which the floodplain administrator has determined will not be in the vicinity of a watercourse in which the flow of rainfall runoff might be hazardous to the structure or its occupants.
- (2) Drainage characteristics. Rainfall runoff from storms of all return frequencies should enter and depart from property after its development in substantially the same manner as under predevelopment conditions. Any proposals to modify drainage characteristics must be fully justified by engineering data which shall demonstrate to the floodplain administrator that hazards to life and property will not be increased by the proposed modifications. As a minimum, drainage and flood control easements will be dedicated to the Community to the extent of the estimated 100-year flood for all watercourses having a capacity of 25 cubic feet per second or greater, and the development shall be responsible for the maintenance of the watercourse. Exceptions to this regulation will be for environmentally sensitive lands and other areas covered by master drainage plans or other provisions of this chapter which ensure that the standards established by this section are met. Any proposed modification must be compatible with environmentally sensitive lands criteria.
- (3) Street crossings at natural or manmade drainage channels.
- a. The crossing structure requirements listed herein will normally apply; however, the engineer may depart from these requirements if he or she can demonstrate to the floodplain administrator's satisfaction that they are inappropriate because of the type of development or the nature of the terrain or because the requirements violate environmentally sensitive land ordinances. In extreme cases it may be necessary to allow for the entire channel flow to pass over the road.
    1. Local and minor collector streets shall have a culvert or bridge which is capable of carrying all of the peak flow of runoff from a ten-year frequency storm beneath the roadway and which is also capable of carrying enough of the peak flow of runoff from a 25-year frequency storm beneath the road so that the portion of the flow over the road is no more than six inches deep.
    2. Major collector and major or minor arterial streets shall have a culvert or bridge which is capable of carrying all of the peak flow of runoff from a 50-year frequency storm beneath the roadway and which is also capable of carrying enough of the peak flow of runoff from a 100-year frequency storm so that the portion of the flow over the road is no more than six inches deep.
    3. Watercourse crossings for roads shall be designated so that all lots and structures within a development will be accessible from the boundary of that development by at least one route during the period of peak flow of runoff from a 100-year fre-

- quency storm. The boundary shall include any adjacent street or streets. Accessibility will be considered to exist if it can be demonstrated by the engineer that at the time of the peak flow the depth of flow over the road will be no greater than one foot.
- b. Regardless of the size of the culvert or bridge, the street crossing should be designed to convey the 100-year storm runoff flow under and/or over the road to the area downstream of the crossing to which the flow would have gone in the absence of the street crossing. The construction of a channel crossing must not cause the diversion of the drainage flows except when that diversion is part of an approved plan for modification of drainage patterns.
- (4) Streets as water carriers. It is expected that streets will carry water from adjacent property and from local areas, but they are not to be used as major water carriers in lieu of natural washes or manmade channels. The maximum depth for water flowing in any street shall be eight inches during the peak runoff from a 100-year frequency storm. The above requirements imply that in some cases water may flow deeper than a normal vertical curb height and may flow for a short distance over sidewalk or other back-of-curb areas, but the flow of the water shall always be confined to the road right-of-way or to drainage easements. Particular care must be taken in street sag locations to ensure that these requirements are met. Catchbasins, scuppers or similar facilities, together with the necessary channels, must be provided at appropriate locations to remove water flowing in the streets so as not to exceed the above described depth limit.
  - (5) Design procedures and criteria. The design procedures and criteria to be used shall be in accordance with those prepared and published by the Community.
  - (6) Lowest floor elevations in residential structures.
    - a. New residential structures (single or multifamily) shall be constructed according to one of the two following requirements:
      1. The lowest floor shall be constructed at an elevation which is a minimum of one foot above the base floodwater surface elevation. In all cases the finished floor elevation shall be a minimum of 14 inches above the lot outfall elevation.
      2. The lowest floor may be constructed below the base floodwater surface elevation, but floodproofing shall be provided for the structure to an elevation which is at least one foot above the base floodwater surface elevation. In all cases the finished floor elevation shall be a minimum of 14 inches above the lot outfall elevation.
    - b. In those single-family residential structures which are to be built without a basement and located at a site which the floodplain administrator has determined will not be in the vicinity of a watercourse in which the flow of rainfall runoff might be hazardous to the structure or its occupants, the elevation of the lowest floor may be established by the method described in this subsection as follows: The floor elevations chosen for the residence may be indicated on a topographic plan of the building site parcel which shows the construction pad site and any grading proposed on the parcel. This plan must be prepared and sealed by a civil engineer or architect registered as a professional engineer or architect in the State of Arizona. The floor elevations indicated on the plan are to be elevations certified by the engineer or architect sufficiently high - to provide protection during the base flood in the event of flooding caused by a 100-year storm.

- (7) Lowest floor elevations in nonresidential structures.
- a. New nonresidential structure or the substantial improvement of an existing nonresidential structure shall be constructed according to one of the following requirements:
    1. The lowest floor shall be constructed at an elevation which is at or above the base floodwater surface elevation.
    2. The lowest floor may be constructed below the elevation of the base floodwater surface elevation but floodproofing shall be provided for the structure to an elevation which is at least as high as the base floodwater surface elevation.
  - b. Adequate drainage paths must be constructed to guide floodwaters around and away from the structures.
- (8) Reference to regulatory base floodwater surface elevations on development plans. The grading and drainage plans for any development adjacent to a regulatory floodway and the grading and drainage plans for any development which proposes to modify an existing regulatory floodway as a part of the development must indicate the base floodwater surface elevations.
- (9) Information pertaining to flood protection to be placed on building plans. The following subsections describe requirements for information which shall be placed on building plans for both residential and nonresidential structures. Depending upon the type of structure and its location, one or more of the subsections will apply:
- a. The proposed elevation of the lowest floor must be shown, regardless of the type of structure or its location.
  - b. If the structure is to be built in a regulatory floodway, the base floodwater surface elevation must be shown.
  - c. If the structure is to be floodproofed, the elevation to which the floodproofing will be provided must be shown.
- (10) Minimizing the potential for flood damage. Within any area of the Community where the floodplain administrator determines that the land is subject to flooding, all development, including substantial improvements to structures, must meet the following requirements:
- a. All structures shall be anchored to their foundations to prevent flotation, collapse, or lateral movement.
  - b. Building construction materials and utility system equipment shall be resistant to flood damage.
  - c. The construction methods and practices shall be those which minimize flood damage.
  - d. Multiple occupancy developments such as subdivisions, shopping centers, etc., shall have their public utility systems such as sewer, water, gas and electric lines and their associated facilities located and constructed in a manner to minimize or eliminate the potential for flood damage. The developments must be constructed with drainage systems which will minimize the exposure to flood damage.
  - e. New and replacement water supply systems shall be designated and constructed to minimize or eliminate infiltration of floodwater into the systems.
  - f. New and replacement sanitary sewage systems shall be designed and constructed to minimize or eliminate infiltration of floodwaters into the systems and the discharge of sewage into the floodwaters.

(11) Stormwater detention or retention storage facilities.

- a. Except as noted below, development of all land within the Community must include provisions for the management of stormwater runoff from the property which is to be developed. This management shall consist of constructing stormwater storage facilities which includes detention basins. Stormwater storage facilities will provide reduced peak rates of outlet flow from the developed property onto downstream property in comparison to the peak rates of runoff flow from the same property under natural conditions with no development. As a minimum, all development will make provisions to store runoff from rainfall events up to and including the 100-year two-hour duration event. If a suitable outlet for a detention basin is not available, or if engineering analysis indicates that available outlet systems would be overtaxed by a detention basin outflow a retention basin may be constructed in lieu of a detention basin. The requirement for construction of a detention system or a retention basin may be waived in the following cases:

1. The runoff has been included in a storage facility at another location.
2. An application for a building permit to construct a single-family residential structure.
3. Development adjacent to a floodway or a watercourse drainage channel which has been determined by the Community development department using engineering analyses provided by the development to have been designed and constructed to handle the additional runoff flow without increasing the potential for flood damage on any other downstream property.

4. Development of a parcel under one-half acre in an area where it can be demonstrated by engineering analyses that no significant increase in the potential for flood damage will be created by the development.

If storage is waived, the development shall be required to contribute to the cost of public drainage works on the basis of runoff contribution.

- b. Stormwater storage facilities shall be designed and constructed according to the procedures and criteria established by the Community including the following:
1. The extent of the area to be used to estimate development storage requirements is the entire proposed development including: streets, alleys, easements and rights-of-way, and one-half or other fractional parts of streets, alleys, easements and rights-of-way.
  2. If possible, storage facilities are to be located so they can intercept the flow from the entire development.
  3. If portions of the area cannot drain to a primary storage facility then additional facilities are to be added for these additional areas as approved by the director of the Community development department. These facilities may include individual lot retention.
  4. No stormwater storage facility shall detain or retain standing water longer than 36 hours if the basin has not been designed and constructed to be a permanent body of water with appropriate health, safety, and water quality measures for such a body of water.

- c. Stormwater storage facilities are to be drained by either controlled bleed-off, discharge pump and, in limited cases, by infiltration or dry well or injection wells. Controlled bleed-off or pumping to a recognized watercourse is the preferred method. Methods which discharge stored stormwater to the underground must be approved by the floodplain administrator.
- (12) Parking in flood hazard areas. Parking areas shall be permitted within regulatory floodways provided that there will be no overnight parking, that there will be no unattended vehicles, and that there will be no obstruction to the natural flow of water.
- a. Overnight parking shall be considered to exist when a vehicle is left unattended during the hours from sunset to sunrise.
  - b. The term "unattended" means that the owner or authorized driver cannot reasonably be expected to be available to remove the vehicle before flooding occurs.
- Whenever parking is permitted within regulatory floodways, warning signs shall be posted by the parking area owner to indicate that the parking area is subject to flooding.
- (13) Special considerations in environmentally sensitive land areas.
- a. Existing watercourses with a capacity of 50 cubic feet per second or greater, disregarding any estimated peak discharge values, shall be maintained in their natural state unless it is determined that alterations are required to meet other provisions of this chapter.
  - b. A drainage and flood control easement will be dedicated to the Community which encompasses the area required to convey the base flood in the watercourse.
  - c. Road-wash crossings may disrupt the natural channel beyond the right-of-way limits if engineering investigations determine the need, and are approved by the director of project review.
  - d. Stormwater storage facilities may not be required in areas zoned for environmentally sensitive development if the Community staff determines that such facilities cannot be built without conflicting with the Community's environmentally sensitive lands ordinance requirements. If on-site stormwater storage facilities requirements are waived, the development may be required to contribute to the cost of public drainage works at another location on the basis of runoff contribution.
  - e. All drainage structures and detention facilities shall be constructed in such a manner as to minimize the impact on the natural environment, promote recharge and when finished, shall be revegetated to be compatible with nearby natural areas.
- (Code 1981, § 17.5-8; Code 2012, § 17.5-8; Ord. No. SRO-185-95, § H, 10-26-1994; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17.5-8, 5-30-2012)
- Sec. 17.5-9. Requirement for certifications and required permits.
- Before the Community will make a final inspection and grant a utility clearance for a single-family residential structure built in a regulatory floodway, a special flood hazard area or before the Community will grant a certificate of occupancy for a structure other than a single-family residential structure built in a regulatory floodway, the builder must submit certain certificates to the floodplain administrator. The certificates which are required pertain to lowest floor elevations, adjacent ground elevations and floodproofing. The following subsections describe the required certificates:
- (1) Certificates pertaining to elevations shall be made by either a civil engineer or land surveyor who is registered to practice in the State of Arizona.

- (2) Certificates pertaining to the adequacy of floodproofing shall be made by a civil engineer or architect who is registered to practice in the State of Arizona.
- (3) A certificate shall be submitted stating the as-built elevation (in relation to mean sea level) of the lowest floor of each new structure or substantial improvement to a structure built in a regulatory floodway. If the lowest floor is below grade on one or more sides, the certificate must also state the elevation of the floor immediately above the lowest floor. This certificate must indicate whether the structure does or does not have a basement. If a structure has been floodproofed, a statement of the elevation to which the structure was floodproofed must be included with this certificate.
- (4) For those structures which have been built in a regulatory floodway and have been floodproofed, a certificate shall be submitted which certifies that the floodproofing methods are adequate to withstand the flood depths, pressures, velocities, impact and uplift forces and other factors associated with the base flood conditions expected at the building site.

Sec. 17.5-10. Obstruction of a waterway prohibited.

No person, firm or corporation in the Community shall either obstruct or reduce the capacity of a watercourse by any use or by filling, dumping, or constructing or by any other means, except as provided in this chapter.

(Code 1981, § 17.5-10; Code 2012, § 17.5-10; Ord. No. SRO-185-95, § J, 10-26-1994; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17.5-10, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 17.5-11. Removal of obstructions.

(a) Any person who owns, occupies, or leases real property within the Community and who obstructs or reduces the capacity of a watercourse other than as provided for in this chapter, shall be deemed to have created a public nuisance. Such persons shall be notified in writing, either personally delivered or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, by the floodplain administrator or his or her authorized representative, to remove said obstructions or the materials creating the reduction of the capacity of a watercourse within ten days after receipt of said written notice. If the owner does not reside on such property, a duplicate shall also be sent to him or her at his or her last known address.

(b) If the owner, lessee, or occupant of such real property, after having been given notice as required by this chapter, does not comply and abate such conditions which constitute a public nuisance, the floodplain administrator shall be authorized to abate such condition at the expense of such owner, lessee or occupant.

(c) The floodplain administrator, or his or her authorized representative, shall prepare a verified statement and account of actual cost of such abatement, including inspection and other incidental costs in connection with such abatement. Said verified statement and account is hereby declared as a debt of such owner, lessee, or occupant. A copy of said statement and account shall be personally delivered or sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the party served with the original notice. The Community attorney may institute an action to collect the debts so created in the Community court at any time after delivery of said statement and account.

(d) Within ten days after receipt of the notice described in subsection (a) of this section, any person, firm or corporation may appeal the Community's request by serving written notice of appeal upon the Community secretary and shall be entitled to a hearing before the administrative hearing officer on said appeal. In the event such an appeal is filed, all proceedings shall be stayed pending disposition of the appeal. Any person, firm or corporation may also appeal to the Community land management board within ten days after the receipt of the statement and account prepared and served pursuant to subsection (c) of this section the amount of said debt by serving written notice of appeal upon the Community secretary which also shall stay all further proceedings pending disposition of said appeal. The decision of the land management board shall be final and not appealable.

(e) When, in the opinion of the floodplain administrator, there is immediate danger to life or property, constituting an emergency, as the result of any obstruction or reduction of the capacity of a watercourse not authorized under this chapter, he or she may order the immediate abatement of said condition notwithstanding the notice provisions provided in subsection (a) of this section. The cost of said abatement shall be collected in the same manner as other debts, as provided for in subsection (c) of this section.

(Code 1981, § 17.5-11; Code 2012, § 17.5-11; Ord. No. SRO-185-95, § K, 10-26-1994; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17.5-11, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 17.5-12. Penalties.

Any person, corporation, partnership or association violating or failing to comply with the provisions of this chapter, shall, upon conviction thereof, be guilty of a civil offense and be subject to a fine not to exceed $1,000.00 for each day of violation. Each day of violation of this chapter shall constitute a separate civil offense.

(Code 1981, § 17.5-12; Code 2012, § 17.5-12; Ord. No. SRO-185-95, § L, 10-26-1994; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 17.5-12, 5-30-2012)

ARTICLE I. IN GENERAL

Sec. 18-1. Conversion of wells from agricultural to domestic use.

(a) Policy. It is the policy of the Community that wells drilled within the Community for agricultural irrigation or for any other nondomestic purposes will be constructed in such a manner as to allow for conversion to domestic purposes with minimum reconstruction costs so as to ensure the members of the Community an uninterrupted supply of domestic water.

(b) Restrictions on issuance of permits. The building official shall not issue a building and construction permit pursuant to the zoning ordinance for the drilling or construction of a well to supply water for agricultural irrigation or for any other nondomestic use unless the plans and specifications indicate and the permit requires that the well be constructed in such a way that it can be readily converted to use supplying domestic water. Such wells shall have such protections against contamination as are required in wells constructed for domestic water supply. (Code 1981, § 18-1; Code 2012, § 18-1; Ord. No. SRO-96-85, §§ 1, 2, 1-23-1985; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 18-1, 5-30-2012; Ord. No. SRO-469-2015, 7-1-2015)

Secs. 18-2—18-20. Reserved.

ARTICLE II. GROUNDWATER MANAGEMENT

Sec. 18-21. Short title.

This article may be referred to as the "Groundwater Management Code." (Code 1981, § 18-21; Code 2012, § 18-21; Ord. No. SRO-94-85, § 1, 12-23-1985; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 18-21, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 18-22. Policy.

The groundwaters of the Community are in one groundwater basin underlying the Community. The owners of the land have a right to the reasonable and beneficial use of such waters to the extent that such use does not defeat the right of other landowners to reasonable and beneficial use of such waters. It is the policy of the Community that use of such groundwater should be subject to an equitable system of control, distribution, allocation and regulation so as to achieve the maximum beneficial use and conservation of such waters in recognition of the drain on the water resource and the changing state of the art of the use of water and the ability to determine the usable extent of the resource. It is the goal of the Community that groundwater use will be limited to replenishable supplies. (Code 1981, § 18-22; Code 2012, § 18-22; Ord. No. SRO-94-85, § 2, 1-23-1985; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 18-22, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 18-23. Scope of regulation.

This article shall regulate all groundwater within the Community. (Code 1981, § 18-23; Code 2012, § 18-23; Ord. No. SRO-94-85, § 4, 1-23-1985; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 18-23, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 18-24. Violation and penalty.

Any permittee who violates the conditions of the permit or the provisions of this article shall be subject to the forfeiture of the permit after notice and hearing as provided for in section 18-27. The Community shall have the jurisdiction to provide injunctive relief in order to prevent the use of groundwater in violation of this article upon a petition of the groundwater administrator. The Community court shall have the jurisdiction over civil actions brought by the groundwater administrator against permittees for civil damages resulting from the violation of the permit issued, or for using groundwater without a permit and such damages shall include the value of the water used in violation of this article, the cost of investigations and attorneys' fees and all hearing and court costs incurred. (Code 1981, § 18-24; Code 2012, § 18-24; Ord. No. SRO-94-85, § 10, 1-23-1985; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 18-24, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 18-25. Definitions.

The following words, terms and phrases, when used in this article, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

Groundwater means all water which is taken by well and pump or any like method from underground water sources except when such water is so taken by the Community for domestic water purposes of the members and Indian residents of the Community.

Groundwater administrator shall be the Community director of the Community development department or the director's designee or designees.

Reserved water rights means those rights to the use of waters recognized as reserved in accordance with the principles enunciated in Winters v. United States, 207 U.S. 564 (1908), Cappaert v. United States, 426 U.S. 128 (1976), and subsequent cases, which rights have either an immemorial priority or a priority date as of the establishment of the reservation.

Sec. 18-26. Permits; standards of issuance and use.

(a) Required. No groundwater may be used for any purpose unless the user has received a groundwater use permit from the groundwater administrator.

- (1) Within 60 days of the enactment of this article, the groundwater administrator shall send by certified mail notice of the enactment of the ordinance from which this article is derived, together with a copy of this article to each user of groundwater within the Community. Mailing of such notice shall be conclusive proof of receipt of notice.
- (2) Any person using groundwater at the time of the enactment of the ordinance from which this article is derived shall have a presumptive right to the use of such groundwater, in the amount used, for the term of any contract or other instrument which forms the basis of the groundwater use, or if there is no such contract or interest, for a period of five years. Such user shall apply for a groundwater use permit within 180 days of the enactment of the ordinance from which this article is derived. Failure to apply within such time shall result in the user's loss of any presumptive right. The presumptive right created by this section may be defeated by a fair showing that:

- a. The amount of water used for the purpose exceeds the amount of water required to achieve the purpose intended; or
- b. The purpose for which the water is used is wasteful of the resource in terms of other feasible uses.

If a finding under subsection (b)(2)a of this section is made, a groundwater use permit shall be issued for such an amount of groundwater as is reasonable and necessary for the use, provided the applicant submits to the groundwater administrator an amended application in the amount found to be reasonable and necessary for the use. If the use has been found to be wasteful under subsection (b)(2)b of this section, a permit may be issued only if the applicant submits to the groundwater administrator an amended application for an amount of water reasonable and necessary for a feasible alternative use. An amended application under subsection (b)(2)b of this section shall be treated as an application under subsection (c) of this section.

(c) Permits for new use.

- (1) Application. Any member of the Community or any other person who holds a contractual right which requires the use of water for its enjoyment or any allotted landowner of the land for which a groundwater permit is being sought may apply for a groundwater use permit. The application shall be on a form provided by the Community and shall provide information sufficient to enable the groundwater administrator to make a decision in regard to the issuance of a permit and to enable the groundwater administrator to impose reasonable use criteria on any issued permit.

(2) Groundwater use permit.

- a. A groundwater use permit may be issued for a period of five years if the use to which the water is to be put is agricultural and the land on which the water is to be used is not subject of a contract or other instrument.
- b. If the water is to be used for agricultural purposes and the land is subject of a contract or other instrument, then the permit may be issued for a period equal to that of the term of the contract or other instrument.
- c. If the use to which the water is to be put is other than agricultural, the term of any groundwater use permit shall be coexistent with the term for which the use shall be reasonably required by the applicant, but in no event longer than the term of any contract or other instrument under which the use arises.

(3) Determination of permitted water. The amount of water permitted to be used under each groundwater use permit shall be determined by the need proven, and the available groundwater resources for all potential uses within the Community lands subject of this article.

(d) Use permits conditional. All groundwater use permits shall be issued conditioned on a term of use; the nature of the use permitted; and the amount of water to be used per week, month or year, depending on the nature of use; the parcel or tract of land within which the use will take place; and upon such other reasonable conditions as the groundwater administrator shall determine is necessary to carry out the policies of this article.

(e) Actual and potential use permits. Groundwater use permits may be issued for actual and potential uses. Groundwater use permits issued for potential uses shall be limited in time so that water resources will not be reserved beyond a reasonable period of time. For good and sufficient cause shown, extension in time may be granted.

(f) Permits conditioned on available water. All groundwater use permits shall be conditioned on the right of the groundwater administrator to change the amount or permitted use of groundwater depending on changing quantities of available groundwater. Any such change by the groundwater administrator shall be based upon clear and convincing evidence that the change is required to ensure the future availability of the resource, and shall be subject to the notice, hearing and appellate procedures of this article. (Code 1981, § 18-26; Code 2012, § 18-26; Ord. No. SRO-94-85, § 5, 1-23-1985; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 18-26, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 18-27. Application procedure.

(a) Any application for a groundwater use permit pursuant to section 18-26(b) or (c) shall be made to the groundwater administrator with an application fee as provided by the rules and regulations. The groundwater administrator shall determine whether and under what conditions a groundwater use permit shall be issued after a hearing has been held. The hearing shall be noticed by certified mail or delivered notice to all landowners owning land which is within the Community and within one mile of the perimeter of the land within which the water use is to be made, and all of the land within which the water use is to be made, and all persons having a right to use land which is within the Community and within one mile of the perimeter of the land within which the water use is to be made pursuant to a valid contract or other instrument, and by notice in the Community newspaper. Notice shall be given no less than ten days prior to such hearing. Mailing of notice shall be conclusive proof of receipt of notice. The hearing shall be conducted by the groundwater administrator in an informal manner with rules adopted pursuant to this article calculated to ensure full disclosure of all relevant information. Professional attorneys shall not be permitted to represent parties at any such hearing. The groundwater administrator shall hear all relevant issues and within five days after the hearing is concluded, shall issue a written decision. The decision will contain the findings of fact relied on by the groundwater administrator for the decision as well as the decision. The findings of fact and decision shall be distributed to the applicant and any other land user or Community member who files a notice of appearance pursuant to subsection (b) of this section.

(b) A decision of the groundwater administrator may be appealed to the Community court by the applicant, any Community member or other person having the right to the use of land within the Community, who files a notice of appearance with the groundwater administrator before the hearing is adjourned.

(c) Appeals shall be taken from any decision of the groundwater administrator in the following manner:

- (1) Notice of appeal. Written notice of appeal shall be given within five days after the day the written and executed decision is filed with the secretary of the Community. The notice of appeal shall state all the grounds for appeal relied on by the appellant. The notice of appeal shall not be amended once it is filed. The appellee may file a short written response to the grounds for appeal within ten days after the notice of appeal is filed. The notice of appeal and response shall be mailed to the opposing party on the day it is filed. If the appellant is the applicant for the groundwater use permit, the appellee shall in all cases be the groundwater administrator. If the appellant is a person who filed a notice of appearance, the appellee shall in all cases be the applicant. The applicant for the groundwater permit shall in all cases be permitted to appeal. No more than three persons who filed notice of appearance, in addition to the applicant for the permit, shall be permitted to appeal the decision of the groundwater administrator. The first three such notices of appeal shall conclude filings.

- (2) Costs. There shall be posted with the clerk of the Community court a cash fee of $25.00 to cover costs of the court.
- (3) Grounds for appeal. The court shall determine the appeal upon the findings of fact and decision entered in the case by the groundwater administrator.
- (4) Findings of fact. The findings of fact shall be presumed to be without reversible error. The presumption may be overcome by a sworn written statement presented to the court at the time of the filing of the notice of appeal which establishes on the basis of the statement, any one or more of the following grounds:
  - a. A witness ready and willing to testify at the time of the hearing on behalf of the appellant was not allowed by the groundwater administrator to take the witness stand and testify, and such testimony would have materially altered the decision of the groundwater administrator.
  - b. The groundwater administrator refused to admit documentary or other physical evidence, and such evidence would have materially altered the decision of the groundwater administrator.
  - c. After the hearing the appellant discovered material evidence which, with reasonable diligence, could not have been discovered and produced at the hearing, and such evidence would have materially altered the decision of the groundwater administrator.

In the event the court finds the presumption is overcome pursuant to this subsection, the court shall remand the case back to the groundwater administrator for the limited purpose of hearing only the excluded or new evidence and any evidence presented in rebuttal to such evidence. The hearing will be held within ten days after the order of the court prior to its decision to give the court such parties and appellee. At the conclusion of such remand hearing, the groundwater administrator trator shall, within ten days of the hearing, make and enter such amended findings of fact and decision as the groundwater administrator deems necessary, or in the event the groundwater administrator determines that the evidence adduced at the remand hearing requires no amendment, the groundwater administrator will issue a decision reaffirming its prior findings of fact and decision. The findings of fact and decision will be transmitted to the court and such findings of fact and decision will not be subject to a separate appeal.

- (5) Decision. The court shall determine whether the decision is supported by the finding of fact and the law. Any party to the case may request an opportunity to appear before the court prior to its decision to give the court such parties view of the case. The other party or parties shall be given adequate notice of the hearing and an opportunity to present such party or parties view of the case. Such views shall be presented orally by the parties and shall only deal with the ground relied on by the appellant as set out in the notice of appeal. The hearing shall be limited to one hour and the time will be equally divided between the appellant and the appellee. If the court finds that the decision is incorrect, it shall issue a new decision correctly stating the decision. Such decision shall be final and not subject to rehearing, review or appeal.

Sec. 18-29. Records of water usage.

The record shall be maintained contemporaneously with withdrawal and use and shall contain the amount of water withdrawn on a weekly basis; the use to which it was put; the location of the use; the amount and cost of electrical power in connection with the withdrawal; and such other information as shall reasonably be required by the groundwater administrator. A true and complete copy of such records certified by the permittee to be accurate shall be filed by the permittee with the groundwater administrator on the 15th day of each month for the prior month.

ARTICLE IV. SURFACE WATER MANAGEMENT

Sec. 18-86. Short title.

This article may be referred to as the "Surface Water Management Code."

(Code 1981, § 18-71; Code 2012, § 18-71; Ord. No. SRO-199-95, 5-3-1995; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 18-71, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 18-87. Policy.

The rights of the Community to the waters of the Salt and Verde Rivers and the Central Arizona Project (surface water) have been quantified by the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community Water Rights Settlement Agreement of 1988 and the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community Water Rights Settlement Act of 1988 (Act). These rights constitute an invaluable asset of the Community which ought to be wisely managed for the benefit of the members of the Community and landowners within the Community. It is the policy of the Community that use of such surface water should be subject to an equitable system of control, distribution, allocation and regulation so as to achieve the maximum beneficial use and conservation of such waters in recognition of the drain on the water resource and the changing state of the art of the use of water and the varying annual quantity of available Community water. Surface water shall first be used to satisfy the agricultural requirements of the Community's lands, and then be used for appropriate commercial purposes. Groundwater shall be used for domestic and commercial purposes which require no water treatment beyond fluoridation. (Code 1981, § 18-72; Code 2012, § 18-72; Ord. No. SRO-199-95, 5-3-1995; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 18-72, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 18-88. Scope of regulation.

This article shall regulate all surface water of the Community.

(Code 1981, § 18-73; Code 2012, § 18-73; Ord. No. SRO-199-95, 5-3-1995; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 18-73, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 18-89. Definitions.

The following terms, when used in this article, shall have the meanings ascribed herein, except where context clearly indicates a different meaning:

Regulated surface water means water diverted from any surface watercourse or surface water storage facility and carried to the Community for any other purpose.

Surface water administrator means the director of the Community development department or the director's designee or designees.

Unregulated surface water or effluent means water which, after having been withdrawn as groundwater or diverted as surface water, has been used for domestic, municipal, agricultural or industrial purposes and which is available for reuse for any purpose, whether or not the water has been treated to improve its quality.

Sec. 18-90. Permits; standards of issuance and use.

(a) Permit required. No surface water may be used for any purpose unless the user has received a surface water use permit from the surface water administrator.

- (1) Within 60 days of the enactment of this article, the surface water administrator shall send, by certified mail, notice of the enactment of this article, together with a copy of this article to each user of surface water within the Community. Mailing of such notice shall be conclusive proof of receipt of notice.
- (2) Any person using regulated surface water at the time of the enactment of the ordinance from which this article is derived shall have a presumptive right to the use of such surface water, in the amount used, for the term of any contract or other instrument which forms the basis of the surface water use, or, if there is no such contract or interest, for a period of five years. Such user shall apply for a surface water use permit within 180 days of the enactment of the ordinance from which this article is derived. Failure to apply within such time shall result in the user's loss of any presumptive right. The presumptive right created by this section may be defeated by a fair showing that:

- a. The amount of water used for the purpose exceeds the amount of water required to achieve the purpose intended; or
- b. The purpose for which the water issued is wasteful of the resource in terms of other feasible uses.

If a finding under subsection (b)(2)a of this section is made, a surface water use permit shall be issued for such an amount of surface water as is reasonable and necessary for the use, provided the applicant submits to the surface water administrator an amended application in the amount found to be reasonable and necessary for the use. If the use has been found to be wasteful under subsection (b)(2)b of this section, a permit may be issued only if the applicant submits to the surface water administrator an amended application for an amount of water reasonable and necessary for a feasible alternative use. An amended application under subsection (b)(2)b of this section shall be treated as an application under subsection (c) of this section.

- (3) Any allottee or other person upon whose property unregulated surface water occurs, whether naturally or whether by return or salvage, is presumed to have usage rights to such water. These persons are not required to obtain a permit for use of such water.

(c) Permits for new use.

- (1) Permit form. Any member of the Community or any other person who holds a contractual right which requires the use of water for its enjoyment or any allotted landowner of the land for which a surface water permit is being sought may apply for a surface water use permit. The application shall be on a form provided by the Community and shall provide information sufficient to enable the surface water administrator to make a decision in regard to the issuance of a permit and to enable the surface water administrator to impose reasonable use criteria on any issued permit.

(2) Term.

- a. A surface water use permit may be issued for a period of five years if the use to which the water is to be put is agricultural and the land on which the water is to be used is not subject to a contract or other instrument.
- b. If the water is to be used for agricultural purposes and the land is subject to a contract or other instrument, then the permit may be issued for a period equal to that of the term of the contract or other instrument.
- c. If the use to which the water is to be put is other than agricultural, the term of any surface water use permit shall be coexistent with the term for which the use shall be reasonably required by the applicant, but in no event longer than the term of any contract or other instrument under which the use arises.

- (3) Determination of amount of water. The amount of regulated surface water permitted to be used under each surface water use permit shall be determined by both the need proven and the available supply of surface water.

- a. Use permits conditional. All surface water use permits shall be issued conditioned on:

1. A term of use;
2. The nature of the use permitted;
3. The amount of water to be used per week, month or year, depending on the nature of use;

4. The parcel or tract of land within which the use will take place; and
  5. Upon such other reasonable conditions as the surface water administrator shall determine are necessary to carry out the policies of this article.
- b. Actual and potential use permits. Surface water use permits may be issued for actual and potential uses. Surface water use permits issued for potential uses shall be limited in time so that water resources will not be reserved beyond a reasonable period of time. For good and sufficient cause shown, extension in time may be granted.
  - c. Permits conditioned on available water. All surface water use permits shall be conditioned on the right of the surface water administrator to change the amount or permitted use of surface water depending on changing quantities of available regulated surface water. Any such change by the surface water administrator shall be based upon the administrator's written finding that the change is required to ensure the equitable distribution of the resource, and shall be subject to the notice, hearing and appellate procedures of this article.
  - d. Redetermination of water requirements. The surface water administrator may, upon notice and hearing, and subject to the appellate provisions of this article, determine that the use of water by a permittee in any year requires a redetermination of such permittee's water requirements and the surface water administrator may, upon a written finding, reduce the amount of water to be used in the remaining years of the permit to the amount actually required.

(d) Renewal. Permittees must apply for a renewal of a permit at least six months prior to its expiration. In the absence of clear and convincing evidence that a permit should not be renewed, it will be renewed. Renewal may be on different terms than contained in the prior permit and the applicant shall be required to meet the standards of this article for the issuance of a permit for a use with a presumptive right.

Sec. 18-91. Shortage; retired agricultural lands.

(a) Shortage. When the surface water administrator determines that there will be insufficient surface supplies for a stated period of time, the surface water administrator shall determine in a written finding the facts leading to the conclusion, the conclusion of shortage and the determination of reallocation of surface water to permittees.

- (1) The findings will be made only after a public hearing which has been noticed at least ten days prior to its conveying and at which testimony and written memoranda regarding the issue of water availability shall be received by the surface water administrator, who shall be the hearing officer, unless the surface water administrator designates another person to be the hearing officer.
- (2) The allocation of surface water shall be accomplished by an equal reduction in water supplies delivered in the most efficient time pattern as determined by the surface water administrator whether or not any permittee is disadvantaged thereby.

(b) Extended water shortage. The surface water administrator shall impose a moratorium on the delivery of surface water to agricultural or other uses which have not had delivery of surface water to the time the moratorium commences if the surface water administrator makes written findings pursuant to the process provided in subsection (a)(1) of this section that a finding requiring a reallocation under this section has been made for the period just ending and for the ensuing period.

(c) Retirement of agricultural lands and other uses. Permits for surface water delivery for agricultural or other purposes shall terminate when the use for which the permit was issued lapses. (Code 1981, § 18-76; Code 2012, § 18-76; Ord. No. SRO-199-95, 5-3-1995; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 18-76, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 18-92. Application procedure.

(a) Any application for a surface water use permit pursuant to section 18-90 shall be made to the surface water administrator with an application fee as provided by the rules and regulations. The surface water administrator shall determine whether and under what conditions a surface water use permit shall be issued after a hearing has been held. The hearing shall be noticed by certified mail or delivered notice to all landowners owning land which is within the Community and within one mile of the perimeter of the land within which the water use is to be made, and all of the land within which the water use is to be made, and all persons having a right to use land which is within the Community and within one mile of the perimeter of the land within which the water use is to be made pursuant to a valid contract or other instrument, and by notice in the Community newspaper. Notice shall be given no less than ten days prior to such hearing. Mailing of notice shall be conclusive proof of receipt of notice. The hearing shall be conducted by the surface water administrator in an informal manner with rules adopted pursuant to this article calculated to ensure full disclosure of all relevant information. Professional attorneys shall not be permitted to represent parties at any such hearing. The surface water administrator shall hear all relevant issues and, within five days after the hearing is concluded, shall issue a written decision. The decision will contain the findings of fact relied on by the surface water administrator for the decision as well as the decision. The findings of fact and decision shall be distributed to the applicant and any other land user or Community member who files a notice of appearance pursuant to subsection (b) of this section.

(b) A decision of the surface water administrator may be appealed to the Community court by the applicant, any Community member, or other person having the right to the use of land within the Community, who files a notice of appearance with the surface water administrator before the hearing is adjourned.

(c) Appeals shall be taken from any decision of the surface water administrator in the following manner:

- (1) Notice of appeal. Written notice of appeal shall be given within five days after the day the written and executed decision is filed with the secretary of the Community. The notice of appeal shall state all the grounds for appeal relied on by the appellant. The notice of appeal shall not be amended once it is filed. The appellee may file a short written response to the grounds for appeal within ten days after the notice of appeal is filed. The notice of appeal and response shall be mailed to the opposing party on the day it is filed. If the appellant is the applicant for the surface water use permit, the appellee shall, in all cases, be the surface water administrator. If the appellant is a person who filed a notice of appearance, the appellee shall, in all cases, be the applicant. The applicant for the surface water permit shall, in all cases, be permitted to appeal. No more than three persons who filed notice of appearance, in addition to the applicant for the permit, shall be permitted to appeal the decision of the surface water administrator. The first three such notices of appeal shall conclude filings.
- (2) Costs. There shall be posted with the clerk of the Community court a cash fee of $25.00 to cover costs of the court.
- (3) Grounds for appeal. The court shall determine the appeal upon the findings of fact and decision entered in the case by the surface water administrator.
- (4) Findings of fact. The findings of fact shall be presumed to be without reversible error. The presumption may be overcome by a sworn written statement presented to the court at the time of the filing of the notice of appeal which establishes, on the basis of the statement, any one or more of the following grounds:

- a. That a witness ready and willing to testify at the time of the hearing on behalf of the appellant was not allowed by the surface water administrator to take the witness stand and testify, and such testimony would have materially altered the decision of the surface water administrator.
- b. That the surface water administrator refused to admit documentary or other physical evidence, and such evidence would have materially altered the decision of the surface water administrator.
- c. That after the hearing the appellant discovered material evidence which, with reasonable diligence, could not have been discovered and produced at the hearing, and such evidence would have materially altered the decision of the surface water administrator.

In the event the court finds the presumption is overcome pursuant to this subsection, the court shall remand the case back to the surface water administrator for the limited purpose of hearing only the excluded or new evidence and any evidence presented in rebuttal to such evidence. The hearing will be held within ten days after the order of the court prior to its decision to give the court such parties and appellee. At the conclusion of such remand hearing, the surface water administrator shall, within ten days of the hearing, make and enter such amended findings of fact and decision as the surface water administrator deems necessary, or, in the event the surface water administrator determines that the evidence adduced at the remand hearing requires no amendment, the surface water administrator will issue a decision reaffirming its prior findings of fact and decision. The findings of fact and decision will be transmitted to the court and such findings of fact and decision will not be subject to a separate appeal.

- (5) Decision. The court shall determine whether the decision is supported by the finding of fact and the law. Any party to the case may request an opportunity to appear before the court prior to its decision to give the court such party's view of the case. The other party or parties shall be given adequate notice of the hearing and an opportunity to present such party's or parties' view of the case. Such views shall be presented orally by the parties and shall only deal with the ground relied on by the appellant as set out in the notice of appeal. The hearing shall be limited to one hour and the time will be equally divided between the appellant and the appellee. If the court finds that the decision is incorrect, it shall issue a new decision correctly stating the decision. Such decision shall be final and not subject to rehearing, review or appeal.

- (2) The use to which it was put;
- (3) The location of the use; and

- (4) Such other information as shall reasonably be required by the surface water administrator.

(b) A true and complete copy of such records certified by the permittee to be accurate shall be filed by the permittee with the surface water administrator on the 15th day of each month for the prior month. The surface water administrator shall monitor the accuracy of the records.

Any permittee who violates the conditions of the permit or the provisions of this article shall be subject to the forfeiture of the permit after notice and hearing as provided for in section 18-92. The Community shall have the jurisdiction to provide injunctive relief in order to prevent the use of surface water in violation of this article upon a petition of the surface water administrator. The Community court shall have the jurisdiction over civil actions brought by the surface water administrator against permittees for civil damages resulting from the violation of the permit issued, or for using surface water without a permit, and such damages shall include the value of the water used in violation of this article, the cost of investigations and attorney's fees, and all hearing and court costs incurred.

ARTICLE V. GRUSP GROUNDWATER RECHARGE CONTROL AND QUALITY PROTECTION

Sec. 18-123. Declaration of policy.

It is the policy of the Community that the groundwater underlying Community lands be protected from contamination resulting from contact with Community landfills. In furtherance of that policy, a plan and appropriate regulations shall be established to help ensure separation between groundwater levels and low points of the landfill refuse cells. The purpose of this plan and its related regulations is to provide the Community a mechanism by which it may adjust groundwater levels in the event of an emergency involving the rapid rise of such levels. Furthermore, additional regulations designed to improve Community oversight of groundwater quality shall be authorized. This plan and its related regulations are in no way intended to alleviate or absolve the Salt River Project or any other interested parties from their respective duties and obligations in maintaining safe groundwater levels and preserving groundwater quality.

Sec. 18-125. Water quality regulation.

Primary authority to preserve the integrity of the Community's groundwater is in the Community development department (CDD). The CDD is authorized to monitor and regulate groundwater quality and perform necessary related functions. Such functions include developing appropriate regulations as required herein and providing appropriate oversight procedures to ensure Community and GRUSP permittee compliance with this article and relevant groundwater quality standards. These functions shall be performed by CDD subject to the supervision of the CDD director and of the Community manager or his or her designee. This responsibility is delegated by the Community Council, and such delegation may be reassigned by the council by resolution should the need arise.

Sec. 18-126. Operational management and MSL regulation.

Primary authority for carrying out the Community's operational and management functions set forth in this article is in the engineering and construction services department (ECS). Such functions include performing the management and enforcement functions set forth below, as well monitoring groundwater levels and rates of flow and rise into and out of the GRUSP to ensure that the maximum safe level (MSL) is maintained. These functions shall be performed by ECS subject to the supervision of the ECS director and the Community manager, or their respective designee(s). #### Sec. 18-127. Formulation and adoption of regulations.

CDD, in conjunction with ECS, shall formulate regulations that prescribe the maximum safe level of groundwater underlying Community landfills, recognizing that the maximum safe level may vary from time-to-time depending upon the quantity of Salt River and Verde River waters being released from the facilities of the Salt River Project as determined by factors including but not limited to the water level of the associated reservoir, the extent of Salt River and Verde River watersheds snow cover, and precipitation predictions. Such regulations shall require periodic reports from the Salt River Project on groundwater levels as determined from various means including but not limited to monitoring well depth-to-groundwater levels, water recharge quantities, groundwater withdrawals from the associated Aquifer through supply wells, and data described above which determines the release of river water from the Salt River Project facilities. Formulated regulations shall be furnished, together with an invitation to submit written comments, to other Community departments and agencies having an interest in the subject and to the Salt River Project. After reviewing the comments, CDD and ECS shall submit the proposed final regulations to the Community Council for its consideration and approval. CDD, in conjunction with ECS, may issue temporary regulations that shall be in effect during the comment and review process.

Sec. 18-128. Enforcement authority.

ECS shall have the authority to enforce the maximum safe level of groundwater by issuing orders to the Salt River Project limiting and prohibiting groundwater recharge. This authority will be applicable not only if the maximum safe level has been exceeded, but also in instances where the maximum safe level has not been exceeded. The Community may enforce orders issued pursuant to this section by excluding the violators from the GRUSP or by other appropriate means.

ARTICLE I. IN GENERAL

Sec. 20-1. Nonprobate transfers of final per capita check upon death.

(a) An adult person may designate a beneficiary to receive a non-probate transfer (upon that person's death) of the person's uncashed final gaming per capita distribution check.

(b) To be designated a valid beneficiary, the designation must be made on a "per capita beneficiary form" that meets the following requirements:

- (1) In writing on a form provided by the Community's finance department;
- (2) On file with the Community's finance department;
- (3) Designate a beneficiary who is over the age of 18 years, and is the person's spouse, child, parent, sibling, grandparent, aunt/uncle, or grandchild);
- (4) Include up-to-date and accurate contact information for the beneficiary, so that the finance department may locate the beneficiary upon the person's death;
- (5) The per capita distribution check must be lawfully owned by an adult decedent before their death (meaning that the enrolled Community member was alive and certified in the enrollment count in the official SRPMIC enrollment certification approved by the Community Council);
- (6) The beneficiary must pick up the per capita check within 60 days of designated per capita distribution date (after 60 days the per capita distribution becomes an asset of the decedent's probate estate).

(c) Any court ordered debts that the finance department has record of, including child support or other court ordered payments, are required to be paid prior to any distribution of the final check to the beneficiary.

(d) The Community is released from liability if it releases the per capita check according to the terms of decedent's "per capita beneficiary form".

(e) This section only applies in situations when the Community distributes the person's per capita distribution via written check or the Community is informed of the death in time, and can stop direct deposit payments to a third party banking institution. However, once the Community has transferred the per capita distributions (normally, the Friday prior to the first day of the scheduled per capita distribution) to a banking institution via direct deposit, this section no longer applies.

(f) If all of the above requirements are met, then the adult decedent's uncashed gaming per capita distribution check shall be deemed a non-probate asset. As such, the check may bypass probate, and a check will be issued directly in the named beneficiary. Beneficiary would be responsible for any tax liability of this check issued in their name.

(g) This section is consistent with the Community's gaming revenue allocation plan. (Ord. No. SRO-483-2016, 8-3-2016; Ord. No. SRO-484-2016, 8-24-2016)

(d) Notice of hearing civil citation. At the time the hearing date is set pursuant to subsection (b) this section, a notice shall set out the time, date and place of hearing the civil offense. The hearing shall be set for no less than 30 days nor more than 90 days after issuance of the notice.

Secs. 20-57—20-85. Reserved.

ARTICLE IV. WELFARE ASSISTANCE

Sec. 20-86. Enactment and purpose.

(a) Background and purpose. The Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community (Community) is a federally recognized Indian Tribe, organized under a Constitution adopted and approved in accordance with section 16 of the Indian Reorganization Act of 1934, codified at 25 USC 461 et seq. The Constitution confirms the sovereign duty and responsibility of the Community to maintain the culture and independence of its members, to encourage the economic well-being of its members, and to promote the rights of its members and their common welfare. Article VII, section 1 of the Constitution further directs the Community Council in exercising its sovereign powers, to protect the public health, morals and private property rights of its members, to provide for the public welfare and particularly the welfare and protection of children, the poor, unfortunate, disabled and aged, and to preserve the history and culture of the people of the Community. The Community exercises its sovereign power to provide member assistance under the Internal Revenue Service' general welfare doctrine:

- (1) The Internal Revenue Service, through its general welfare doctrine, has recognized the sovereign right of all governments, including federally recognized Indian tribes, to provide public health, safety, basic need and financial support assistance to individuals under certain circumstances on a nontaxable basis.
- (2) The Community, as a sovereign government, exercises its right to provide general welfare assistance through the Community Council's approval of programs to foster the public health, safety, basic needs, cultural preservation and financial assistance to Community members consistent with the Community Constitution, and desires to affirm its sovereign right to do so on a nontaxable basis.
- (3) The first purpose of this article is to memorialize the procedures used by the Community to determine what services or programs are needed to promote public health, safety and other basic need services for the general welfare of the Community such as sewer, water, electrical service/power, infrastructure, housing, public sanitation services, public education and other such functions that support the long historical and cultural general welfare of the Community.
- (4) The second purpose of this article is to establish basic guidelines and procedures for programs to follow in ensuring compliance with the general welfare doctrine.

(b) Ratification of prior acts; intent of legislation. This article does not establish a new program or programs. This article is intended to memorialize and confirm existing procedures used in the administration of general welfare assistance programs and services and is not to be construed as the creation of new general welfare assistance rights that previously did not exist. Assistance provided prior to the enactment of this article is hereby ratified and confirmed as general welfare assistance pursuant to the authority of the Community Constitution. It is intended to establish a framework to improve the coordination of general welfare doctrine compliance. Programs and services referred to herein must be authorized by independent action of the council or its designees.

(c) General welfare doctrine. The Internal Revenue Service recognizes that payments by a Community government to Community members under a legislatively provided social benefit program for the promotion of the general welfare of the Community are excludable from the gross income of those Community members who receive said payments. The assistance payments and services authorized by this article are intended to qualify for favorable tax treatment under the general welfare doctrine to the fullest extent permitted by law. All amounts budgeted by the Community for welfare assistance payments shall remain general assets of the Community until such payments are disbursed; the welfare assistance payment arrangement authorized by this article shall be an unfunded arrangement, and shall be limited to appropriated funds at the discretion of the council from time-to-time.

(d) Nonresource designation. General welfare services and payments hereunder are paid from assets of Community government; all payments are based on budget availability of the Community government, and the Community government does not guarantee any payments hereunder. Benefits paid hereunder on the basis of need shall not be treated as a resource of the member for any purpose. The council reserves the right to cancel, adjust, modify or revoke any benefits that are treated as a resource of the Community member.

(e) Federal trust obligations; executive orders. The Community reserves the right to provide assistance, including circumstances where federal funding is insufficient to operate federal programs designed to benefit Community members and when federal funding is insufficient to adequately and consistently fulfill federal trust obligations. The Community's adoption of approved programs is not intended to relieve or diminish the federal government of its funding and trust responsibilities. Nothing herein shall waive the Community's right to seek funding shortfalls or to enforce the trust rights of the Community and its members. The Community shall be entitled to government-to-government consultation and coordination rights in regard to this article including, without limitation, those rights and responsibilities mandated under Executive Order 13175 or any successor documents or orders thereto.

(f) Governing law. All rights and liabilities associated with the enactment of this article, or the welfare assistance payments made hereunder, shall be construed and enforced according to the laws of the Community.

(g) Sovereignty. Nothing in this article or the related policies or procedures, if any, shall be construed as or interpreted to constitute a waiver of sovereign immunity or to make applicable any laws or regulations which the Community is entitled to exemption from in accordance with its sovereign status.

(Code 1981, § 20-41; Code 2012, § 20-41; Ord. No. SRO-357-2010, § I, 1-27-2009; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 20-41, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 20-87. Definitions.

(a) The following words, terms and phrases, when used in this article, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

Approved program means any program or programs approved by the Community Council to provide assistance intended to qualify for treatment under the general welfare doctrine.

Assistance means benefits or payments under an approved program, which are paid to or on behalf of a beneficiary pursuant to this article and the definition of the term "general welfare doctrine" in this section.

- (1) Provided on a needs basis (which need not necessarily be based on individual financial needs);
- (2) For a purpose deemed to benefit the general welfare of the Community including, without limitation, the promotion of public health, safety, basic needs, cultural preservation and financial assistance to Community members consistent with the Community Constitution, sewer, water, infrastructure, housing, public sanitation services, electrical service/power, public education and other such functions to support the long historical and cultural general welfare of the Community; and
- (3) In no event, will general welfare doctrine payments be made on a per capita basis or as compensation for services.

(Code 1981, § 20-42; Code 2012, § 20-42; Ord. No. SRO-357-2010, § II, 1-27-2009; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 20-42, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 20-88. Provision of general welfare assistance.

(a) Council approved programs. The Community Council shall designate funding to programs through annual fiscal year budget processes, consistent with the purposes of this article.

(b) Purpose. Approved programs shall serve purposes consistent with treatment under the general welfare doctrine. Such purposes may include, by way of example and not by way of limitation, assistance for public health, medical care, shelter, cultural preservation, infrastructure, and subsistence benefits. Any approved program must be established and operated to promote the general welfare of the Community, including, without limitation, programs designed to enhance the promotion of health, education, self-sufficiency, self determination, Community image and the maintenance of culture and tradition, entrepreneurship, and the employment of Community members.

(c) Eligibility and application procedures. Assistance intended to qualify for general welfare doctrine treatment shall be limited to enrolled members of the Community. Each approved program shall set forth the specific eligibility rules and limitations applied to that program. Each designated department or Community division shall present program descriptions, which include eligibility rules and limitations, along with application forms and procedures, for approval by the council or its designee. Only those descriptions, application forms and procedures which are approved by the council or its designee shall be in force and effect.

(d) Limited use of assistance payments/services. All assistance disbursed or provided pursuant to this article must be used for the purpose stated in the approved program description, and the Community member's application for the applicable assistance. In the event that assistance payments and/or services are used or pledged for a purpose inconsistent with the purpose set forth in the applicable approved program or the beneficiary's application, the council or designee shall require the repayment of the welfare assistance payment. The council or designee is authorized to offset any other payments owed to a Community member if such an offset is necessary to secure repayment of a welfare assistance payment in accordance with this subsection.

(Code 1981, § 20-43; Code 2012, § 20-43; Ord. No. SRO-357-2010, § III, 1-27-2009; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 20-43, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 20-89. Determination of needs based programs.

(a) Needs basis; eligibility certification. All assistance disbursed pursuant to this article shall be needs based in accordance with the applicable

Community income and need guidelines in effect at the time said benefits are paid. A beneficiary must certify his or her financial needs, and that the assistance benefits do not exceed the amount of the beneficiary's financial need. The Community's offices, or other departments that the council may designate, shall adopt procedures and forms for certifying a beneficiary's eligibility for assistance under the general Community income and need guidelines.

(b) Community income and need guidelines. The Community Council shall establish minimum standards of living and income guidelines for purposes of determining a beneficiary's qualification for needs based benefits hereunder. The council may look for guidance from federal guidelines such as the federal poverty levels, federal earned income credit levels, and median income figures for national, state, local and/or other communities. However, the council, as the sovereign government of the Community, shall retain ultimate authority in establishing minimum standards of living within the Community. In doing so, the council may take into account such issues as the number of dependants in a household, the level of household income, and household expenditures, the average and median Community incomes, traditional and cultural values and financial matters unique to the Community. Different approved programs may include different income and need guidelines. It is recognized, for example, that certain programs with federal or state funding may require additional guidelines, and programs with limited funding may need to implement additional restrictions to meet program specific budget limitations. In the absence of a specific program guideline to the contrary, the Community shall use median income guidelines that are published by the Census Bureau or other federal agencies and adjusted annually.

(c) Community needs determinations. In lieu of or in addition to subsections (a) or (b) of this section, the Community Council may also designate certain assistance or programs as necessary to satisfy a core need of the Community itself, such as, but not limited to, the maintenance and improvement of Community infrastructure and housing, the long term promotion of an educated membership, the reversal of historic trends or barriers to self determination, preservation of Community traditions or culture, or the promotion of economic development and self determination within the Community; provided that any such program or assistance is consistent with the general welfare doctrine as codified herein and as may be amplified in published guidance from the Internal Revenue Service.

(d) Special circumstances. An individual who does not satisfy specific income guidelines may nonetheless qualify for an individual needs based program; provided that the individual demonstrates special circumstances such as high financial burdens and responsibilities. Special circumstance applications must include certifications and/or factual support established by the council or at the program level, as applicable, showing consistency with the general welfare doctrine.

(e) Infrastructure, health care, housing and education as core needs. Notwithstanding anything in a particular program to the contrary, Community infrastructure and safety standards, member health care, consistent with the historic policies and purposes of the Indian Health Care Improvement Act, and housing and education related assistance and incentives are core needs of the Community that are necessary to reverse historic trends and patterns experienced by the Community and which will, if not reversed, hinder self determination. The council retains ultimate sovereign authority to determine what program incentives are necessary and in the overall interest of the Community for achieving its long term infrastructure, health, housing and education goals. It is also expressly recognized by the Community that individual financial status or other resources may not, without program assistance, be sufficient to encourage the pursuit of certain endeavors that are in the interest of the Community's self determination. The Community has and shall develop its education, infrastructure and other core programs with the recognition that the long term benefit to the Community of having an educated membership and supporting certain core Community values is greater in the aggregate than the individual benefit conveyed to any particular recipient.

(f) Underfunded programs. The Community reserves the right to provide assistance to make up for federal program underfunding, which shall be treated as satisfying an overall need of the Community on a nontaxable basis under the general welfare doctrine to the same extent as if provided by the federal government. The Community's funding of such programs shall not waive the Community's right to seek funding shortfalls from the federal government and shall not relieve the federal government of its responsibilities and duties to provide such benefits.

Sec. 20-90. Limitation on payments; annual budgeting.

(a) Limitations on welfare assistance payments. The council, within its annual budgets, by resolution or by motion, may adopt guidelines establishing the maximum assistance payments to be made to Community members for certain specified purposes or programs or may delegate the establishment of such limitations to the program level. Such guidelines may also include, by way of example, factors to be considered in determining whether deviations from the general payment limitations should be permitted. Departments or Community divisions charged with administering particular programs may be delegated authority to adopt program guidelines to the extent not contrary to the overall guidelines and limitations established by the council hereunder.

(b) Annual budgeting; unfunded program. The council, through its annual budgeting process, by resolution or by motion, shall designate those funding sources that are available for the payment of assistance benefits. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the assistance payments authorized hereunder shall be "unfunded" for tax purposes and no beneficiary shall have an interest in or right to any funds budgeted for or set aside for assistance payments until actually paid. Assistance benefits shall remain assets of the Community until distributed, and the approved programs shall be administered to avoid premature taxation through the doctrines of constructive receipt and/or economic benefit. (Code 1981, § 20-45; Code 2012, § 20-45; Ord. No. SRO-357-2010, § V, 1-27-2009; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 20-45, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 20-91. Forfeiture of welfare assistance rights.

(a) Forfeiture. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, assistance benefits may be revoked or forfeited for any beneficiary who is found to have misapplied program funds or to have made any misrepresentations during the application process. Assistance may also be forfeited should said benefits be treated as a resource to the detriment of the Community or a beneficiary. The Community shall have a right of recovery with regard to any excess or improper payments hereunder.

(b) Due process. Each program shall offer procedures that afford a beneficiary an opportunity to address forfeiture issues or concerns with the program director or designee. (Code 1981, § 20-46; Code 2012, § 20-46; Ord. No. SRO-357-2010, § VI, 1-27-2009; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 20-46, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 20-92. Inalienability of welfare assistance benefit rights.

A Community member's rights to apply for welfare assistance payments and/or services under this article are not subject to anticipation, alienation, sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, encumbrance, levy, attachment or garnishment by creditors of the Community member or his or her beneficiaries. (Code 1981, § 20-47; Code 2012, § 20-47; Ord. No. SRO-357-2010, § VII, 1-27-2009; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 20-47, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 20-93. Administration.

The Community government departments and divisions shall be charged with the responsibility and authority to administer the welfare assistance payment and service programs called for by this article. All duties performed by an employee or official of the Community in accordance with this article or an approved program are deemed to be conducted in his or her official capacity. (Code 1981, § 20-48; Code 2012, § 20-48; Ord. No. SRO-357-2010, § VIII, 1-27-2009; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 20-48, 5-30-2012)

(Code 1981, § 23-21; Code 2012, § 23-21; Ord. No. SRO-349-09, 7-29-2009; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 23-21, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 23-20. Sovereign immunity.

Except as set forth explicitly in section 23-30(e), nothing in this article is intended to be or shall be construed as a waiver of the sovereign immunity of the Community, its divisions, agents, entities, instrumentalities, employees or officials. (Code 1981, § 23-22; Code 2012, § 23-22; Ord. No. SRO-349-09, 7-29-2009; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 23-22, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 23-21. Title.

This article shall be known as the Community's "Right To Work Ordinance." (Code 1981, § 23-23(a); Code 2012, § 23-23(a); Ord. No. SRO-349-09, 7-29-2009; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 23-23(a), 5-30-2012)

Sec. 23-22. Authority.

This article is enacted pursuant to:

- (1) Article VII of the Community's Constitution; and

- (2) The Community's inherent sovereign authority to govern activities on Community lands that are based on consensual relationships with the Community or that have a direct effect on the political integrity, economic security, or health or welfare of the Community.

(Code 1981, § 23-23(b); Code 2012, § 23-23(b); Ord. No. SRO-349-09, 7-29-2009; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 23-23(b), 5-30-2012)

Sec. 23-23. Purpose.

The purpose of this article is to ensure for all persons working for the Community and all persons working on Community lands the right to work and pursue employment without the restraints of mandatory affiliation with, membership in, or payment to a labor organization. This article establishes that the right of persons to work shall not be denied, abridged, restrained, or otherwise jeopardized because of membership in, affiliation with, or financial or other support of a labor organization, or refusal to join, affiliate with, or financially or otherwise support a labor organization.

(Code 1981, § 23-23(c); Code 2012, § 23-23(c); Ord. No. SRO-349-09, 7-29-2009; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 23-23(c), 5-30-2012)

Sec. 23-24. Findings.

The Community finds that:

- (1) It is in the best interests of all persons working for the Community and all persons working on Community lands to have the right to obtain and retain employment regardless of membership in, affiliation with, or financial or other support of a labor organization, or refusal to join, affiliate with, or financially or otherwise support a labor organization;
- (2) Persons have the right to be free from discrimination and retaliation that is based on membership in, affiliation with, or financial or other support of a labor organization, or refusal to join, affiliate with, or financially or otherwise support a labor organization;
- (3) It is the public policy of the Community that, in order to maximize individual freedom of choice in the pursuit of employment and to encourage and enhance an employment atmosphere conducive to economic growth, the right of persons to work for the Community or to work on Community lands shall not be denied, abridged, restrained, or otherwise jeopardized based on membership in, affiliation with, or financial or other support of a labor organization, or refusal to join, affiliate with, or financially or otherwise support a labor organization;
- (4) Given the Community's inherent authority over employment and labor relations on Community lands, the Community's regulation of employment on Community lands, and the longstanding federal policy protecting tribal self-government and promoting tribal self-sufficiency, the Community finds that the National Labor Relations Act (NLRA) does not apply to the Community government as an employer. Application of the NLRA to the tribal government as an employer would substantially impair the ability of the Community to exercise its sovereign authority and would subject the Community government to the threat of strikes and disrupt the Community government's ability to provide essential services to the Community;
- (5) As an exercise of sovereignty and self-governance, the Community government sets standards for labor and employment within the Community that protect employees' interests with respect to issues such as hours of employment, wages, rates of pay, working conditions and grievances. The delegation of such sovereign authority, which is constitutionally vested in the Community Council, to an employer for purposes of bargaining with a labor organization is unlawful; and
- (6) The Community has the right to enact this law protecting the right to work for all persons working for the Community and all persons working on Community lands.

(Code 1981, § 23-23(d); Code 2012, § 23-23(d); Ord. No. SRO-349-09, 7-29-2009; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, § 23-23(d), 5-30-2012)

Sec. 23-25. Right to work.

No person shall be required to, as a condition of employment or continuation of employment:

- (1) Resign or refrain from voluntary membership in, voluntary affiliation with, or voluntary financial support of a labor organization;
- (2) Become or remain a member of a labor organization or be affiliated with a labor organization;
- (3) Pay any dues, fees, assessments or other charges of any kind or amount to a labor organization;
- (4) Pay to any charity or other third party, in lieu of such payments, any amount equivalent to or a pro rata portion of dues, fees, assessments, or other charges regularly required of members of a labor organization; or
- (5) Be recommended, approved, referred, or cleared by or through a labor organization.

Sec. 23-26. Unlawful agreements.

(a) Any agreement, understanding or practice, written or oral, implied or expressed, between an employer and a labor organization that violates the rights of employees guaranteed by this article shall be unlawful, null and void, and of no legal effect.

(b) Any striking, picketing, boycotting or other action by a labor organization for the sole purpose of inducing or attempting to induce an employer to enter into any agreement prohibited by this article is hereby declared to be for an illegal purpose and a violation of this article.

  - e. The disease is incidental to the character of the business and not independent of the relations of the employer and employee; and
  - f. The disease, after its contraction, appears to have had its origin in a risk connected with the employment and to have flowed from that source as a natural consequence, although it need not have been foreseen or expected.

Work-related injuries under this section shall be either: specific, which means that the injury is a result of one incident or exposure that causes disability or a need for medical treatment; or cumulative, which means that the injury is a result of repetitive activities extending over a period of time that cause disability or a need for medical treatment. The date of a cumulative injury is the date upon which the employee first suffered the disability or need for medical treatment and knew, or in the exercise of reasonable diligence should have known, that the disability or need for medical treatment was caused by his or her present or prior employment.

- (2) The term "work-related injury" does not include injuries caused by the acts identified in section 23-60. Mental injuries shall not be considered work-related injuries and shall not be compensable pursuant to this chapter unless an unexpected, unusual or extraordinary stress related to the employment, or a physical injury related to the employment, was a substantial contributing cause of the mental injury. Examples of mental injuries that are not considered work-related injuries and are not compensable pursuant to this chapter include, without limitation, mental injuries caused by good faith, nondiscriminatory employment actions, including termination and discipline of an employee.

liability or claims arising from any work-related injury, including death resulting from any work-related injury.

(b) The liability of the Community for any work-related injury, including death resulting from any work-related injury, shall be limited to the benefits available to claimants under this article. The Community shall not be liable for damages at common law or by statute. Such liability shall not be expanded except by amendment of this article by the council.

(c) Nothing in this article shall be deemed or construed as a waiver of the Community's sovereign immunity. The Community objects to and does not consent to the jurisdiction of:

(e) The designated workers' compensation liaison must report a work-related injury to the administrator promptly, but in no event more than 14 days after receiving an initial report of injury.

(f) Notwithstanding any provision of this section, the time for reporting a work-related injury or death shall not begin to run until:

- (1) The employee or surviving dependent is aware, or by the exercise of reasonable diligence should have been aware, of the relationship between the work-related injury or death and the employment; and
- (2) The employee or surviving dependent is physically and mentally capable of reporting the work-related injury or death. Employees and surviving dependents will be presumed to be physically and mentally capable of meeting the reporting requirements unless they provide bona fide medical certification of their physical or mental incapability.

The responsibility of the administrator to make determinations and decisions includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- (1) Based upon investigation and available information, the administrator will make a determination of the responsibility of the employer and will either accept or deny a claim. Within 90 days of receipt of an initial report of injury or death, the administrator will advise the claimant and employer of its determination or the necessity of postponing the decision for another 90-day period to obtain sufficient information to render a decision.

- (2) The administrator will determine the reasonableness and necessity of medical care and charges and will determine the amounts payable under this article. The administrator will also approve or disapprove any request for a change of treating physician, referral to a physician or surgical procedure.
- (3) The administrator will retain medical control for the life of the claim.
- (4) The administrator will determine when the claimant has reached the point where no further material improvement from medical treatment would reasonably be expected, at which point the administrator shall issue a determination that the claimant has reached the point of maximum medical improvement.
- (5) Based on information supplied by the employer and/or claimant, the administrator will determine the compensation rate payable for temporary total disability, temporary partial disability, permanent partial disability, and/or permanent total disability (as defined in section 23-61(c) and (d)).
- (6) The administrator will determine the eligibility of dependents and the terms of any dependency benefits payable.
- (7) In the event of the need to allocate dependency benefits between dependents living in different households, the administrator will make the necessary allocation based on the obligations, legal or otherwise, of the decedent.
- (8) If a claimant's claim is subject to the limitations of section 23-98, statute of limitations, the administrator shall advise the claimant and employer of the effect of the limitations in writing.

(Code 2012, art. III; Ord. No. SRO-384-2011, § 8, 8-17-2011; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, 5-30-2012)

(b) If the claimant unreasonably fails to appear for a scheduled IME, the responsibility of the employer for payment of medical expenses and/or other benefits relative to the workers' compensation claim shall cease until such time as the claimant appears for the IME.

(c) The employer, through its administrator, retains full control over claimant's medical treatment for the duration of the claim. This shall include, without limitation, sole discretion to assign or reassign claimant's treating physician, as well as to approve or deny any request for a change of treating physician or other medical provider.

(d) The administrator may reduce, suspend or terminate the compensation of a claimant who persists in unsanitary or injurious practices tending to imperil or impede his or her recovery, or who refuses to submit to medical or surgical treatment reasonably necessary to promote the claimant's recovery.
(Code 2012, art. III; Ord. No. SRO-384-2011, § 9, 8-17-2011; Ord. No. SRO-402-2012, 5-30-2012)

Sec. 23-60. Acts outside course or scope of employment.

(a) Employees determined to have been acting outside the course or scope of their employment when the incident giving rise to the work-related injury occurred shall be denied any benefits under this article.

(b) An incident that occurs while the employee is commuting to or from work does not arise out of or occur within the course and scope of employment.

(c) The Community shall not be legally liable for any injury, disease or death sustained by an employee in any of the following situations:

- (1) Where alcohol intoxication or the improper or unlawful use of a controlled substance causes or contributes to the incident that gives rise to the injury, disease or death;
- (2) Where the employee is under the influence of any substance that impairs the ability of the employee to perform his or her work duties in a safe manner;
- (3) Where the employee has willfully and deliberately caused his or her own injury, disease or death;
- (4) Where the injury, disease or death arises out of an altercation in which the injured employee is the initial physical aggressor;
- (5) Where the injury, disease or death is caused by the commission of a criminal act by the employee;
- (6) Where the injury, disease or death arises out of voluntary participation in any off-duty recreational, social or athletic activity not constituting a part of the employee's work-related duties, including but not limited to, voluntary intramural sporting events or activities sponsored by the employer;
- (7) Where the injury, disease or death is predominantly (greater than 50 percent) caused by a preexisting condition or injury, whether or not work related;
- (8) Where the injury, disease or death is actually or proximately caused by the inhalation of secondhand smoke;
- (9) Where an injury is diagnosed as reflex sympathetic dystrophy (RSD) or complex regional pain syndrome (CRPS);
- (10) Where the injury, disease or death is caused by an act of God, except when the employee's course and scope of work places the employee at greater risk of injury, disease or death than the general population during the act of God; or

- (11) Where the injury, disease or death results from natural causes or other causes which are not caused by an employee's course and scope of work.

Sec. 23-61. Benefits.

(a) Guidelines for calculating to be enacted; reviewed; adjusted. Within 90 days of the date of enactment of this article, the administrator shall prepare written guidelines for calculating the amount of compensation benefits to be paid under this article, and these written guidelines may be comparable to benefits mandated for employees by the industrial commission of the state.

- (1) The written guidelines shall not be effective until approved by a majority vote of the council.
- (2) Every three years from the date of enactment of this article, the administrator shall review and adjust, if appropriate and necessary, the written guidelines for calculating the amount of compensation benefits to be paid under this article. Any adjustments to the written guidelines shall not be effective until approved by a majority vote of the council.

(b) Customary medical and supportive care costs.

- (1) Usual and customary medical and supportive care costs will be provided under this article and may be comparable to those established by the state industrial commission. Unless there are extenuating circumstances, the administrator must preapprove medical services and providers.
- (2) Supportive care is available after the claimant has reached the point of maximum medical improvement, and active medical treatment has ceased. Supportive care includes treatment for reducing pain or other care used to maintain the status quo after the claimant has reached the point of maximum medical improvement.

(c) Temporary total and partial disability benefits.

- (1) Temporary total disability exists when the claimant is under active medical care and the work-related injury prevents the claimant from working at all.
- (2) Temporary partial disability exists when the claimant is cleared by his or her medical provider to engage in some form of work-related activity while active medical care continues for the work-related injury.
- (3) Temporary total and partial disability benefits will be provided under this article and may be comparable to those established by the laws of the state for comparable workers' compensation injuries, including any applicable schedules for the determination of temporary total or temporary partial disability benefits used by the industrial commission of the state. However, nothing herein shall mandate that the Community provide the same benefits recoverable under state law.
- (4) Except for severe injuries that usually require extended recuperation (e.g., severe burns, amputations and major surgeries), temporary disability benefits shall not extend beyond 104 weeks. For severe injuries, temporary disability benefits shall not extend beyond 234 weeks.

(d) Permanent total and partial disability benefits.

- (1) Permanent total disability exists when, after the administrator has determined that a claimant has reached the point of maximum medical improvement, the claimant's actual or presumed ability to engage in gainful employment is absent because of a work-related injury.
- (2) Permanent partial disability occurs when, after the administrator has determined that the claimant has reached the point of maximum medical improvement, the claimant's actual or presumed ability to engage in gainful employment is reduced because of a work-related injury.

(3) Permanent partial disability benefits.

- a. In determining the percentages of permanent partial disability, the administrator shall take into account the nature of the impairment, the occupation of the injured worker and the claimant's age at the time of the injury, with consideration given to the diminished ability of the claimant to compete in an open labor market within the Community or the surrounding county within which the claimant's job is located.
- b. It is the intention of this article that the laws of the state for comparable workers' compensation injuries, including any applicable schedules for the determination of permanent total or permanent partial disability benefits used by the industrial commission of the state, may be used for guidance in determining permanent total or permanent partial disability benefits. However, nothing herein shall mandate that the Community provide the same benefits recoverable under state law.
- c. In no event shall permanent partial disability for any and all work-related injuries combined exceed an aggregate total of 100 percent (i.e., it shall not be greater than permanent total disability).

(e) Vocational rehabilitation. If the claimant, because of a permanent disability, whether partial or total, is unable to return to either:

- (1) His or her usual and customary work; or
- (2) A permanent modified or alternate position, the Community will work with the claimant, as the administrator deems reasonably appropriate, to provide vocational rehabilitation services to assist the claimant to return to gainful employment. Claimants who fail or refuse to avail themselves of vocational rehabilitation services offered by the administrator may have their benefits under this article reduced or terminated.

(f) Modified duty. The Community will, within one year from the date of enactment of this article, adopt modified duty return to work policies and programs. The Community government and each division and enterprise of the Community shall adopt a modified duty return to work policy that meets the needs of its respective entity.

(g) Aggravation of preexisting condition. For purposes of permanent partial or permanent total disability caused by the aggravation of a preexisting condition, the amount of the award for that disability may be reduced or denied in its entirety by the administrator based upon the following:

- (1) A prior settlement or award from any source for the preexisting condition; and
- (2) The difference between the degree of disability of the claimant before the work-related injury and the claimant's present degree of disability.

(h) Dependency benefits.

- (1) In case of a work-related injury causing death within three years from the date of the injury, benefits shall be payable to the employee's surviving dependents. The administrator shall determine whether the surviving dependents are qualified to receive benefits under this article, including whether the surviving dependents were necessarily totally or partially dependent upon the employee at the time of the employee's death.
- (2) Upon request, a person seeking dependency benefits must furnish the administrator with proof, satisfactory to the administrator, of the nature, amount and extent of the contribution employee made to the surviving dependent's support.

- (3) It is the intention of this article that state law for survivor benefits, including any applicable schedules for the determination of such benefits used by the industrial commission of the state, may be used for guidance in determining dependency benefits. However, in no event shall the aggregate total amount payable to the surviving dependents exceed $750,000.00.

(i) Compensation limits. In no event shall compensation payable to a claimant pursuant to this article exceed $1,250,000.00.

(j) No compensation after death or retirement. Compensation benefits paid to a claimant under this article shall cease upon the claimant's death or after the actual retirement of the claimant or after the claimant reaches age 65, whichever is sooner.
