

THE TRIBAL HISTORIC PRESERVATION OFFICE PRESENTS

THPO TALKS

Heritage Preservation Speaker Series

Tribal Agriculture: Why Arizona?

Presented by Dr. Michael Kotutwa Johnson,
Assistant Professor, School of Natural Resources and the Environment, University of Arizona

Tribal Nations in Arizona have been practicing agriculture since time immemorial. Once the essence of our communities which has a correlation to our identity. These practices have yielded to another introduced lifestyle with negative health results. The talk will focus on the groundwork for revitalizing our agricultural systems, eventually leading the way for our traditional lifeways.

Thursday, October 15th | 530pm - 8pm
Su:g / Kwishilaa Auditorium

Kavad / Kushov Cultural Center - 1691 N. Longmore Road, Scottsdale 85256

LIVESTREAM: <https://www.youtube.com/@saltrivercrd/streams>

Light dinner will be served. For more information contact the THPO.